A DANGEROUS DEMAND. The negroes of North Carolina are demanding a State University for people of color.

This is the first notice we have seen of a threatening, disturbing element. Soon after the war the Radicals held the University...

Whenever the negroes reach that standard of preparatory scholarship to justify the erection of a State College for their special benefit then it may be done.

All of the Presidents are dead except Cleveland. Of course no one would think of Hayes in connection with that office.

Now if in the face of this grand effort to educate the negroes they should lend themselves to the vindictive work of trying to force themselves into the University...

The Lord Chief Justice of England is now on trial for libel. How will it sound if he is convicted.

EX-PRESIDENT ARTHUR.

The death of an ex-President of the United States should call forth special editorial reference from papers of all parties.

No man ever began office under more depressing circumstances except Andrew Johnson. Mr. Arthur was elected Vice President on the ticket with Gen. Garfield...

It is not meant to assert that his Administration was free from faults or was not partisan. It was a Republican Administration, and was the best the country had since Buchanan's...

BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Second Day's Proceedings—More Delegates in Attendance—Religious Exercises—Committees Announced—State Missions, &c.

The Convention commenced its second day's work promptly at 9.30 a. m. The sunrise prayer and praise meeting had been well attended, and was led by Rev. J. Van Dusen of Edenton.

The delegates looked more refreshed than yesterday, when so many of them were fatigued from the night ride on the Carolina Central railroad.

After the reading of the journal of yesterday Mr. G. French, of Wilmington, made some touching remarks and prayed for God's blessings upon the members of the Convention and the work before them.

The President announced the following as the Committee on Baptist Orphanage: Revs. C. Durham, W. B. Wingate, W. B. Morton, B. Cade, J. P. Moore, E. W. Wooten, T. M. Honeycutt, and Messrs. W. L. Potent, E. A. Covington.

On General Education—Dr. O. E. Taylor, Prof. J. W. Gore, G. W. Manly, Thos. Hume, Jr., W. L. Potent, G. W. Greene, F. P. Hobbogood, J. B. Brewer and R. D. Malloy.

but wanted every member to feel the weight of the pledge, if made. Rev. A. D. Cohen, of Smithville, thought members ought to undertake $12,000; and as it was in the battles of the late war, if North Carolinians were called to the charge they would succeed.

Dr. Hufham again urged his proposition to raise $12,000 for the next year. Rev. Baylis Cade, of Louisiana, said what they needed to do was to go home and perfect the units. He favored the proposition; if they did not undertake great things they would not accomplish them.

After some consultation, Dr. Hufham's proposition was withdrawn and that for $10,000 adopted by a hearty rising vote. Several announcements were made and then the body adjourned with benediction by Rev. J. W. Perry, of Statesville.

At the close of his speech Col. Heck offered a resolution recommending renewed efforts to establish Sunday schools in all distant sections, and recommending that every member in each Sunday school contribute one cent per month on each first Sabbath to the extension of the work, and turning this over to the Sunday School Board for expenditure, as they may find necessary.

Mr. Eugene Harrell, of Raleigh, said that he never found a community where it was impossible to sustain a good Sunday school and wherever they were organized it brought the people nearer together and in more harmony with each other.
