GULLIBILITY.

The wild phantoms and shricking cries of a worthless humbug can make money by imposing upon the creduitty and ignorance of an honest public, and the supply of this species of work seems more than an adequate demand. The enunciation of facts—facts that have stood crucial tests—facts proven by brain force and tangible evidence, should satisfy all landable enterprises; but the execrable practice of teaching fales ideas and doctrines for self-aggrandizement is truly reprehensible and should be scorned by all classes.

When one house tells you that Iodine of Potash is a poison simply because their opponents use it, and because they are pandering to your ignorance, as they suppose, you should look upon all such as arrant frauds and their remedies as unworthy public confidence, and if those who make such assertions do not know better, they are a set of unenviable ignoranuses.

Doctors and Hot Springs.

Hot Springs failed entirely to cure me of several terrible, indolent running ulcers on my legs, with which I have been troubled for many years. Several doctors also attempted to cure me but failed. I have used only a few bottles of B. B. (made at Atlanta, Ga.,) and the effect has been truly magical, as they have all healed and I am cured. It is worth all medicines made for purifying the blood. This wonderfully quick cure has been effected after everything else had failed Your medicine is a daisy, and has done the business for me. I have lived here twenty-five years. My general nealth is also improving, appetite and digestion good. I sleep soundly, and never felt better. Doctors told me that I could not be cured, but B. B. has cured me.

It is decidedly the quickest, best and cheapest blood purifier I ever used. It is shead of all others. As to my case and its cure I refer to every merchant or professional man of Pine Bluff. Ark., May 12th, 1886.

Cancerous Ulcers Cured.

I have been taking Botanic Blood Baim (B. B. B.) and I am about well of an ulcer I had upon my nose for six years, said by all to be a cancer. I refer to Postmaster Renfroe, of Atlanta.

ST. PETERBRURG, May 10.—The Czarowitch was last evening installed with great ceremony at Novo Tcherkask as Hetman of the Cossacks. The decree of appointment was publicly read to the Cossacks for their faithful services and for the cordial reception they had extended to him and his family. The Czar then handed the Hetman's baton to the Czarowitch, the presentation being attended with great pomp and ceremony, which included a superb exhibition of the Imperial regalia and jewels. After this ceremony the Czar reviewed the Cossack regiment, the reserved battery of young military pupils, and two regiments of Cossack boys. Kalmuck horsemen then gave an exhibition or any injurious mineral ingredient.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. I must admit after trying everything else recommended to me I tried Simmons Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to your directions, a half-table spoonful after each meal, she has been in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any of her previous symptoms."

W. C. Subers, Bainbridge, Ga. muck horsemen then gave an exhibition of a war game for the entertainment of the Imperial visitors and presented the Czar with a cream colored horse. The day's ceremonies and exhibitions were followed in the evening by a gorgeous display fireworks and a grand jubilation ball.

London, May 19 -In the House of Com mons this evening Col. King-Harman, Par-liamentary Under-Secretary for Ireland, replying to Mr. Wm. A. McDonald (Parnellite) in reference to the remarkable in-crease in emigration from Ireland, said it should be attributed partly to the growing want of employment in Ireland, partly to the fear entertained by the masses that s new crimes act would enable the authoritie to punish persons for past violations of the law, and partly to the fact that numbers of Irish people were forced to leave the country because of their disinclination to join secret societies. Fwelve Men Plunder an Express Train at McNelli Station in Texas-Passengers Intimidated - A Large Amount in Money Taken from the Express Train. By Telegraph to the Morning Star

CHICAGO, May 20 .- The Times' special from Austin, Texas, reports that by the aid of bloodhounds officers tracked the train robbers to a camp where the booty was divided; express wrappers being found lying around promiscuously. Numerous trails eading from this spot indicated that the party separated here. The sheriff of Wiliamson county was scouring the country with dogs and a large posse. WACO, May 20 .- C. W. White, of Waco, who was a passenger on the Missouri Pacific train which was robbed at McNeill station, on the International & Great Northern Railroad, gives the following particulars of the robbery: When the train pulled up at Mc-Neill, which is at the crossing of the Austin & Northwestern Railroad, it was found that the agent and two gentlemen who intended to take passage on the train were in charge of twelve robbers who had come to the sta-tion well mounted and armed. The robbers had rolled a log in front of the engine and the engineer and firemen were guarded by some of them while the others fired into the top of the cars, in the train. The passengers were told that if they kept quiet they would not be molested, and they kept quiet. The robbers fired about a hundred shots within the coaches to enforce the quietness of the passengers. Henry Landa of San Antonio was shot in the hand. A brakeman named White had his cheek and nose grazed by a bullet. The robbers made for the express car, which was in charge of A. J. North-cker, and demanded that he open it. He refused to obey and they broke open the car door and knocked Northacker down. The safe was broken open and ROCHESTER, N. Y. CHICAGO, ILL. robbed. How much money they got no one seems to know. The amount has been variously estimated at from $21,000 to $55,000. White says the expressman would not or could not tell the amount of money stolen. It is supposed from his remarks that the robbers secured a large-amount. After the robbers had accured the boodle they told the train men to roll the log off the track and they could go on. White, before leaving the station, had a talk with the agent, whose nams is S. R. Ely. Ely says the men came to the station unmasked and took himself and two other unmasked and took himself and two other men in charge. One of these men was J. H. Ricketts, from Birmingham, Ala. The robbers also took a fine gold watch and chain from Richetts. The robbers placed these three in a box ear, closed the door and put a guard over them. White says he asked the agent what kind of looking men they were and he told him that they looked like border ruffians. They were well armed and seemed to understand their business very thoroughly. After robbing the train they rode away. The train was delayed heisyeans to the Morning Star. NEW YORK May 21.-Archbishop Corrigan received the following letter to day regarding the case of Dr. McGlynn:

The Pope's Letter to Archbishop Cor-

To Our Venerable Brother, Michael Auquestine Corrigan. Archbishop of New York—Leo P P. XIII —Venerable Brother,

Health and the Apostolic Benediction Your letter dated the 22d day of April last has reached us, in which you lament the conjumscious disobedience of a pricit, one of your subjects, not only towards yourself but also towards this Apostolic See; and anxiously seek to bring before the Supreme Triumvirate of our authority the false doctrines concerning the right of property, disseminated by him among the people in public and in public assemblies. We, therefore, moved by these your words expressed to us with just grief of heart, and in the conscientious discharge of duty, have accurately considered the whole series of facts from the beginning, and have espe-cially seen with commendation your firmness joined with signal charity. It has been indeed, great grief to us to see the which has arisen against your authority in your city, through the deeds of some craftly devised machinations and the open conspiracy of factious men, and our anguish has been all the greater since, from information lately conveyed to us We hear that there are some others of the clergy imbued with the doctrines of this priest, who have not hesitated to adhere to him, although the clergy generally of the whole, licensed, and the greater and better part of the laity, gladly remained with un-changed will in faithful obedience and loyalty to you. It is, indeed, grateful to us and approved by us, that you have labored to crush, ere they sprang up, the vicious seeds of doctrines scattered under the pretext of helping the masses; nor is it less to your praise that with long suffering and patience you have not ceased with watchful industry to calm the proud and restless spirits although they have not refrained from slanders and reproaches against you and this Apostolic Sec. It is fitting, then, that you should be of good heart, and with unwavering firmness apply all your strength to the work of salvation of souls, and in defending the sanctity of the faith and discipline. Nevertheless, led by Christian charity, you will leave nothing unturned that with paternal benevolence you may embrace those who are deceived by this new doctrine, if they return to wiser counsels. We, however, will never permit any injury to your good name and dignity, much less to the authority of this Apostolic Sce, and we will not fail to make known to you through the congregation of the Propoganda timely measures for the correction of rebellion. Meanwhile we earnestly pray the God of consolation. that he will console you, venerable brother, tried by so many cares, and as a pledge of his divine favor and proof of our special affection for you, we lovingly bestow upon you, the clergy and people committed to your care, the apostolic benediction. Given at Rome, at St. Peters, on the 4th day of May, 1887, in the tenth year of our pontificate. Leo P. P. XIII. Henry George was shown the Pope's letter and after he had read it, he said: "This is in reply, no doubt, to the garbled stateent which Archbishop Corrigan sent to Mr. Smith's motion was carried-278 the Pope. It does not decide the case at all, for Pope Leo has not examined both sides of the question. I think it does not amount to much.

During the reading of the letter George ridiculed a number of expressions, and said that he felt sorry for the Archbishop, who thought that he had been so badly used that he had to write whining letters to the
