

NOBLESS OBLIGE. ROBERT UNDERWOOD JOHNSON. What is diviner than the peace of foes? He conquers not who does not conquer half.

NO PATERNAL GOVERNMENT.

In an excellent article under this heading, the New York Herald has the following sound comments to make...

"Paternal government may suit certain periods of national history, but to our race and nation it is not only foreign but utterly repugnant."

THACKERAY'S VIEWS OF DEATH.

Thackeray's Letters in Scribner's Magazine. "I don't pity anybody who leaves the world, not even a fair young girl in her prime; I pity those remaining."

COTTON.

N. Y. Commercial and Financial Chronicle. New York, Oct. 14.—The movement of the crop, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below.

Wilmington and the C. F. & Y. Greensboro Patriot. We rejoice to see the people of Wilmington waking up to the importance of subscribing the requisite amount of stock...

THE PRESIDENT.

Monday Made a Day of Restful Quiet at Belle Meade, near Nashville—Great Reception in the City Yesterday by the Departing President—The President's Response to the Addresses of Welcome.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 16.—The President has made the personal acquaintance of Uncle Bob Harding, every stock man in the land knows Uncle Bob, the colored farmer, one of the authorities on blooded stock in the world.

It was intended that the day should be for President and for Mrs. Cleveland could not resist the temptation to leave the great breeding farm, and so, accompanied by their host, Gen. Jackson, they sauntered out, and of course Uncle Bob was in the way. It was a great day.

"Oh, no, I see Gen. Jackson and Mr. Polk, but he is the first one I ever got very much of." He's a fine gentleman; very much so.

Bob was much inclined to give reminiscences of his stables, and he branched off into a long and rambling reference to Mrs. Cleveland's recollection of the day when she said of her, "oh she do beat 'em all, and she ain't no know a good horse."

Supreme Court. Court met yesterday at 11 o'clock. Appeals from the third district were disposed of as follows:

Edwards vs. Bowden, from Greene; ptb to end of district. Mobley vs. Watts, from Martin; argued by Mr. James E. Moore (by brief) for plaintiff, and Messrs. Batchelor & Devereux for defendant.

the President and party and the long procession escorted. Expecting all the incidents and struggles common to municipal growth, it had in 1881 a population of about 15,000.

Promptly at twelve o'clock the train pulled out for Chattanooga amid the shouts of thousands and waving handkerchiefs. The assembly, the music, the enthusiasm and good humor, exceeded any ever seen in Nashville before.

Chattanooga, October 17.—The President's train reached here on schedule time. The drive about the city was not barren of incidents. Along the streets the procession, which was composed of nearly a hundred carriages, was greeted with cheers and shouts of "Hurrah for Grover Cleveland."

The President's carriage was escorted by the militia, and the crowd was so dense that it was necessary to have the carriage driven by a military band.

One of the noticeable incidents of the day was the appearance of Lookout Post No. 1, which was the only military organization in the city that was present.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

large of Marlborough, when they proudly escorted. Expecting all the incidents and struggles common to municipal growth, it had in 1881 a population of about 15,000.

Promptly at twelve o'clock the train pulled out for Chattanooga amid the shouts of thousands and waving handkerchiefs. The assembly, the music, the enthusiasm and good humor, exceeded any ever seen in Nashville before.

Chattanooga, October 17.—The President's train reached here on schedule time. The drive about the city was not barren of incidents. Along the streets the procession, which was composed of nearly a hundred carriages, was greeted with cheers and shouts of "Hurrah for Grover Cleveland."

The President's carriage was escorted by the militia, and the crowd was so dense that it was necessary to have the carriage driven by a military band.

One of the noticeable incidents of the day was the appearance of Lookout Post No. 1, which was the only military organization in the city that was present.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

large of Marlborough, when they proudly escorted. Expecting all the incidents and struggles common to municipal growth, it had in 1881 a population of about 15,000.

Promptly at twelve o'clock the train pulled out for Chattanooga amid the shouts of thousands and waving handkerchiefs. The assembly, the music, the enthusiasm and good humor, exceeded any ever seen in Nashville before.

Chattanooga, October 17.—The President's train reached here on schedule time. The drive about the city was not barren of incidents. Along the streets the procession, which was composed of nearly a hundred carriages, was greeted with cheers and shouts of "Hurrah for Grover Cleveland."

The President's carriage was escorted by the militia, and the crowd was so dense that it was necessary to have the carriage driven by a military band.

One of the noticeable incidents of the day was the appearance of Lookout Post No. 1, which was the only military organization in the city that was present.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

At 11 o'clock the President and Vice-President were escorted to the Capitol, where they were met by the members of the Legislature.

COMMERCIAL.

WILMINGTON MARKET. STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened firm at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Distillers quote at $1.65 for Virgin and Yellow Dip and $1.00 for Hard.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Distillers quote at $1.65 for Virgin and Yellow Dip and $1.00 for Hard.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Distillers quote at $1.65 for Virgin and Yellow Dip and $1.00 for Hard.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

A Sealy, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $3000 (two hundred dollars) an immense amount of suffering.

WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 22, 1887. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst.

WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 22, 1887. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst.

WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 22, 1887. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst.

WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 22, 1887. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst.

WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 22, 1887. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst.

Quotations at the Produce Exchange were as follows: Ordinary... 65 cts @ bbl. Good Ordinary... 7 13-16 "

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Distillers quote at $1.65 for Virgin and Yellow Dip and $1.00 for Hard.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—Distillers quote at $1.65 for Virgin and Yellow Dip and $1.00 for Hard.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

STAR OFFICE, Oct. 15, P. M. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market opened steady at 81 cents per gallon, with sales at these figures.

MAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity and whiteness; and can be used for all purposes.

Bank of New Hanover. CAPITAL PAID IN - $350,000. AUTHORIZED CAPITAL - $1,000,000.

Pomona Hill Nurseries. Two and a half miles west of Greensboro, N. C. The main line of the R. & D. R. R. runs through the grounds and within 100 feet of the office.