PROGRESS ON THE C. F. & Y. V.

Early in the new year, if not before the new year comes, the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley will be completed...

The country between Greensboro and Fayetteville is well timbered, rolling but well adapted for farming...

Between Greensboro and Fayetteville there are a number of new towns which have sprung up since the building of the railroad...

North of Greensboro the road penetrates the hill country, and at Mount Airy brings us in near sight of the Blue Ridge...

Fifteen years ago, when a railroad from Greensboro to Wilmington was agitated, this thing was in contemplation by some English capitalists...

It is a good country up there; a new field and a rich one, worth rearing out for, and one the acquaintance of whose people is worth cultivating...

Major P. F. Duffy has taken a position on the Star staff as associate editor. He is a journalist of experience...

The Marquis of Donegal had an income of $3,400 a year. He lived well, however, and got along very nicely until his indebtedness footed up a total of $2,594,425...

AN INTERESTING CASE.

The mind reader, Irving Bishop, had won wide notoriety during his life, and in his death has given wide notoriety to the physicians who performed the hasty autopsy on his body...

Dr. Erwin in his zeal for science and his eagerness to examine Bishop's brain, to see whether it might afford any index to the solution of the mystery of his wondrous power...

The City of Oaks is evidently not content with the privilege of being the Capital of the State where our State solons do biennially congregate...

ABLE TO STAND ALONE.

It has been given out that in as far as Mr. Harrison may have any so-called Southern policy it will be to show favors to Southern protectionists with a view to fostering the growth of a protection party...

If we conceded what the small number of Southern protectionists claim, that they are actuated not by selfish motives, but by broader and more patriotic sentiments...

Tanner is getting there. The pension appropriation is already exhausted. But, but, it only amounts to the paltry sum of $1,750,000...

Familio county must be a healthy resort for rattlesnakes. The editor of the Bayboro Tribune announces the arrival in that town of one which was "somewhere between eight and fifteen feet in length"...
