Spirits Turpentine.

—Raleigh Call: Mr. J. C. Meadlin, of this city, while fishing on Walnut creek yesterday, killed a Broad-winged Hawk measured 8 feet 4 inches in length and 9 inches in circumference. Next!

—Burgaw Herald: There were shipped from Rocky Point from April to July last, 2,815 packages of fruit and strawberries. This is an increase of at least 50 per cent over last year, and it is estimated that there will be a still further increase next season, as more persons will engage in the business.

—Charlotte Chronicle: A large meeting of the members of the First Baptist church was held in the church on Wednesday evening to hear the report of a committee previously appointed to consider the question of the proposed new building, embracing the alternative propositions of enlarging the present edifice, or erecting a new one. The report of the committee was unanimously decided to construct a new church on the present site.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Rev. Geo. W. Butler arrived at home yesterday afternoon from the large and interesting exhibition of monkeys and parrots and other curiosities from that far off country. The exhibition, held in the city, was much damaged by the rain. It is now growing feebly, while the upland corn on stiff soil, is reported better than for years. The low land rice, however, is reported by the freshest, will be planted early this week.

—Elizabeth City Carolinian: Farmers report that upon the whole their corn and cotton promises well. There will be a reunion of the Confederate veterans here on the 28th inst. It is estimated that there will be a large number of them. The reunion will be held on foot on a steamer mail line between Elizabeth City and Manchester. The reunion will be held on foot on a steamer mail line between Elizabeth City and Manchester.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Lightening struck and killed Judge McRae's fine family horse yesterday evening last. Two of the Judge's children were also badly injured by the shock, but not seriously. Their consciences are being troubled by their carelessness. The Post Office at Raleigh has been closed since the 1st of August by the fire of September at the latter place.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Six hundred thousand bushels of wheat were transported through Charlotte for New York by the Richmond and Danville railroad Tuesday. It was thought that there was enough raised in this section to supply the market, but the farmers are already complaining about the dry weather. The farmers say that the heavy rains pay better than light ones. This is evidently one of the seven years when the market is glutted with wheat. The fruit crop is very good.
