A NEW DEPARTMENT.

The election of Gen. John M. Palmer, U. S. Senator from the State of Illinois, may result in something more than the mere election of a Democratic Senator.

The late King of the Sandwich Islands didn't have as extensive a dominion as some of his royal brethren, but when it comes to totting a name he loomed up as a match for any of them.

Hon. Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, struck the marrow of the tariff question recently when he said: "When I raise corn (which he did before he turned his attention to raising Republican scalps), I want to exchange it where I can get the most coats, over coats, underclothes, dress goods and socks."

APPOINTMENTS FOR VISITATION.

By the Bishop of East Carolina, S. Barnabas, Snow Hill, March 19. S. Paul's, Greenville, March 22, Sunday 6th in Lent.

The next point is that it may have not a little to do in naming the candidate for the Presidency, and that possibly the Democrats, in certain contingencies at least, may look to the triumphant John M. Palmer to become their standard bearer in the next campaign.

THE WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR.

Andrew Laspeyre, Colored, Run Over by Train at Beaufort.

"Doctor" Andrew L. Laspeyre, the colored man who was wanted here for complicity in the Chesnut & Barrentine robbery, was killed Monday night at Magnolia, Duplin county. Laspeyre's partner in crime and half-brother—Geo. Nash—was tried in the Criminal Court yesterday, convicted, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

Evangelist Pearson in Mobile.

Rev. R. G. Pearson is now holding services in Mobile, Ala. The Mobile Register says of his preaching: "Dr. Pearson has a peculiar but magnetic presence, standing erect, dark, frail in face, much like A. H. Stephens. His clear analysis, strictly unemotional, but convincing, holds one in close attention, and his striking analogies from nature and experience recall Henry Drummond and Bishop Butler. It is already evident that his mission will be productive of much good here."

The Customs House.

Candidates for the Wilmington Collectorship are crowding fast upon each other's heels. Petitions, it is said, are now in circulation for the appointment of James Dudley and Jno. T. Howe, (both colored) for the position. Dudley was clerk in the office of Register of Deeds under the late Republican administration of New Hanover county, and Howe is a letter-carrier. In the meantime Gen. S. H. Manning is in Washington, whispering sweet words in President Harrison's starboard ear and promising him the North Carolina delegation in the next National Convention.

Baron Favita, in a dispatch to the Marquis D. Rudini, Italian Premier and Foreign Minister, states that he has tested against the inaction of local officers in New Orleans, and that Mr. Blaine expressed horror at the acts of the New Orleans mob, promising that he would immediately take the order of the President in the matter and that the decision would be communicated to the Italian Government.

Among new arrangements that will be greatly for the convenience of the public.

It is contemplated to put up several large mail boxes for merchandise packages that cannot be put in the ordinary letter boxes. Most of these will be placed in the business portion of the city; but the exact locations are not yet determined upon.

Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy.

The Mecklenburg Times says of Senator Bellamy who represented New Hanover and Pender in the recent General Assembly: "There were many good men in the Legislature which has just adjourned, but among the new members none made a better record or wielded a wider influence in the body than Jno. D. Bellamy of Wilmington. He is a young lawyer of fine character and sense. He did not play the demagogue by trying to pad the farmers on the back, neither did he show any enmity towards them. He seemed to be guided by reason and not prejudice, and he won the respect of his law-abiding constituents. We regard him as one of the most promising young men in the State."

NEW ORLEANS' TRAGEDY.

AN INTERNATIONAL QUESTION RAISED. The Italian Government Wants an Investigation and Indemnity for Three of its Subjects Killed—Secretary Blaine's Telegram to Gov. Nichols—Press Comment in England and Italy on the Affair.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Gov. Nichols at New Orleans: "Department of State, March 15.—His Excellency Francis T. Nichols, Governor of Louisiana: It has been reported to the President by the Minister of Italy accredited to this Government, that among the victims of the riot of the 13th inst. were three Italian subjects who took place in the city of New Orleans yesterday, were three or more subjects of the King of Italy. Our treaty with that friendly Government, the supreme law of the land, guarantees to Italian subjects domiciled in the United States the most constant protection and security for their persons and property, making them amenable on the same basis as our own citizens to the laws of the United States, and of the several States, in their due and orderly administration."

The President deeply regrets that the citizens of New Orleans should have so disgraced the purity and adequacy of their own judicial tribunals, and to transmit a passionate judgment of a mob a question that should have been adjudged dispassionately and by settled rules of law. The Government of the United States must give to the Italian Government friendly powers that security which it demands for our own citizens, when temporarily under foreign jurisdiction. It is the hope of the Government that this would never fail in impressing the truth desired to be conveyed. Dr. Pritchard thought the children should be taught lessons of benevolence. Mr. B. G. Worth thought he saw encouragement in the fact that the old custom of asking every stranger who happened to come in to make a "speech" had passed away.

Dr. Pritchard thought that as some denominations were not working with the Association that in order to give a full report of the Sunday School work in the county, the Association should make an effort to get statistics of all schools in the county. Dr. Hoge said he hoped the Executive Committee would consider some way to have a more systematic manner of getting statistics. A difference of administration in Sunday Schools often makes an apparent discrepancy in the reports, which really is not a fact; he thought there could be a more uniform system in filling report blanks.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Durban Sun: A gentleman from Hillsboro arrived in the city on Saturday sound and informed a local establishment a cotton factory in that town at a very early date. Stock to the amount of about $150,000 has already been subscribed.

New Bern Journal: The cold nights of Saturday and Sunday caused some uneasiness in regard to the examination shows that but little damage was done. The water was only slightly injured; the others scarcely at all. The men are not far enough advanced to be endangered, very few are coming ashore and all those are only breaking through the ground.

Raleigh News and Observer: Nearly all the principal grocers and merchants of this city have entered into an organization the Grocers' Protective Association, and have elected officers, and have adopted a code of ethics, and have laws. Gov. Fowle yesterday offered a reward of $300 for the capture of Leonidas McKnight, of Swain county, who committed a daring burglary on the 13th inst. by breaking into the apartments of a family, and stealing the assistance of an accomplice rendered help and rifled the safe of $2,150.

Winston Sentinel: Col. F. H. Fries, of Salem, was in Roanoke, Va., this week arranging with General Manager Sands, of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, for a temporary junction with the Norfolk and Western at Roanoke, so that construction trains may be run on the Roanoke and Southern road immediately. It was decided that the junction should be made on the 1st of May. A little colored boy who had been playing with a silver watch, was this office immediately to be advertised as lost, and a reward of $100 was offered for its return to keep. The lady had a watch, and the honest little negro doubtless has been rewarded.

Montgomery Vidette: Mr. Elliot Hurley, of the Uwharrie river, called at this office Tuesday, and from him we learn that a great amount of prospecting work is going on with fair success with the prospectors. Mr. Hawley is making arrangements to place some machinery on property of his own, and has been four or five miles from the quantity to encourage him to make an outlay. Ex-Sheriff Saunders informs us that Mrs. M. A. Smith has sold her mine, known as the old Nail mine, to Sheriff Saunders for $18,000. Sheriff Saunders also has a beautiful sample of ore taken from his mine, at the Spanish Oak Gap, which plays as about 200 feet from the top of the mine, and which shows very interesting indications of vast quantities of rich ore.

Charlotte Chronicle: R. M. Henderson, of Harrisburg, sustained Tuesday a great amount of prospecting work is going on with fair success with the prospectors. Asheville Citizen: Asheville's new ice factory is to be ready for business in six weeks. Rev. Thos. Stradley, of Madison county, was celebrating his birthday at his home, on Beaver Dam near Asheville, next Monday. Mr. Stradley
