consent the bill was allowed to pass rest, the leading newspapers, making their own canvasses, have found that the demand for Paine's celery compound is enormous, as far surpassing that of any other remedy as the curative power of this great compound does indisputably surpass that of any other. For Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine. It is not an ordinary tonic, sarsaparilla or nervine. It is so superior to them all that they are not even good imitators. Paine's celery compound positively and permanently cures nervous debility and exhaustion. Neuralgia, sleepless-ness, melancholia, hysteria and headaches yield to its refreshing propertiesall these troubles are directly traceable to the one cause, poorness of the blood and poorness of the nervous tissues. For kidney troubles it is the most in-fallible of remedies. It owes its unfailing power to check at once the progress of this breakdown among the tissues of the kidneys to its remarkable nutritive efficiency, Just as soon as Paine's celery compound begins its strengthening work there is at once a rallying of all the im-portant organs of the body. The appetite improves, the spirits become more hopeful, the dull pains of disease lessen. sound, refreshing sleep returns, "that tired, worn-out feeling" departs, and the sufferer knows, without being told by a obysician, that he or she is getting well. The season of March, April and May the springtime, when if one can do so he must recuperate his lost strength and get back the health that nature intended for him-that season is here. It behooves every man, woman and youth now to get well. And Paine's celery compound makes people well.
