

grain, but most of this has passed out of the hands of the farmers and gone into the hands of the speculators who have made the profits that are to be made. Much of this grain has already been exported. The farmers who were able to hold may have held for higher prices, and buyers in the interior may have held for the same reason, and the railroads will, of course, have this to haul to the seaboard, but this will not make a business much more extraordinary than that of other years.

There is a reported shortage in the wheat supply of Europe, caused by the shortage in the producing countries, which has caused the advance in the price of wheat and will probably keep it up, but they are not making a rush for it, and thus avoid booming prices. So much for the Western farmer.

There is no boom in cotton, which though higher than it was this time last year is not high enough to put money enough in the pocket of the grower to make him proud after the cost of production is taken out. There doesn't seem to be any shortage in the world's visible supply of cotton, nor any extraordinary demand for it, and hence no promising prospect of its commanding a very high price. As this is the South's main dependence there is no indication of a rush of money from that source.

There is but one thing as we see it which could start an era of much activity and this is the inauguration of a system of development, the opening of mines, building of railroads, mills, furnaces, &c., all of which are dependent upon the supply of money and the ease with which it can be commanded. When money becomes so "cheap" that there is no incentive to hoard it then it will be turned loose and put into the channels of business, and this will not be until it becomes abundant enough to make it "cheap." Even if all the hoarded gold and greenbacks were turned loose, there is not money enough in this country, especially since the money it has is practically controlled by a comparatively few men who can manipulate it in their own interest.

There will be improvement in business; we feel satisfied of that, but not so suddenly nor so much as to make us giddy with prosperity.

MINOR MENTION.

The Rothschilds and other money magnates of Europe who are interested in the perpetuation of the gold standard, are rejoicing in the so-called "sound money" victory last Tuesday, while the advocates of bimetalism over there are correspondingly depressed, for they regard the verdict of the voters of this country as a serious obstacle to the progress of the cause in those countries where a fight was being made for it. Dr. Otto Arendt, one of the most prominent bimetalists in Germany, is quoted as saying:

"I have heard the news with unfeigned sorrow. The defeat of the silver movement in the United States will undoubtedly react unfavorably upon the bimetallic movement in Germany and the remainder of Europe. Still I do not despair. Bimetalism will not be long deferred."

Notwithstanding the discouragement he takes a hopeful view. The main obstacle in the way is Great Britain, which adheres to the gold standard because the financial policy of that country is dominated by the money lenders. And the bimetalists of that country and of other countries were anxious for some recognized commercial power, to lead the way which might be followed by others, and thus force Great Britain to yield, or stand out alone. Hence they rejoiced when the Democratic party of this country declared for bimetalism, regardless of other nations. If bimetalism had triumphed there is no doubt that Germany and other European nations would soon have followed.

Wm. J. Bryan belongs to the never despair order of men, who although defeated never surrender. His address published yesterday shows the metal and the unconquerable spirit of the man, and is fitting culmination of the magnificent record he made from the hour the Democratic standard was placed in his hands until it was certain that it had gone down in defeat, temporarily lowered but not dishonored. The cause of the gold standard has for the time being triumphed, triumphed by methods that have now become historic, but the cause of bimetalism is not dead, for there can be no enduring prosperity in this country until that becomes the recognized and established policy. There may be "makeshifts," suggestions of expediency, but the people who have been promised so much in the event that the gold standard triumphed, will remember these promises and hold the promises up to them. The responsibility is upon the statesmen of the Republican party now; they can no longer influence the people with predictions of disaster or seductive promises of prosperity. Now that they have the opportunity they will be judged by what they do, not by what they profess.

One of the grim post-election jokes is the suggestion of some of the Northern "sound money" organs which during the campaign were emptying their slush pots on "repudiators," "communists" and "anarchists," that the Democrats get together now and "reorganize," on the "Indianapolis platform," the representatives of which—decoys Palmer and Buckner—didn't get votes enough to make a respectable funeral, didn't carry a State nor as far as heard from a county or election precinct in the United States. That would be a nice platform to get upon wouldn't it, even if the question of principle were entirely ignored, and politics only considered? This would be the bootless tail, so to speak, on record, wagging the biggest dog that tail ever wagged. Oh, no, none of that. It is too ridiculous even for a joke. And then again we have Grover Cleveland and John G. Carlisle, hastening to chop off the heads of Federal office holders who happened to hold opinions contrary to theirs, and had the independence to express them, which indicates the burning desire these Indianapolis platform exponents have to get the Democratic party together. We like jokes; but this is really too much.

Interest will now hinge on the election of a United States Senator from this State to succeed Pritchard. It is in the power of the Populists and Democrats to name the Senator, unless it be true, as claimed by some of the Republican managers, that there are enough of the Populists elected committed to Pritchard to return him. In some counties this was charged by the Democratic canvassers in the campaign, but as far as we know, was not admitted, those charged simply refusing to say yes or no. There may be others, but Dockery, Mott, Guthrie and Pritchard will be the leading contestants, with the chances in favor of Guthrie, unless, as stated, there has been a previous bargain that will secure Pritchard votes enough to elect him. The Democrats would give Guthrie their support more willingly than to either Dockery or Mott. We do not know how Senator Pritchard feels towards Guthrie, or whether he would support him, but the Populist machine runners in this State have spilt against him, growing out of the address he issued advising Populists to vote for free silver Democrats for Congress in preference to Populist decoys, and they will do what they can to knife him.

The New York Advertiser, Republican, congratulates the Democrats who voted for McKinley, and says they have the consolation of not only helping "to save the Union, but their party, too." If any of them come around asking for anything they must content themselves with this "consolation."

Presidential elections cost this country about $3,000,000. This is the necessary expense of holding the elections. It does not include money spent by campaign managers and others interested, which ordinarily amounts to much more than that and in the recent campaign to several times as much.

R. W. Allen, Mayor of Basic City, Va., blew his brains out the day after the election. He was one of the judges of election and was charged with selling out to the Republicans. He was much more sensitive than some of the men who combined to sell out States but who have failed to see the eternal fitness of things by following his example.

Populists Should Instruct.

No fear need be entertained that any Democrat elected to the Legislature will vote for Pritchard or any other gold-bug for the United States Senate. But not so with the Populists, some of the members-elect being, it is said, pledged to Pritchard. The Populists should hold meetings in all the counties that have elected Populist members and instruct them to vote for no candidate for United States Senator who will not pledge himself to vote for free silver if he is elected.

No Interference With Employes.

To the credit of the management of the Atlantic Coast Line, be it said, there was nothing approximating coercion of employes in connection with the recent election. In fact, every man in its employ voted according to his convictions without even the slightest apprehension that it would affect his relations to the Coast Line. A few of the employes voted for McKinley and a few for Palmer; but an overwhelming majority of them voted for Bryan. The STAR knows this statement is correct; and it believes it applies, also, to the other railroads running into Wilmington.

After all the bombastic campaigning in North Carolina by Burton Harrison, DeLancey Nicolai, George Brad-Paw and other so-called Palmer and Buckner orators, the returns thus far received indicate that the decoy ticket did not poll a thousand—probably not five hundred—votes in the State. What a miserable farce!

RALEIGH NEWS LETTER.

BUTLER CONTROLS THE SENATORIAL SITUATION.

Has Already Made a Big Bluff at Pritchard for Control of Senate and State Patronage—All the Populist Members of Positions in Executive Institutions Will Be Removed—Large Majority to Be Adjunct General.

[Special Star Correspondence.]
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 7.
Butler absolutely controls the Senatorial situation. If he favors Pritchard, Pritchard will be elected, but if he is against him it will be impossible to return the gold-bug gentleman to the Senate. I say this because Butler controls the Populists and the representatives of that party hold the balance of power in the Legislature.

The Populist Senator has already made a big bluff at Pritchard. He will continue to do so. Of course Butler has a purpose in this, as he has in everything he does. He is essentially a bargain driver. If Pritchard reaches the Senate he will have to deliver to Butler the lion's share of the Senate and State patronage. That is what Butler is working for.

What has Butler done in this year of our Lord? Did he not say twelve months ago that (unless would be impossible) he would change his mind and support Pritchard? The spectacle of gold bugs and Populists on the same ticket would be disgraceful, he wrote. Then the Republicans were making a bold front. They said Butler shouldn't intimidate them. Butler didn't change his mind and the Republicans got down on their knees. Then he changed his front, but not until he had done an unparalleled bargain. He got five State officers and five Congressmen. The Republicans took two State officers and four Congressmen.

Judge Clark is mentioned as a Senatorial possibility. His friends are hustling to get in line. One of the amusing incidents of the time is Uncle John Nichols' candidacy for the appointment of Labor Commissioner. The man who worked the best he knew how against Russell in the nomination, and failed to carry his own precinct, wants this. Well, well!

In casting about for an Adjunct General it has been suggested that Loge Harris would fill the bill. A more pious gentleman could not be found. The trouble is he might involve the State in war with some foreign power. It is said that Judge Dickson resigns soon as McKinley gets in office and that Holton will be appointed to succeed him.

The next Legislature will have several talented and distinguished ex-Senators as Representatives. An ex-Congressman, John M. Brower, is elected. The man above all others who will be missed this year is A. A. Campbell, the Republican "hanging dog."

Death of Mrs. A. D. Cazaux.
The death is announced of Mrs. Sarah W. Cazaux, wife of Capt. A. D. Cazaux, of Wilmington. She died at the residence of the family on Wrightsville Sound early yesterday morning.

Mrs. Cazaux had been sick for some time, but her death was sudden and unexpected. She was born in Fayetteville, a sister of the late Hon. Wm. S. Mullins, of South Carolina, and leaves, besides her husband and children, a large number of relatives in this and other States. The funeral will take place today at 12 o'clock from St. James' Church.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

How the Senate and House Will Stand.
[Special Star Telegram.]
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 6.—The Legislature now stands as follows: Senate—23 Populists, eight Democrats, 15 Republicans; four still in doubt. House—49 Republicans, 35 Democrats, 30 Populists; four still in doubt.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS.
It is said there was not a white man elected Magistrate in Edgecombe County—Albany, Ga.

A special in-to-day's paper from Tarboro gives the information that not a single white man was elected magistrate in Edgecombe county on Tuesday. The additional information is conveyed that by the next election, when the terms of the appointed magistrates expire, Edgecombe will not have a single white magistrate.

The people are very soon getting an object lesson of the result of Tuesday's election. All the white people who voted with the Fusionists need to repeat of their action is the big dose of negro that they are about to get. Nothing else will cure them.

[Of the twenty-five negro magistrates elected in the city of Wilmington about three-fourths are negroes, as we are informed. If this statement is incorrect we will be glad to have the white Republican bosses inform us just how the number is divided as to color.—EDITOR STAR.]

The Vote For President.
The result of the Presidential election seems to be as follows, though there may be slight changes made by later reports. All the States are included except Kentucky, which is still in doubt as we write:

FOR McKinley—California, 9; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 8; Illinois, 24; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 15; Maine, 6; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 9; North Dakota, 8; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 10; New York, 38; Ohio, 38; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 33; Rhode Island, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; West Virginia, 6; Wisconsin, 12. Total, 364.

FOR Bryan—Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 8; Colorado, 4; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Idaho, 3; Kansas, 10; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 17; Montana, 8; Nebraska, 8; Nevada, 3; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 13; Texas, 18; Utah, 3; Virginia, 13; Washington, 4; Wyoming, 8. Total, 170.

The STAR learns from the Maxton Blade that the Crostons of Robeson county voted solidly for Bryan. This disproves the old saying that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian."
