

THE MEN WHO WORE THE GRAY.

Great Gathering of Confederate Veterans and Their Friends in the City of Atlanta.

THEIR ANNUAL REUNION.

Many Distinguished Men Present—Addresses by Governor Atkinson and General Gordon—Orator by Gen. Charles Hooker.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 20.—A host of heroes, tracing historic ground, invaded Atlanta to-day. For two days the Confederate veterans and their friends have been coming in, and a conservative estimate of the people now in Atlanta to attend the eighth annual reunion of the veterans is 40,000.

The railroads are advised that several special trains are on the way, and as the traffic inward bound is still very heavy, these arrivals are expected to swell the total number of visitors to the city.

Receptions to the sponsors have been the order of the day in social circles. The Capital City Club to-night kept open house in honor of the sponsors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peet, of 409 Peachtree street, received the Daughters of the Confederacy tonight from the grounds and a reception by the various parts of the city to-night.

There were many reunions of brigades, bivouacs of comrades on the grounds, and a reception by the various parts of the city to-night. The anniversary of the battle of Manassas, routine business will be transacted by the convention and various social affairs will be given the evening.

The grand parade of the veterans, which is looked forward to with much interest, is to be held Friday afternoon, the anniversary of the battle of Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 20.—Ten thousand veterans and their friends filled to overflowing the big auditorium at Piedmont Park this morning and cheered the living heroes of the Confederacy and the names of the dead.

THE SITUATION AT SANTIAGO.

A General Feeling of Good Fellowship Between Victors and Vanquished.

RESUMPTION OF BUSINESS.

Stores Open and Merchants Busy Receiving Goods—Ships Crowd the Harbor—Food Being Distributed Among the Suffering.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 19, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 20, 10 A. M.—Hundreds of American and Spanish soldiers who but a few days ago were shooting at each other, crowd the streets of Santiago to-day, meeting and mixing on the most friendly terms.

A general feeling of good fellowship is evinced everywhere, victors and vanquished apparently being equally rejoiced that the fighting and bloodshed are over, and that the horrors of the siege are ended.

Spain stores with gaudy displays and are opening rapidly, and the storekeepers are accepting American money and courteously receiving American customers.

The narrow cobble-paved street, grilling in the fierce sunshine, are crowded from morning till night by chattering groups of uniformed Spanish soldiers and crowds of laughing rolicking men belonging to Gen. Shafter's army.

The ward provides also that the company shall have five ships at Santiago in nine days from to-morrow (the 21st instant), two in seven days from to-morrow, and enough to complete the transportation of the prisoners in twenty-one days from to-morrow.

Two days ago Col. Hecker, in charge of the transportation of troops in the quartermaster general's department, went to New York to consult with the general concerning the transportation of the Spanish troops surrendered at Santiago.

The award provides also that the company shall have five ships at Santiago in nine days from to-morrow (the 21st instant), two in seven days from to-morrow, and enough to complete the transportation of the prisoners in twenty-one days from to-morrow.
