AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Great Demonstration by the Democratic Voters of the City of Wilmington.

HON, R. B. GLENN'S ADDRESS.

An Enthusiastic Assemblage — A Thousand People Present-Eloquent Speech la Behalf of Good Government and White Supremacy.

Rob Glenn is a great speaker. There wasn't a man in the tremendous audience which greeted him in the Opera House last night but would have said as much. In the firmament of political speakers in North Carolina the name of R. B. Glenn is a star of the first magnifude. Blunt, plain and outspoken, he is nevertheless tender and pathetic and his eloquence sweeps everything before it like a storm.

Capt. Glenn arrived here yesterday evening by the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. He was met at the depot by committee consisting of Messrs. W. B. McKov, J. W. Sneeden and Mai. W. H. Bernard, who escorted him to The Orton Hotel.

About eight o'clock the speaker with several prominent Democrats went to the Opera House, where an andience of fully a thousand people was awaiting him. In addition to all the seats the doors and windows were filled with people anxious to hear the silver-tongued orator of the West.

Seated on the rostrum besides the speaker were Iredell Meares, Esq., W. B. McKoy, chairman of County Executive Committee: J. W. Sneeden. secretary: L. West, Frank McNeill. C. W. Yates, Col. Roger Moore, Col. F. W. Kerchner, S. H. Fishblate, M. W. Jacobi, W. E. Springer, Capt. John Barry, Col. Jno. L. Cantwell. Col. T. W. Strange, Capt, James M. McGowan, and Wm. A. Sykes.

Iredell Meares, Esq., introduced Capt. Glenn and said that he would speak not in the interest of Democracy alone, but in the interest of civilization. He said that Mr. Glenn was distinguished in his profession and on the hustings and above all he was the exponent of the cause which all white men held so dear.

Capt. Glenn was suffering from throat trouble and apologized for appearing without a collar and again for removing the handkerchief from about his neck-symbolical as he said of the removing of the political chains which held down the white men of North Carolina. He said he appeared as a humble Democrat, not as a candidate for office. Said he was not a stranger to the Wilmington people having spoken here six years ago in a public debate with Marion Butler and also in the campaign of 1896. He would abuse no man-in the ranks of all parties there are men who are honest, true and faithful. Never before in North Carolina had there been so important an election. There was no president to elect, no governor to elect, although he wished there were and believed that every Democrat, Republican and Populist would be glad when the last day of Daniel Russell's term of office rolled around.

The Issue is White Supremacy

the speaker declared with emphasis. He begged his hearers to decide whether to vote for what is honest and truest or what is most corrupt and debased. It is a vital issue. Decided in our favor it will mean good laws and protection to our women and children; if against use oh, God! what will the result be? Vampires from every part of the country will fly to this State and feed upon its carcass.

We have not drawn the color line A greater than the Democratic party drew it. Away back in the ages the Eternal had declared that Japheth should increase and Ham should be his servant. The colored people themselves had drawn it. Democrats fed and clothed them, but how have the colored people rewarded this kindness? By going to the polls every November and voting 120,000 strong against the white man. If the colored man himself drew the line, isn't it about time white people should draw it? All honor to the colored man who stands by his race in the right way; all dishonor to the white man who joins the colored race and makes himself the equal, or the inferior, of the negro. I do not ask for colored votes; I am here to ask men who love their mothers, wives and daughters to vote the Democratic ticket. Make it a business question and vote for the party that does the most good for the least money and not the least good for the most money.

Republican Misrule.

Capt. Glenn's arraignment of Re publican misrule after the war was unanswerable. He went back to the trying days of '68 and '69 and refreshed the memories of old men and brought the information to young men of the disgraceful condition of affairs which prevailed in this State

In pathetic words he described the Confederate soldier returning home broken in body and fortune. When gave him a stone, for fish it gave him a surpent. When he said he was poor it increased his tax to eighty-four cents on the hundred dollars and collected a million dollars, which it spent in rioting and drunkenness and debauchery, while the State debt was increased from fifteen to forty millions. He asked for schools, and it collected a tax of $400,000, but not a boy or girl was taught or a teacher sent out. When mercy on the insane was asked, thousands were levied and collected and not a brick laid. The dark picture was relieved by reference to Zebulon B. Vance, who made the fight and broke the shackles.

Democrats in Power.

What did the Democrats do? Reduced the tax from 84 to 39, then to 29, then to 24, 23, 211—an average of 231 for twenty years. They repudiated fraudulent bonds, paid the State's honest debts and comparatively speaking almost wiped out the State debt. For schools, $171,000 was devoted the first year, $212,000 the second, and nore and more every year until the last year of Democratic rule the figures were $900,000. What the party did for the insane, deaf, dumb, and blind at Raleigh, Morganton, Goldsboro was fittingly described. Two thousand miles of railroad had been built. Never yet had the sacred right of habeas corpus been suspended or the power of the judiciary ex-

The Third Party. The origin of the Populist party was given. Mistakes the Democratic party had made, Populists had gone outside the party to correct them while Democrats had stayed in and corrected them, showing their courage by re-fusing to endorse in National Convention assembled the administration of Cleveland. -Populists left the Damocratic party on principle, they ought to come back on principle. They claim that the Democrats stole their platform; let them come along and stand on it. Don't you steal the Republican platform-if you do, nobody can indict you, as there is no law against taking what is of no value. By a comparison of Cleveland and McKinley, Capt. Glenn showed that the party of the latter ought to be forsaken for that of the former. Cleveland, it was said, caused cotton to sell for 5 cents; McKinley brought it down to 41 cents; Oleveland was a gold bug, McKiuley is worse; Cleveland issued bonds; McKinley issued more. Democrats passed an income tax law; a Republican Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional. Then he showed the many political views held in common by Democrats and Populists and urged the latter to come back and help redeem the State.

What the Fusionists Did.

The extravagance of the Rep-Pop fusionists was laid bare. Democratic legislature in 1891 cost $63,000; in 1893, $65,000. The fusion Legislature in 1895 cost $72,000; in 1897, $70,000. The saving by the Democratic Legislature was then over $14,000. And what did this Legislature that was so expensive do? Passed laws after laws, which were so impracticable that the Supreme Court had to declare them unconstitutional. What further? Refused to adjourn out of honor to the names of Geo. Washington and Robert E. Lee and adjourned in honor of Fred Douglas.

Not Democrats alone realized the infamy of this Legislature. Marion Butler said in his paper Feb. 27, 1897, "Up to this time the session is a damnable disgrace." Similar expressions were quoted from the Progressive Farmer. To recover from the terrible disgrace there was but one thing to do, and that was for white men to get to gether and see to it that Democrats discharge the functions of the next Legislature.

The expenses of the State government under Democratic and Republican administrations were compared. For three years of Democratic rule prior to Russell's inauguration, the expenses were $3,573,000; for a similar period of Republican rule, the expenses were $3,959,000; the Democratic saving being over $125,000 annually. When the Democrats surrendered the government of the State, there was a surplus of $139,222; on the last day of December, 1897, there was a deficit of $209,000. Then the agricultural board came in for a good share of just vituperation, and Editor J. W. Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder, was quoted with telling effect. The shameful mismanagement of the penitentiary was also exposed. During the twenty years that the Democrats were in power, to no one of them was it said "Thou art a thief." It was left for Dr. Cy Thompson to reach down hyena like and tear the clods from the graves of William Sanders and Octavius Coke and accuse them of having misappropriated the State's funds. Aycock's complete refutation of the contemptible charges was instanced, and the speaker paid a glowing tribute to the honesty of the two great North Carolinians. The Robert Hancock disgrace, the Kirby Smith episode, and the Jim Young inspection of the asylum for blind white childen-all these shameful blots upon the fair name of the State were reviewed and condemned in scathing terms. The speaker came nearer nome, telling of negro insolence in Newbern and Wilmington.

Could such things happen if the Democrats were in power? It must not be thought that he had an unreasonable feeling against the race. On the contrary, he felt very kindly to-wards it, and showed this by several pathetic incidents connected with his early boyhood. But the race must keep in its place is being waged in this State, said Capt. Glenn, in conclusion. To take part in it, he urged the old men, the middleaged men, and the young men. In his parting words, he asked those who were going to assist in the redemption of the State to stand up. The audience arose to a man amid tremendous cheer ne for the speaker. Capt. Glenn spoke for about an hour and a half. The speech was a splendid effort. Many times the eloquent speaker was interrupted by cheer after cheer from the throats of the enthusiastic Democrats who thronged the building. He will leave to-day for Newbern to address the people of that

than usual enthusiasm in the speak-Quite a while before the speaking began their torch-light procession could be seen making its way down Front street. There were two or three hundred Democrats in line, and they were marching at a "double quick" to music by the Fifth Ward band. A transparency bearing the words "Mac-Rae and Good Government," "Fifth Ward, the Banner Ward," and "White Government Union," was borne tri-umphantly over the heads of the moving throng. The New Hanover Democratic banner was also in the keeping of the Fifth. The precession, on its way to the Opera House, was reinforced with other White Government Unions of the wards, and altogether the demonstration was a very notable

CALLAWAY PLEADED QUILTY:

Remanded to Jall in Default of $1,000 Bond Will be Carried to Southport To-day

Brunswick county authorities have at last taken action in the prosecution of Sam Callaway, colored, who shot Mr. B. F. Penny at Leland, Sunday before last, and the negro is now jailed in default of a $1,000 bond to await trial in Brunswick Criminal Court which convenes October 17th, at Southport. Callaway was taken from New Hanover jail yesterday afternoon and carried to Leland on a special train which left here at 2 o'clock. On board were O. W. Bidgood, Esq., of the Coast Line; Mr. W. F. Penny, son of the wounded man; Mr. W. J. Brown, brother-in-law of Mr. B. F. Penny, and Wilmingtonians who participated in the capture of Callaway. The per was in the care of Deputy Sheriff W. R. Roberts.

The trial was before Justice R. L. Chinnis. Callaway plead guilty and no witnesses were examined. The prosecution was represented by Mr. Bidgood. The prisoner was brought back to Wilmington on the special at 4.15 and will be carried down to Southport this forencon. Some are of the opinion that he will be brought back here for safe keeping. However, such course has not been fully determined

PUNERAL OF CAPT. C. G. SMITH.

Conducted from the Methodist Church a Southport Sunday Morning.

The funeral services of the late Capt. C. G. Smith, of Southport, were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wootten, of Wilmington, from the Methodist Church at that place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The choir, which rendered the funeral hymns, was beautifully led by Mrs. Mamie Carr. The pall bearers were from the Odd Fellows, the de ceased being a member of that order, and were as follows: Messrs. Julius Weeks, B. F. Grier, Frank Grier, Joe Singletary, Henry Daniels, Joe Ar nold, C. L. Lewis and J. J. Garrett. At the grave Rev. Mr. Wootten conducted a short service, and Mr. S. M. Robbins, Worshipful Master of Pythagoras Lodge No. 249, A. F. & A. M. assisted by Past Master Jas. W. Monroe, of Wilmington Lodge No. 319, conducted the Masonic services. A number of Masons from Wilmington went down on a special boat, the Navassa, at 7.30 A. M., and returne in the afternoon. The party was composed of the following gentlemen Messrs. W. P. Oldham, Erie Norden, S. F. Craig, J. S. Carr, J. B. Mercer, J. W. Plummer and Jas. W. Monroe.

son and Richmond. Good news about Democratic prospects in all parts of the Sixth Congressional district continues to roll in. Mr. W. J. Pogue, a well-known tobacco and cigar man, came back Monday from a visit to Phoenix. The Democrats all around that place are fired with enthusiasm he says and are going in for victory in November. On Oct. 5 there will be a big rally at Farmers' Turnout and a white govern ment union will be organized. There will be some good speakers and a good time generally is expected. Mr. Pogue, assisted by Mr. J. D. Robbins, has been working up the cause of white supremacy.

A gentleman who has been here brings a glorious report of affairs from Richmond and Robeson counties. He declares that there is a positive revolution going on in the counties men-tioned. He had ample opportunities to observe for himself and he learned the result of other men's observations, and he is prepared to predict that when November comes it will show heavy Democratic gains if not complete victory in old Robeson and [Charlotte Observer.] Mr. Bellamy's speech at Paw Creek yesterday was considered one of the best he has made during the campaign. He gave a graphic description of negro rule, and misrule, in the east; arraigned Russell in scathing terms, and made a strong appeal to the Populists in their work to save the State.

The speech was dispassionate. It was simply a plain statement of facts and made a profound impression on the audience. Mr. Bellamy is a vote winner. He

He has a wife and children, and there is a that our government in Eastern North Carolina is in such an awful condition. It is in about as bad a condition as it can get in. Russell and niggerism have about got the best of this State. You people in Randleman can't see how it is going for the simple reason that you haven't got the nigger, but if you will read the papers you will find out how it is in other places in the State, and what they put in the papers about it is about all true, for they can't handily write it worse than it is, and when you hear a Democrat holler negro at a Republican you may rest assure that he has a cause for it, and you would think the same church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA County of Brunswick. Personally appeared before me Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of here and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had i not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight, The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE." Signed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D., 1898, GEO. H. BELLAMY, J. P.

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

RACE TROUBLE IN ONSLOW

Minature Race War at Jacksonville Which Negroes Were Considerably Worsted by the Whites.

[Jacksonville Times.]

A few minutes after the adjourn ment of the White Government Union on Saturday night a disturbance was caused on Marine's corner by some negroes jostling and pushing a white man; hot words passed, then blows; a large number of colored men were in a store near by and they rushed out and arranged themselves solidly alongside the authors of the disturbance at upheld them in the riot that followed. The whites were quick in assembling and the fight that ensued was sharp and decisive. About forty men were in the melee, of whom twentyfive were negroes, and that no lives were lost is the most remarkable phase of the matter. It was fist and skull, white man against the black, and that the fight was bitter and severe punish ment administered, was attested by the number of wounded that required attention and the bloody appearance of the street next morning.

Not a single white man was injured but those negroes who left their blood on the battle ground and those who are nursing aching heads and contemplating ugly scars, will probably be benefitted by reflecting that Onslow is a white man's county, that negro insolence will not be tolerated and that negro imposition will be pun-

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 8, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says; "We all had diarrhesa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon frain could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

Hobbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition.

220 My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetitegradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, September 28.—Aside from a brief period of activity and a sharp advance on the opening to-day's cotton market lacked interesting features. There was every evidence that the advance of yesterday had given Liverpool shorts a bad scare. Initial cables reported an advance of one point in futures at that point, later advices noting a still further improvement of 11@21 points on active covering. Frequent and almost violent fluctuations were reported by public and private cables, but the close was steady at about the highest point of the day. Our market opened quiet and firm with prices 4 to 5 points higher. casks and 28 cents per gallon for Foreign buying, chiefly Liverpool. sustained the advance for a few minutes, but by the end of the first hour selling by the leading bears, Southern representatives and scalpers had caused a reaction to last night's final figures. The market was steady on the decline however, and later in the session advanced on covering. Free receipts at both the ports and interior towns, favorable weather reports, and an encouraging average to crop accounts checked buying except in a small way. The local future market closed very steady at a net gain of 3 to 4 points. NEW YORK, September 28.—Cotton dult; middling uplands 5%c.

Cotton futures closed very steady; September 5.21c, October 5.21c, November 5.24c, December 5.29c, January 5.34c, February 5.39c, March 5.44c, April 5.48c, May 5.53c, June 5.57c, July
