Sam Callaway, the black fiend who shot Mr. B. F. Penny at Leland last Sunday, is now locked securely behind the bars of a cell in New Hanover county jail. He was brought here early yesterday morning.

Yesterday's STAR told of how negro was securely cooped up in a house a short distance from Leland. Vesterday a reporter learned from Brown, brother in-law of Mr W. J Penny, the details of the Mr. B. F. He and Mr. J. M. Lord went capture. over to Leland Thursday afternoon, determined not to return to Wilming ton until the negro was captured. They had previously learned that the fugitive was skulking about the sand hills beyond the bay. At Leland they were joined by Messrs. W. D. Roberts, A. M. McFayden, O. D. Teboe and A. B. Harvell.

This posse went to Phoenix and thence through the mud and mire across the bay to a house occupied by Eliza Blaney, where they had reason to believe the fellow was in the habit of lurking.

They reached the place about 8.15 o'clock. The woman protested that Callaway was not there; said he had just gone away with a friend. Mr. Brown insisted upon searching the premises and in a few minutes found him ingeniously concealed under a quantity of pea vines and guano sacks in an outhouse. When discovered he came out with his hands up, being covered by Mr. Brown's 16-shot Winchester rifle. An English bull-dog pistol and seventeen cartridges were found on his person.

The posse walked fifteen miles to the home of Mr. R. L. Chenney, Justice of the Peace, in order that they might get authority to hold their prisoner and make some safe disposition of him. The Justice gave them the following order, which they brought here to Jailor King, to-wit:

"To the Jailor of New Hanover County:

"Please keep safely the body of Sam Callaway, colored, until arrangements can be made for the preliminary hear-R. L. CHENNEY, "Acting J. P.

The Republican speaking at Burgaw yesterday was a very dull affair. The DOCKERY SPOKE TO NEGROES

ee, which was mostly com-of negroes, was thoroughly tic, and the main speaker, Oliver I. Dockery, had none of the spirit hat a just cause would have inspired. Messes. Iredell Meares, Geo, H. Howell and T. W. Clawson, of this city, went up in the hope that Mr. Meares would be allowed a chance to reply to Col. Dockery's speech, but as will be seen later their hopes wer lasted. However, they were given a most cordial reception by the Democrats of Burgaw. They were met at the depot by acting chairman of the Executive Committee, Jno. T. Bland, acting sheriff J. B. Black, and R. G Grady, Esq. They took dinner at Mr Black's and were quite delighted at the genuine hospitality extended at

Mr. Black's home. The speaking began at one o'clock in the court house. There was only a thin crowd present. In addition to about fifty negroes there were six Populists, as fellows: E. McMoore, chairman Pender commissioners; Geo. T. Jones, commissioner; G. F. Walker, once Populist nominee for Legislature; E. M. Johnson, a former Republican; A. H. Paddison, ex-State Senator; D. W. Rivenbark, candidate for sheriff in 1896. There were only three or four white Republicans, the most prominent being R. M. Croom post-master and chairman of the exec utive committee; E. B. Jordan, a former Wayne county Republican register of deeds, and W.S. Cowan, ex-member of the Legislatura. Eigh teen Democrats from Burgaw, in addition to those from Wilmington, were present to hear the joint debate.

John C. Dancy, the colored collec tor of the port of Wilmington, was the first speaker. A key to the sentiments expressed in Dancy's 30 minutes' speech may be had from his statement that Wilmington was in as good condition as any ther town in the State

Cant A. H. Paddison introduced Col. Dockery as being a man to stand by the principles of the Populist party, and also as in favor of financial reform and against trusts and monopolies. Dockery spoke from 1.45 P. M. to 3 clemency of the weather. Said he was a nominee of two parties and considered it an honor. Declared that he was nothing but a farmer and thanked God that he was not a lawyer. Was on his farm when the issue was presented to him. "This is an election." said he, "upon which the mudsills of our government rest-and the issue is local self government." As to his platform he vowed that he stood now where he stood two years ago-by his Anson county speech of that time. Had always been a bimetallist, stood for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, opposed to monopolies, and in favor of protective tariff. He said that he was still a Republican and had no thought of leaving the party. In commenting upon the negro question he said that in his debate with Judge Fuller in 1868, "nigger" was the cry then as it is now. Then the Colonel made a really apt remark by speaking of the inconsistency of white men working for white supremacy, at the very time they keep negroes in their employ. It was amusing to watch how the wily old politician tried to avoid saying anything that would grate upon the sensibilities of his negro friends. When he was referring to them, habit would force him to get the word "darkey" half out of his mouth before he could correct himself and say "colored man." The speech was in the main, so those say who heard it, very much after the fashion of that delivered by Butler in this city two years ago. He stated that he would speak in Burgaw again on Oct. 15. As he finished speaking, Mr. Geo. H. Howell asked for a division of time with Iredell Meares, Esq., the representative of Democracy. The words were not out of his mouth before the crowd of negroes began to file out of town and chairman Croom said it was not the policy of his committee to have joint debates. The negroes were not impressed with the speech of their champion, and one said yesterday that he would vote for at least part of the Democratic ticket.

The Great Office Hunter Refused to Par ticipate in a Joint Debate-flis Crowd Small and He Made a Poor Impression.

The political situation in our State seems to be improving. White Populist and Republicans are rising above party acknowledg-ing that the race in first in importan-ce. The salvation of the race in North Carolina is the usue before our people to-day, and it must be settled this fall - Wilson News. Cot. Oliver H. Dockery spoke a Point Caswell yesterday. As usual his audience was mainly colored-about thirty-five in all-and, as usual the redoubtable colonel would have the whole loaf or none, and wouldn't divide time with Mr. Iredell Mearcs. Colonel Dockery never said any-thing worse of Governor Russell than the latter has said of him. He spoke from a stand in the grove The difference seems to be now that Dockery licks the foot that has been, and will be raised to kick him; and was introduced by R. M. Croon His speech was about the same as that delivered at Burgaw, only the negro for the sake of an office. The Governor has taken nothing back. negroes proposed three cheers for Oli-ver H. Dockery. He got out the "Hip, hip, hip," and there was a WHITE REPUBLICANS COMING IN. There are many white Republi-cans who are sick at the domination deathly silence. Then he made an of their party by the negro. Some of them openly and others quietly are going to vote with the white man's party. Mr. Wm. M. Martin, of Mecklenburg, who was nomi-nated on the Republican ticket in that county declines and says: "I other effort and there was an indifferent response. The negro who was driving Dockery's carriage said. Well, if you are as weak as that on election day, your votes won't count for much."

Mr. Meares knew beforehand that he could not have a joint discussion with Dockery. He had left instructions with Bruce Williams, Esq., at Burgaw, to ask it as a personal favor of the Republican speaker, but the reuest was of no avail. Dockery replied that he would not participate in a join debate with Mr. Meares or any other Democratic speaker.

About half an hour after Dockery and his crew had left Capt. R. P. Paddison introduced Mr. Meares. For over two hours Mr. Meares expound ed to his audience the tenets of Dem ocracy and exposed the weakness and corruption of the present administra The audience which was com tion. posed of about/ fifty Democrats. several Populists, comfor every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

STAR reporter saw Callaway yesterday. He said that he intended to shoot Capt. LaMotte, of Florence, instead of Mr. Penny; that Capt. LaMotte insulted him on the train by cursing and abusing him and threatening to cut his heart out if he drew his nistol. when he had no pistol. When asked about the difficulty he had with Capt. Carmon about his fare he said he was only joking with him when he told him that he had already paid his fare; that he was always joking with the captain and that they were even cursing each other in fun. He had no end of excuses to make for his conduct. It is not known here as yet what action the Brunswick county authorities will take in regard to the trial of Callaway. The opinion is expressed by some that the trial will be transferred to this county, inasmuch as all the witnesses and parties to the case live here. However, it is possible that the prisoner may be carried to South port. Some definite instructions are expected here to-day.

The STAR is in receipt of the following very interesting letter from Mr. Forney Gore, of Brunswick county, who like many other good men was led astray four years ago by office seekers and unprincipled men.

IREDELL, N. C., Sept. 19, 1898. Editor Morning Star:-I feel it my duty to write this card for publication in the STAR which paper we prize so-highly because it is a white man's paper and upholds white supremacy. Four years ago I cast my first political vote (and I was honest when I did so) for the Rep-Pop fusion ticket. I thought the good man of the targe old thought the good men of the two old parties had united for something good, but found it was a sad, sad mistake and that the aggregation was com-posed of disgruntled politicians, who had set upon this plan to get into office. I had never cast a political vote up to that time and now I am 31 years old, and by the help of the Supreme being, I expect to never cast another the way that one went. Let all white men stand together on the 8th of November and vote for men who will give us white supremacy. I can but shudder when I read of the government of such places as Wilmington, Greenville and other towns that are governed by negroes. I have been a teacher in the nublic schedule of the court for the public schools of the county for the past five years, but have relin-quished that occupation since the ap-pointment of three negroes out of the five school committeemen of our township. I can't afford to go to a negro for employment, so I am now working on my little farm and expect to continue until the school law is changed. FORNEY GORE.

COLUMBUS POPULISTS. In Their County Convention-Many Ansounce Their Purpose to Give up Populism.

Nothing Heard From the Brunswick Authorities In the Case Against Sam Callaway Yet.

Nothing has yet been heard from the Brunswick county authorities in regard to the prisoner Sam Callaway now confined in the jail here to answer the charge of shooting Mr. B. F. Penny at Leland last Sunday. Acting Sheriff French says that the negro is not now even properly committed; but that he is holding him because he knows public opinion will sustain him in doing so. It is his purpose if no instructions are received from Bruns-

MUST DIVIDE WITH THE NEGROES. A leading negro politician of Ber-tie county, talking to a Populist county commissioner, told him no man could be elected for that position again who was not willing to give the negroes at least one-half dred case average. As yet there are the jurors, both grand and petit, no cases of especial importance. The that they really were entitled to more, but would not submit to less than half. it of both races We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not black' and 'burly'. but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all." "Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a lored woman. You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the ed-the harvest will come in due time."
