House. THE SCOTLAND COUNTY BILL

Special Order for Wednesday-Proposes Impeachment of Judge Norwood. State Penitentiary-Three Directors to be Elected.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., February 6 .- The House to-night held its first night session and disposed of bills. The Senate did not meet and will not hold night sessions for some time yet, being well up with its calendar.

Among the bills passed to-night were: To abolish the office of tax collector for Robeson county; to charter the Carolina and Northern Railroad; to build a road from Pages, S. C., to Goldsboro, via Lumberton, capital stock $500,000, all the incorporators Philadelphia capitalists; to relieve solicitors from attendance upon courts for trial of civil causes only: to allow other telegraph and telephone companies to enjoy the same privileges as the Western Union, as to construction of lines along railroads. Petitions and new bills introduced in the House to-day showed a decided falling off in number. Only four petitions were presented and nineteen new bills were introduced. Among the bills introduced was one to allow owners of dogs to list them at the sheriff's office for taxation, at any time, and thus make them property. Mr. Rountree, of New Hanover, introduced a terrapin bill. It restores Section 3377 of the Code in regard to diamond-back terrapin, except that it makes a slight change as to the time of catching them. The Code provides that it is unlawful to take terrapins between April 15th and August 15th, and later amendments extended this time from March 1st to November 15th. Now, Mr. Rountree proposes to repeal these amendments and amend the Code so as to make it unlawful to take diamond-back terrapin from April 1st to August 1st.

A bill of great importance was that by Council, of Watuga, to provide for tervening estates. The bill amends Chapter 214, Laws of 1895, so as to give tenants in common the right to partitions in real estate during the existence of an outstanding life estate. The law of 1897 provided for a sale of such interest, but failed to allow partition of the same, and the present amendment is intended to give this Winston introduced a separate car law. It makes it the duty of the railroads to have separate but equal accommodation for white and colored races. The duty of regulating and prescrib ing the rules for such seperation is made obligatory on railroad commis sioners, who are indictable if they fail to adopt and enforce such rules.

Among the bills passed were the following: To extend the time for beginning work on the Favetteville and Albermarle railway until 1902; to amend Section 2148 of the Code, so as to allow clerks to appoint commis sioners to prove a will; to provide a stock law for New Hanover.

The bill to establish the Vance tex tile school as a department of the A. M. College, was made the special order for Wednesday.

The Scotland county bill was made the special order for Thursday, at the expiration of the morning hour. At 2 o'clock the House took a recess until 8 o'clock.

In the Senate. Bills were introduced in the Senate as follows: To levy a special tax for Tyrrell county; to abolish the West ern Criminal Circuit Court and estab lish a criminal court in its stead; to abolish the tax collector of Nash county; to repeal the dispensary law of Bladen county; to establish a stock law in Carver's Creek township, Cumberland county. There was discussion of the bill to re peal Section 3113 of the Code and enac a substitute to compel county com missioners to hold local option elections on petition of one third of the qualified voters, and on any day one hundred and twenty days removed from the general election, the counties of Robeson, Union, Buncombe, Wilson, Swain, Jackson, Henderson, Transyl vania, Wayne, Duplin, Pender, Lincoln, Alexander, Catawba and Wilkes being excepted. The bill went over until to-morrow.

communication from William Chase of South Carolina, was read, asking that the Legislature co operate with the South Carolina Legislature in securing school books by Southern authors.

Democratic Caucus. The Joint Democratic caucus night elected three directors for the State Penitentiary, to fill racancies caused by resignations from the old board. Those chosen were: W. C. Newland, Caldwell, M. L. Bryan, Madison; T. B. Crowder, Wake, There is some question as to the number of vacancies, whether there are three or only one.

In compliance with a request from J. C. Stevenson, of Wilmington, the House Judiciary Committee has postponed final consideration of the Stevenson trust bill till Wednesday afternoon. This is to give brokers and other business men an opportunity to be heard. Mr. Rountree vigorously opposed the bill in committee this after-

The House Judiciary Committee further discussed Judge Norwood's impeachment and decided to subpoena witneses to appear and testify Wednesday. The only witness examined today was R. L. Cooper. He said Norwood had signed several papers for him as "Judge twelfth district" since Scotland County.

The Scotland county bill has been made the special order for Thursday and the Vance textile school bill the special order for Wednesday. The bill to allow the commissioners of New house to the Naval Reserves was tabled to night, on request of Mr. Rountree, who said the commissioners did not desire it passed.

The House Judiciary Committee has set Friday for argument on Dr. Reeves' bill in regard to patent medicines. It is understood that druggists from several towns and cities in the State desire to appear before the committee in opposition to the bill. In requires sellers of proprietary medicines to print the formula of which the medicines are composed on the label. The Senate Railroad Committee will report favorably the bill requiring railroads to equip cars with automatic couplers and brakes. Railroads will be heard to-morrow afternoon by the Finance Committee as to the proposed tax of two per cent. on gross earnings. To-morrow the investigation of the case of the Wilsons, suspended railroad commissioners, will be resumed.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 7 .- At noon to-day a joint ballot was held for two new directors of the penitentiary, there being only that number of vacancies in the old board. W. C. Newland, of Caldwell, and M. L. Bryan, of Madison, were chosen,

A bill supplementary to the act putting the penitentiary in the hands of Democrats was passed by both houses. The bill provides that if the board of directors finds it cannot meet at the penitentiary February 10th, it may meet at any place in the city of Raleigh it may select.

Bills were introduced in the House as follows: To reduce fees on crop liens; to provide for the appointment of directors and State's proxy of the N. C. Railroad; to amend Article six of the Constitution by adding a new section limiting eligibility to all elective State and county offices to three successive terms; to repeal the act re quiring dentists to pass examination; to prohibit shooting wild fowl over decoys in Currituck sound between March 31st and November 10th; to amend the charter of Polk County Railway: to allow citizens of Union county to vote on the question of dispensary.

The bill regarding directors of the N. C. Railroad provides that they shall be elected by the State Board of partition of land where there are in- Internal Improvements and that the board shall have the power to remove them and fill vacancies, Other bills introduced were: To reduce rates of Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Co., at Wilmington: to establish a graded school at Mt. Olive: to provide that local option elections may be held at any time in the year but not oftener than once in two years upon petition of one-third the qualified

In the Senate. The following bills were introduced n the Senate: To make fences four feet high lawful fences in Columbus county; to provide new school districts for Sampson county; to give additional justices of peace to Craven county. At the expiration of the morning hour the local election bill was taken up. This bill provides that local elections shall be held once in two years on petition of one-third of the qualified voters of a county, and in any month in the year, instead of June, as formerly.

Senator Brown said the effect of the bill would be distinctly bad. He was a prohibitionists in that he advocated temperance, but he believed it would be bad policy to pass a bill that would enable a lot of people to travel from county to county continually, stirring up feeling and having local option elections. Bills were passed as follows: To make lower Little River in Cumerland a lawful fence.

To amend Chapter 145 relating to fishing in Neuse river. To levy a special tax in certain townships in Nash county. To put the appointment of a keeper of the capitol in the hands of the Legislature

EWART'S NOMINATION.

His Character Discussed in Executive Session of the Senate.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, February 8. -In the executive session of the Senate to-day, Senator Hoar, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, presented the report of that committee adverse to the confirmation of Hon. Hamilton G. Ewart, to be District Judge for the Western district of North Carolina, and he and Senator Spooner made speeches ex-plaining the reasons for the report. They stated that a thousand pages of testimony had been taken in the case and expressed the opinion that the charges made against Mr. Ewart were sustained by the facts. These charges were that he was incompetent as a lawyer and morally unfit to hold the position. He was accused of defraud-ing pensioners and their widows, and of selling his public documents while a member of the House of Represen-tatives. The Senate adjourned before Senator Spooner had concluded.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, February 8.-Less speculative interest was shown in cotton to day than for many months. The hesitation was marked all along the line, After the first call had opened at an advance of three to four points in near positions and tapered off to a decline of two points on the later positions, an easier feeling prevailed for a time. Liquidation of certain long interest followed weaker advices from the Stock Exchange and the Produce Exchange. It was reported that some Wall street accounts in cotton were unloading, not liking the looks of Liverpool cables, and fearing the market had been overbought. The shorts picked up a little cour-age and sold, but all hands seemed uneasy after the market had made a net loss of three to five points and final phases of the local ituation indicated a nervous mood on the part of bulls and bears alike, owing to a very bad weather report from every section of the cotton belt, tending to show that field work of any kind was impossible and indicating the destruction of whatever migh remain of unpicked cotton. In addition to this, advices from Southern spot markets were of a favorable character as were also the later advices from spinners and cotton cloth markets, while port receipts as well as the interior receipts were light. The market was finally steady with prices one point lower to two higher.

- The success of Mr. Porter. the President's representative, in "pacifying" Gomez has led to the expression of the opinion in Washington that Aguinaldo might also be "pacified," in a similar manner. The difficulty in the case of the Filipino, however, is that he will not stay "pacified." Spain has tried the game upon him at least twice, amounting the last time to $400,000, which money the fellow is now using to pay expenses of worrying the United States.—Savannah News,
