Cutting are said to have secured for the other stockholders the privilege of selling their minority stock on terms giving them full prowith this purchase, the syndicate will control the Seaboard Air Line, the Florida Central and Peninsular, and the Georgia and Alabama. The ultimate plan of the syndicate is probably to obtain a good Northern connection, so that the service will extend from the extreme South to New York. The lines already controlled and with which traffic arrangements, are operative extend as far north as Quantico, Va., eighteen miles from Washington. It is believed that this gap, a franchise for which has already been secured, will be constructed in the near future and that the new system will connect at Washington with the Baltimore and Ohio, thus making a through line from New York to Southern Florida.

ton township-Fred. A. Lord, Wm.

A bill passed both houses appropriating $5,000 for incidental expenses of the penitentiary. It was explained that the State's prison was without funds, and was even unable to raise sufficient funds to pay for expenses of the return of escaped convicts, some of whom were in Washington City.

On request of Russell, of Carteret, the bill in regard to fishing with Dutch nets on the Pamlico side of Neuse river was reconsidered, but no further action was taken. It will be disposed of Thursday, when Dees, of Pamlico, who introduced it, can be heard. Members from Carteret and Craven oppose it. It has been passed twice, and each time reconsidered.

In the Senate.

Bills were introduced: To provide sewerage systems for the University and State Normal College. To change the time for holding courts of Union, Stanly and Montgomery counties.

Bills passed: To amend the charter of Kenansville, and incorporate Wallace, Duplin county. To amend the charter of Lumberton. To incorporate the Burlington and Southern railroad. To establish graded schools in the town of Maxton. To fix the time for holding courts in Pasquotank, Bertie, Craven and Robeson counties. To establish a dispensary at Seaboard, Northampton county. To amend the law as to fishing in Bladen county.

Bill to amend the chart or of Wil mington passed final reading. An amendment was offered by Senator Davis, which passed with the bill. The section providing for a police commission was stricken out, and notice of primary to be ten instead of fifteen days.

The new election law is in its main features a copy of the law in force prior to 1895. It provides: Election for State and county officers shall be held on the first Thursday in August. There shall be a State Board of Elections, composed of five persons elected by the Legislature for a term of two years. There shall be a County Board of Elections, consisting of three persons, appointed by the State board for a term of two years. The Board of Elections shall meet in Raleigh on the first Monday in May, 1899, and organize by electing a chairman and a secretary. Other meetings shall be held the first Monday in April in each election year. Special meetings may be called when necessary. For its services the board shall receive four dollars per day and travelling expenses. County boards shall appoint all registrars and judges of election. Memberss of county boards may be removed by the State Board; and the county board,
