WOMEN'S SECRETS

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that more than 90 per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be unobtainable if these women were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of women's ailments, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, and the honor paid him by the profession as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases. Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. Every woman's letter which contains her secret remains her secret. It is read in private, answered in private, and its contents guarded as a sacred confidence. That no third party should enter into this secret is guaranteed by the sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, with no printing or advertising whatever upon them. Write without fear as with confidence to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

I lost two golden hours. The other day. Somewhere among the flowers. That strewed my way. I sought them far and near. But all in vain. They're gone, and I shall never see them again. I dropped an angry word. But yesterday. And like a swift-winged bird. It flew away. I followed on its track. To bring it home. But though I called it back. It would not come. But last night in my dream. I seemed to see. The lost hours and the word. Come back to me. Now, standing on the brink Of life's unrest. With sudden heart I think. What might it be. —E. T. WRAY.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

No boy can be ashamed of running away from temptation. It is the bravest thing to do. The preacher who wants to put his sermons into his people's hearts must first put his own heart into his sermon. If we would be true citizens of God's Kingdom we must not have the culture which avoids suffering. —Bishop Chandler. It is with human character, very often, as it is with the more it is shaken, the more it shines. —W. W. Newton. We talk too flippantly about "essentials" and "non-essentials" in moral life. There are no unimportant things in conduct, no "non-essentials" duties. —Rev. Jenkins Floyd Jones. Christ is styled the finisher of our faith, as well as the author of our faith. There is as much necessity for the Spirit to keep up our graces as there is to bring forth our graces. —Secker. I have heard a grave Divinesay that God has two dwellings; one in heaven, and the other in the meek and thankful heart; which Almighty God grant to me and my honest scholar! —Isaiah Walton. Let us be content to do little, if God sets us at little tasks. It is but pride and self-will that says, "Give me something huge to fight, and I should enjoy that; but why make me sweep the dust?" —A man goes to bed willingly and cheerfully, because he believes he shall rise again the next morning and be renewed in his strength. Confidence in the resurrection would make us go to the grave as cheerfully as we go to our beds.
