Work Day at Marlville.

A correspondent writing from Marl ville reports that the S. A. L "Work Day" Tuesday was a complete success. Practical speeches were made by Capt. D. C. Allen, Col. D. S. Cowan and Mr. Hilburn. The subjects treated were dairying, poultry raising and other equally important matters. Rep resentatives of the Seaboard Air Lin were present and showed how useful and ornamental objects could be made from articles usually thrown away. There was a big dinner to add to the enjoyment of the day. The day's programme was arranged by Mr. Jos. Strang, of Portsmouth, Assistant Chief Industrial Agent; Mrs. J. C. Stanley, of Marlville, and Mr. White, of Pine Bluff.
