Three Cases of Smallpox.

The smallpox has broken out here again. Three new cases were discov ered here yesterday — the first in nearly a month. They are all negroes who have dodged vaccination. One of them was a patient in St. Agnes' Hospital. He had been there a day. Fortunately, the nurses and other pa tients had been vaccinated.

But for these three new cases the smallpox hospital would now be empty. The last of the patients here tofore in it were turned out this mornng. They are a man named Spence and his boy. Spence is a "Holiness" preacher, who was found fully broken out holding a meeting in the southern border of this county. He had to be rrested to be brought to the pesthouse. No considerable spread of the smallpox is expected from the new case of yesterday, as nearly all the people of the city have been vaccinated.

COWHIDING AT WASHINGTON.

Woodward is Completely Vindicated - The Lady Admits That She Was Mistaken

WASHINGTON, N. C., June 24. Morning Star, Wilmington: Mr. J. F. Woodward, who was bru tally horsewhipped here Thursday morning by A. S. Kelly, J. B. Latham W. J. Crumpler and several others, returned to the city at noon to-day for the purpose of establishing his innocence. He was accompanied by Judge W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, and Mr. H. L. Stevens, of Warsaw, attorneys, and four friends from his There was a large crowd assembled at the depot, and Mr. Woodward was enthusiastically welcomed by his many friends here, who have believed him innocent from the very first. The assailants and the young lady, Miss Jane L. Burgess, had re tained able counsel. The lawyers of both sides got together immediately after dinner, but a meeting was not arranged between Miss Burgess and Mr. Woodward until 7 o'clock, when they met at a lawyer's office. The result of this identification meeting was as expected—the lady found she had made a terrible mistake, and acknowledged it. She wrote the following statement, wording it carefully, under counsel's advice, for it must be borne in mind that she was placed in the delicate position of having already identified Mr. Woodward as the man: "I was insulted upon the streets of Washington by a man who was a stranger to me. He approached me from behind, and spoke to me. I turned around and saw him. I was, of course, indignant and excited. At the depot next morning, when Mr. Woodward was attacked, I had identified him as the person who had accosted me the day before, and I felt sure at the time that I was correct. There was a large crowd present, and the situation and circumstances made me nervous and excited. This afternoon I was brought face to face with Mr. Woodward, and had opportunity to examine his countenance and person-carefully, while I was calm and collected. While he closely resembles the man who insulted me, yet I do not feel I could swear to his identity. "JANE L. BURGESS."

Three of the assailants (there were eight arrested and tried before Mayor Chauncey, and fined $5 each for disorderly conduct), Messrs. Crumpler, Kelley and Latham, had the manhood to come forward after the final denouement and implore pardon of Mr. Woodward, offering to make any reparation within their power for the irreparable wrong done him. Mr. Woodward shook hands with them and forgave them. They also wrote and signed a statement for publication, which follows:

"We are relatives and friends of orphan, and has no brother resident in this town. We deemed it our duty to protect her from insult. We joined in the attack on Mr. Woodward at the depot only after he had been identifled, and we acted from the best motives and entire good faith. Now, however, that the young lady, after a more careful view of Mr. Woodward, has failed to confirm her former identification, we desire to express publiely our deep regret at the occur-rence. "W. J. CRUMPLER,

"A. S. KELLEY,
"J. B. LATHAM." After the result of the meeting was made known, which was not until midnight, a large number of the repesentative men of the town called on Mr. Woodward, congratulating him on his vindication and expressing their heartfelt regret that such a de-plorable affair should have occurred at all, and particularly that its victim

RACE TROUBLE

Fight Between White and Negro Miners Near Cardiff, in Jefferson County.

THREE NEGRO MEN KILLED

Result of An Outrage On a White Woman by a Negro-Armed Negroes Assembled to Prevent the Cap. ture of the Ravisher.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. BIRMINGHAM, ALA., June 27 .- Three negroes are dead and one is not ex pected to live until morning, as a result of a riot between the white and negro miners at the ore mines near Cardiff in Jefferson county.

The two races came to a clash in the late afternoon in Glasgow hollow, where the negroes had congregated, armed with Winchester rifles. A white man passing along the road was held up and besides being abused was roughly handled. This news soon spread and an armed body of white miners moved toward the hollow. It is supposed that they went around by a circuitous route in the mountains and came upon the negroes unex-pectedly. Ed Ellis, the ringleader, armed with a rifle and Colt's revolver, fell at the first volley. A rifle bullet did the work. There was another volley and four of the other negroes fell. Jim Dill and Adam Samuels died in a few minutes. George Thomas was shot through the abdomen with a Winchester bullet. He is not expected to recover. Rudolph Williams will live.

The trouble started yesterday, when it was thought that John Sheperd, who on last Wednesday afternoon assaulted Mrs. Monroe Jones near Corona, was in that community. The negroes armed themselves to prevent his capture. Both sides were aroused and only the timely arrival of a sheriff's posse prevented an outbreak. This morning the negro miners held a mass meeting and refused to go to work. They all belong to a secret or-ganization known as the "Knights of Africa" or the "Mysterious Ten." They keep rifles and ammunition on hand at all times. It was in the afternoon that they gathered in Glasgoo hollow, although with what intention is not now known.

Influential citizens say that the ring leaders are now out of the way and they hope to manage the other ne-Ed Ellis, the head of the band and holding the chief office in the secret organization, made a speech to the negroes just before his death, telling them not to believe what the white officers had told them and swearing that he for one would get even with Sheriff O'Brien, who yesterday, at the point of a shot-gun, ordered him to disperse his gang. Shortly after the riot Sheriff O'Brien left here with a hundred armed men. He now has the situation in hand for the time being, although late reports say the situation is extremely critical, and that the negroes are talking of avenging the death of their leaders. Threatening Demonstration by Negroes.

Sheriff O'Brien, who is now at Blossburg, has received a message from Adamsville, three miles from that place, asking for protection. An armed body of negroes is gathered in the mountains, threatening to make a descent upon the mining camp in the valley. He has dispatched all the deputies he could spare across the country. A telegram has just been received here (Birmingham), asking for reinforcements of soldiers.

Proposition From Gov. Russell Accepted by Board of Internal Improvements. Suit Against Ex-Sheriff Jones and His Bondsmen.

[Special Star Correspondence.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 28. The prospects now are that the enampment of the State Guard will be held the last of July. The Second and Third regiments will each be in camp seven days. The corner stone of the First Presbyterian church here was laid this morning with Masonic ceremonies. The old church building, which is being replaced by the new one, was built in 1817 and was one of the most historic buildings in the State. The church, however, was organized in 1806 and until 1818 services were held in the State House.

The State House in which the conregation for so long a time had worshipped was destroyed by fire in 1831. The corner-stone of the present Capitol was laid July 4, 1833, but the building was not completed when the Constitutional Convention of the State met in the year 1835. This celebrated convention, composed of the best and ablest men of North Carolina, held its sessions in the church building, which was placed at its disposal as a graceful recognition of past favors. The church edifice since its completion in 1818 has been remodeled twice, once in the interior only, and again both in and out-

This was favorably agreed to by the board, they having been assured by the Governor that President Patrick and other officials would give up without suit when the time is out in September. The board has already appointed Mr. Dortch as its proxy. Governor Russell will announce his selection in a few days. TO GIVE OTIS 40,000 TROOPS. Active Operations to be Resumed When the Rainy Season Closes-Spaniards Leaving Manila-A Small Engagement With Insurgents.

By Cable to the Morning Star. MANILA, June 28.-General Jaramillos, who is settling Spain's milita ry affairs here, has received a cable message from the Minister of War at Madrid, General Polavieja, announcing that the pay of soldiers who are in the hands of the insurgents will be continued during their captivity. The Spaniards are fast leaving Ma nila. The steamer Isla de Luzon sails for Spain soon, taking several hundred persons, civil and military officials and their families. A Small Engagement.

Captain Gales' squadron of the Fourth cavalry embarked for Morong Monday. The gunboat Napidan, which accompanied the troops, visited the town of Muntiulopa, on the west shore of the lake, and found a small body of rebels entrenched there, The entrenchments were shelled by the Napi dan, and when the rebels began to re-treat the cavalry was landed. The Filipinos, in firing a final volley, killed a cavalry private.

More Soldiers for Otis. WASHINGTON, June 28 .- Secretary Alger, Adjutant General Corbin, and Celonel Bird, assistant quartermaster general in charge of transportation, had and hour's consultation with the President to day relative to the question of reinforcements for General Otis. A definite decision has been reached to continue recruiting men at all the recruiting stations for service in the Philippines, and Secretary Alger said when he left the White House after the conference, that General Otis would have forty thousand men when the rainy season closed for a resumption of active operations.

There are seventy recruiting stations in the United States and enlistments are to be taken at all of these stations. The enlistments are to be for service in the regular army, and recruits are to be organized into regiments or assigned to regiments already formed after enlistment. No organizations, as such, are to be accepted, if suffi cient recraits can be obtained by regular enlistment.

Enlistments for Three Years.

General Corbin said the enlistments would be for three years, although the law for the creation of the provisional army of 35,000 in excess of the regular army of 65,000 provides only for such a force until 1901. Arrangements are to be made at once for increasing the transportation necessary to get these additional troops to the Philippines. The decision to reinforce General Otis by the end of the rainy season is interpreted to mean that aggressive campaigning will cease until the bad weather ends. Until that time our operations will probably be confined to occasional excursions to places in close vicinity to our lines where the insurgents may have congregated in force. By remaining quiescent under good shelter during the rainy season, it is hoped the health of our troops will be conserved and the danger from climatic fevers reduced to a minimum.

The Volunteer Troops.

General Otis has cabled the War Department that he has skeleton organizations of two or three regi ments which it is proposed to raise in the Philippines. At the War Department this is said to mean that General Otis has the officers for these regiments selected and they are ready to be filled with enlisted men. How many of these can be secured from the volunteer regiments now in the Philippines is not known. It is stated at the War Department that the recruits now being enlisted at the rate of 1,000 a week cannot be used for the volunteer army provided for in the act of March 2, authorizing 35,000 men, although it would be an easy matter to transfer these men with their own consent to the volunteer service if it should be determined to raise additional troops

Enlistments to Begin at Once. Later in the day it was definitely de cided to begin the enlistment for the first volunteer service under the act of the last Congress. The reports to the adjutant general based on the reports of the recruiting officers and on close estimates as to the number of soldiers in the Philippines, and in each command in Cuba and Porto Rico show that the regular army is up to its full authorized strength.

The additional soldiers needed must be obtained under that section of the act of Congress authorizing the enlistment of volunteers. The only excepsodded and cared for, according to tion will be in the case of the few en listments that will be made from time to time to fill gaps in the regular army caused by casualties and by the expiration of enlistments. The officers scattered among the principal cities of the country who have been enlisting regulars only, will be immediately instructed to prepare to enlist volunteers. The present indications are that about 10,000 Men Will Be Wanted.

Volunteers will not be accepted in organizations. Secretary Alger is determined to adhere to the rule. Looking over the act of Congress, he has concluded that the aut the annual commencement of Yale tion to raise these volunteer troops "at large," indicates a purpose on the part of Congress to follow out the plan successfully operated in the case of the immune regiments. It is the present purpose to disregard State and local lines in securing the recruits and welding them iuto organizations. Thus the regiments cannot be known by State names, but simply under the designa-tion of first, second, third, etc., volun-teer United States infantry, or cavalry. No difficulty is anticipated in securing the men needed, for it is believed that the 1,000 men who are weekly offering themselves at the recruiting offices, will be even more willing to enter the army as two-year volunteers than as long term regulars.
For officers for these volunteer regiized by the last General Assembly to advertise ments the War Department intends to fill the commands in the first place by promoting officers now in the regular officers of the volunteer organizations which covered themselves with glory during the war and have been or are about to be mustered out of the service. The War Department has carefully preserved the records of these officers and already has at hand a long list of such of them as have exhibited

Young Woman Killed Her Infant Child and Attempted Suicide.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. RICHMOND, VA., June 28.-One of the saddest cases that have been known here for years developed this after-noon. Mrs. Lizzie Ellis, of Farmville, Va., age seventeen years, killed her sixteen months old child by giving it laudanum, and then attempted suicide. When the coroner was called to view the remains of the child, which was reported as having been found dead in bed, the mother told a most imrobable story, but on being informed that she was not believed, she made a full confession. She said she had been deserted by her husband; that she could not support her child, and that she had bought the drug in Farmville and came to Richmond with the de-liberate purpose of killing the child and taking her own life. She was ar-rested on the charge of murder. Her family is well connected.

RICHMOND, June 28. - A special from Farmville to-night says that the friends and family of Mrs. Eilis express great surprise at her crime, and give no reason for supposing that her husband deserted her. He is said to be working in Petersburg. He served in the Spanish war, and regularly sent his wife a part of his pay.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, June 28.-Traders in cotton futures were naturally inclined to go slow in anticipation of the holidays, so near at hand, and to-day's market was a narrow one, even the more active positions working within a range of eight points. The market was steady at one to two points adyance; early cables giving considerable confidence, especially as to the ex-cellent showing in the way of spot business at Liverpool, with prices indicating a good foreign demand for actual cotton, wanted for large orders extending well into the future for cloths and yarns. Soon after the call, however, the market weakened under late cables which indicated a disposition to liquidate long interest in the Liverpool market under the bearish influence of fine crop prospects in this country. Prices declined four to eight points from the best figures obtained on the call, but the bear contingent was not aggressive, the short interest being already extensive at low prices, while the possibility of a serious change in the crop outlook at this critical season was recognized. Beneficial rains were reported for Northern Texas and central sections of the cotton belt with the temperature normal and favorable to a rapid and substantial development of the crop. On this account sentiment on Change was cautiously bearish. The market closed barely steady, three to six points

Cotton futures closed barely steady June 5.48c, July 5.49c, August 5,54c, September 5.55c, October 5.60c, November 5.64c, December 5.68c, January 5.72c. February 5.76c, March 5.79c;
