RACE TROUBLE IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

SOUL CONFLICTION.

Conflict Between Whites and Negroes in the City of Greenville.

SEVERAL PERSONS WOUNDED.

White Man Shot by a Negro—A Hand to Hand Conflict—Military Called Out. Two Negro Ringleaders Arrested. No Further Trouble.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBIA, S. C., August 7.—There was little sleeping done in Greenville, S. C., last night. Negroes and whites were armed and a genuine race war at one time seemed inevitable.

There has been no trouble between the races since a negro was lynched there for murder five years ago, but they seemed to be prepared for an emergency.

Another Account. GREENVILLE, S. C., August 7.—Ben Odum, a prominent young man of this place, and John McClinton, a negro, were wounded in a race battle between the white people and negroes living in the vicinity of the Poe and Sampson cotton mills near here last night.

To Build a Grain Elevator. The stockholders and directors of the Farina Flour Mills here held a meeting yesterday to complete arrangements for the erection of a $3,500 grain elevator.

Hand to Hand Conflict.

There were about twenty-five negroes in the crowd, and with many mill operatives armed with guns, gathering around the mill, which was being worked by the negroes.

Hand to Hand Conflict.

Two of the negro ringleaders were arrested to-day. This caused more excitement among the negroes. The negroes threatened to lynch the negro who was acting as peace-maker last night.

Two suits against the Southern R. R. Two suits have been brought against the Southern railway for failure to provide separate accommodations for passengers, as provided by the "Jim Crow" car law.

IT IS MORE COMPACT.

Mr. D. E. Askew, of Georgia, says every farmer stands in his own right if he does not change his press box to 24x54. "The square bale (24x54) is much more compact, it makes a neat package, and I think every farmer, also farmer, are standing in their own right by changing their press box to the standard bale. I see some one, probably a ginners, are complaining on the grounds that it would be difficult to pack a bale weighing 500 pounds in a 24x54. To this I will say that I was under the same impression, but I can say by experience that I never so badly mistaken about anything in my life.

TWO SUITS FOR DAMAGES AGAINST THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY.
