ADJOURNS THE LEGISLATURE.

The Democrats Overawed by Bayonets-Goebel Took Oath of Office as Governor--His Condition Improved.

Issued Orders to Military.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star FRANKFORT, KY., January 31 .-Governor Taylor this morning adjourned the Legislature to meet at London, Ky., February 6th. Militia in the city prevented Democrats of the Legislature from assembling and members were threatened with arrest. Goebel has been sinking since noon and was reported dying at 5 o'clock.

sorts of rumors are affat. Never was there a more complicated political situation than that which tonight confronts the politicians of Ken tucky, and never was there one of which it seemed so difficult to form an accurate guess at the outcome.

There is great excitement here and al

The Republican party, which two days ago was vainly striving to hold its members in their seats upon the floor of the House and which seemed almost powerless, is to-night in the saddle strong and vigorous and carry ing things with a high hand. The powerlessness of the Republican of two days ago is more than equalled by the apparent helplessness of the Dem ocrat of to day. All day long the Democracy has been groping around trying to find some way in which it could seat in the gubernatorial chair its leader. William Goebel, who lies slowly dying of the wound inflicted by the bullet of an assassin.

No matter which way the Democrats turned they were confronted by the same prospect—a line of blue edged with steel-and it was fully un derstood by both parties that the line and the steel were there for business purposes only. There was no bluff, no false alarm about it.

Soldiers Fill the Streets.

All day through the streets of Frankfert soldiers marched and countermarched. Drills in the street were frequently held in order that the men might be warmed by exercise after they had remained in the biting wind. Around the penitentiary was a line of troops, in the Opera House was a the open space in front of the Capitol hotel, sentries patrolled every side of the building in which ex Governor Bradley resides, and a detachment of infautry held the court house against the possible coming of the mem-ber of the Legislature with the intention of d-claring that not the living William S. Taylor but the dying William Goebel was the lawful head and chief executive of the commonwealth of Keutucky. It was largely a matter of sentiment with the Democrats that led them to make such desperate efforts to crown their king before he died. They wanted him to leave the world a victor before the world. They fought hard for their man, but the fortune of war was against them, and their dying leader will in all probability sink into the grave without b-ing declared Governor of his State He has no more chance for the glory than he has for his life, and that is little indeed.

Republican Plans and Purposes.

The Republicans laid their plans well and secretly. They carried them through vigorously and triumphantly. The proclamation declaring that a state of insurrection existed in the State and warrants for the arrest of every Democratic member of the Legislature were prepared last night. It was the intention of Governor Taylor and his advisers that no meeting of the Legislature should be held to day, even though it proved necessary to arrest and detain in custody all those who persisted in holding meetings.

Once adopted the policy was carried out to the letter. Compelled to retire from the Capitol building they went to the opera house; held back from the opera house they went to the court house; prevented from enter ing the court house they went to the Capitol hotel, only to be told that any meeting they might attempt to hold in that building would be suppressed, all found taking part in it would be arrested and the hotel itself seized by the soldiers.

It was a hopeless game. The Demo crats had no chance to win, and they gave it up. Later in the day officers entered the hotel and told the Democrats that no conferences must be held, and they attempted to hold

Will Legislature Go to London.

There is much doubt among the members of the Legislature as to whether or not they will go to London at all. Some of the Republicans left Frankfort during the day, declaring that they were going direct to London, but no Democrat so declared himself. The words "London, Laurel county," are not words that please Democratic ears. In fact, many of them declar-d that their lives would not be safe after they reached the town. It is a place of about one thousand inhabitants, sit :ated in what is known as the "feud county." The inhabitants are mostly mountaineers, and largely of a most enthusiastic type of R-publican faith. The county is one of the greatest Republican strongholds in the State. The people of Laurel county are intensely for Taylor, and intensely again t Goebel and all his works. It is this latter feeling that causes the Democratic members of the Legislature to feel hesitancy about venturing at the present time within the confines of Laurel county or into the neighbor hood of London, when party feeling runs so high and bitter from end to

Adjutant General Collier declared to day that if they did not attend the legislative meeting, which is called to meet on February 6th he would arrest them individually, provided he received the necessary orders from Governor Taylor to convey them to

The Democrats have not said they would not go to London, but their legal advisers have counselled them that Governor Taylor had no right to adjourn the Legislature from Frank fort, and it is likely that the matter will be tested in the courts before any circumstance can arise which would call for the arrest of the members. The Democrats have not, in fact, decided what they will do.

Mr. Goebel's Condition,

Aliday the shadow of death of Mr. Goebei hung over the Capitol hotel. His strength began to fail him late in the morning. The bustle and excite ment of the morning, which despite all precautions penetrated into his quiet room, had a most serious effect upon him. At noon it was declared that he could not live but a short BELLAMY.

time, and at one o'clock it was said that death was upon him. The halls and stairways were filled with people who sat in silence expecting to hear at any moment that the end had come The afternoon wore away, and as evening drew on he seemed to gain new strength and appeared distinctly

He was never for a moment unconcious and never did his courage abate for an instant. He called for clergy men during the afternoon and Rev. P. F. Taliaferro and Prison Chaplain Wallace were twice with him. Later a close friend residing a short distance in the country came in and remained for an hour at his bedside.

The physicians declared that there was nothing that could have kept him up so long but his wonderful perve and will power. They gave absolutely no hope and said that death at the far thest could not be farther away than a Frankfort was quiet in the extreme o day. There was excitement sufficient for anybody, but not the slight-est sign of disorder. Many of the sa-loons were closed and the cold kept many people off the streets.

Goebel and Beckham Sworn In.

FRANKFORT KY ., January 31 .- Wm. Goebel was shortly before nine o'clock to night sworn in as Governor of Kentucky, and J. C. W. Beckham, a few minutes later took the oath of L'eutenant Governor. The oath was admin istered to both men by Chief Justice Hazelrigg of the Court of Appeals. The plan to make Goebel Governor was made early in the afternoon. A statement was prepared saying that the boards which had heard the contests for Governor and Lieutenant Governor had decided in favor of Goebel and Beckham and that the boards intended to report their findings to the Legislature, but that they had been prevented from so doing by the action of Governor Taylor in declaring the Log islature adjourned. The statement then goes on to say that the members of the Legislature were driven from place to place by the militia and threatened with arrest whenever they attempted to hold a meeting. It was declared the belief of all the signers of the statement that Goebel and B-ckham were the legally elected Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and esch man, as he signed the paper, announced that he voted for the adoption of the majority report of the contest boards, which declared Goebel and Beckham to be the men rightfully entitled to the office. The statement is signed by a majority of the members of both

Goebel Issues Orders.

Mr. Goebel, as soon as he was assured that he was legally Governor of Kentucky, took prompt action regard ing the military arm of the service. Two orders were quickly prepared for his signature, the first of which discharged Adjutant General Daniel Collier from office, and appointed General John B Castleman, of Louisville, as his successor. The second was direct-d to the commanders of the recting them to return to their homes Word was at once t-legraphed to General Castleman of his appointment and he is expected in the city to-morin the matter of the control of the State troops. The regiments of the guard have lately been reorganized and for the most part made up of Republicans and the personal followers of Governor Taylor. General Collier refused positively row. There is a possibility of trouble to say anything regarding his possible line of action. He would not say, however, that he had any intention of giving up his post at the order of Gov Seventy-six members of the House and Senate signed the statement, which included some strong criticism of the action of Governor Taylor in adjourning the Legislature and preventing it from meeting by the use of the militia The House and Senate will make another effort to meet to-morrow, but the Democratic members say they do not expect any trouble. If they are prevented from entering the hall they will meet somewhere else. They say that no violence will be offered to anybody, even though the members of the Legislature are satisfied that the troops are acting illegally. It was announced by members of the militia to night that of the soldiers new under arms here about 800 would obey the orders of Governor Guebel. It is not expected that they will attack their comrades, but they will refuse to obey the orders of Governor Taylor and take their chances of a court mar-

Gov. Goebel's Condition Improved.

FRANKFORT, KY., January 31 -The condition of Governor Goebel at 11 30 to-night was better than at any time during the day. He was resting comfortably, no unfavorable symptoms had appeared, and it was announced that he would unquestionably get through the night in good shape.

DEATH OF MRS. DUDLEY.

At half past one o'clock P. M., Sunday the 21st inst; Mrs. Lila Dudley. wife of Dr. Dudley and grand also adopted daughter of David R. and H-urietta Cauady, passed away in the 21st year of her age.

About two years ago Dr. Dudley completed his education at the Balti more Medical College and began a successful practice of medicine at Snead's Ferry and about one year ago was happily married, but alas, death has come so soon and broken up his home. In the death of sister Dudley, tue neighborhood looses one of its best young women and the Missionary Bap ust Church one of its most consistent and useful members.

REV. JOHN RICE, SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OLD, Scotch Grove, Iowa, writes:

"My wife and I have used two bottles of Paine's Celery Compound with great advantage to our general health. It cured her rheumatism and proved a good regulator of the system in general and a tonic for the nerves. In my own case I have found it a cure for kidney trouble arising from old age, as I am now in my 75th year. In this trouble it has given me almost instant relief."

The human system in old age must have a large store of nervous energy and rich, nourishing blood. Paine's Celery Compound keeps the liver and kidneys active, and the body strong.

GOEBEL'S PROCLAMATION.

Commands the Militia to Return to Their Homes-All Other Persons to Desist from Unlawful Practices.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. FRANKFORT, KY., January 31.-The following proclamation was issued tonight by Governor Goebel:

WHEREAS, it has been made known to me that certain persons without authority of law have banded them selves together for the unlawful purpose of forcibly preventing the General Assembly of Kentucky from assembling and discharging their official duties at the seat of government, and have for said unlawful purpose assembled in the city of Frank fort the First and Second regiments of the Kentucky State guard, and by force of arms have unlawfully taken possession of the hall of the House of Representatives and the Senate chamber of the State of Kentucky as well as other public buildings and archives of the common wealth, and have by force, intimidation and violence expelled the General Assembly from the capitol build ings and refused to permit the Senate and House of Representatives to hold their sessions therein, and are now terrorizing the representatives of the people and other good citizens of the common wealth. Now, therefore, I, William Goebel, Governor of the commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby command the said First and Second regiments of the Kentucky State Guard, and each and every officer and member thereof, to return to their homes and several avocations and there remain until lawfully called into active service. I also command all other persons, whatsoever, who are now unlawfully engaged in interfering with and intimidating members of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, to disband dating the said members of the General Assembly and all other good citizens of this Commonwealth. Given under my hand, as Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, at Frankfort, Ky., this 31st day of January, 1900. WILLIAM GOEBEL.

Many persons saw the phenomenon, but no one was able to explain it. - Chief of Police W. B. James, on Sunday, captured a negro that fills the descrip tion of the escaped Portsmouth murderer, and is now in correspondence with officials of that city relative to identification of the prisoner. If the prisoner proves to be the right man it will be a good catch for the Chief, as there was a liberal reward offered for his capture. - Greensboro Record: Under all circumstances the attendance at the Normal on the first day beats all records and not a living man would have prophesied such a crowd. Of course many predicted that there would be "just a few," meaning no doubt 75 or 100, while others were sure the opening would result in failure, especially in view of the smallpox, but somehow all the girls who come to the Normal are possesed with good judg ment and they looked at the matter in its true light, realizing that while there were some cases here, it was no good to run, for it is all over the country and it is somewhat like trying to run away from one's sins. Weli, last night at nine o'clock there were 225 young ladies on hand, while five more came on the early morning trains. So it looks like there will be enough to amuse the faculty at least.
