By Telegraph to the Morning Star FRANKFORT, Feb. 7 .- The remains of Governor William Goebel were brought back to Frankfort to-day from Covington and laid in state in the ladies' reception room in the west wing of the Capital Hotel. There they will remain until noon to-morrow, when the relatives and intimate friends will take a last look at the features. There was a steady downpour of rain all day and probably not over three of four thousand people took the opportunity to get a last look at the dead Democratic leader. Many of these were country people. Probably half of those who filed past the casket were women, wives of legislators and city and State officials, society women of Frankfort, and country women, many of them from the mountains. Many pathetic scenes were witnessed as the crowds slowly filed past by the bier. The floral offerings were magnificent. Nearly every county in the State sent flowers, and the big room was one mass of roses, lilies and smilax. There was no excitement whatever in the city. Adjutant General Collier this morning gave orders that all soldiers be withdrawn from the city to the Capitol grounds. This was done to avoid any irritation which the presence of the State troops might have on Governor Goebel's friends.

The funeral services of the late Gov ernor Goebel will commence at noon to-morrow in the parlors of the Capi tol Hotel. The services proper will be preceded by a short procession in the streets of the town. There will be no interment to morrow.

BIG DEAL ON AT CHARLESTON.

Armours May Build a Pertilizer Pactory There-$1,000,000 Capital.

[Charleston News and Courier.] It is reparted in Charleston, on au thority which is undoubtedly good, that Armour & Co., of Chicago, will establish a $1,000,000 fertilizer plant on the Kinsman property near this city. There are sound business reasons which prompt the company to take this step. The offal, blood, tank-age and stuffs from the Armour meat concerns are excellent ingredients for fertilizer making and this has to be sold to independent companies. As matters now stand the Fertilizer Trust controls almost the entire business and is consequently in a position to dictate prices at which Armour is compelled to sell his refuse stuffs. The item for this is by no means small as a stock in trade which would induce the company to build and equip plants

The building of an opposition fertil izer plant in Charleston, while not backed with the capital stock equal to that of the trust, would mean a great thing for this section, and it is believed in business circles that the scheme will go through. The Ar mours, it is said, have been favorably impressed with business conditions here of late and all things considered, they look upon this as the most desirable site for the big plant.

CARRABELLE, Fla., February 7 .- A disastrous fire broke out at this place last evening, caused by spontaneous combustion of turpentine and oil in the store of the Franklin Lumber Company. MOVEMENTS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

General Buller's Forces Again Advancing to the Relief of Ladysmith.

TWO DAYS' SHARP FIGHTING.

Situation in Cape Colony-Gens. Roberts and Kitchener Go to the Front-Important Movement on Foot-Gen. Gatacre Fighting.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

London, February 7.-While the suspense is on regarding General Buller's movements and the operations affecting the fate of Ladysmith, there comes from other quarters interesting news in the announcement that Field Marshal Lord Roberts, the commander-in chief of the British forces in South Africa, and his chief of staff, Major General Lord Kitchener, have left for the front. As this information was held up for several hours by the censor it seems to indicate that an important movement is on foot.

A dispatch from Sterkstroom, dated this morning, announces that the Boers are attacking General Gatacre from two directions. Firing was then proceeding between the outposts. A delayed Sterkstroom dispatch, dated Monday, February 5th, says a body of troops left the camp February 3d, and that important developments were ex-pected. It is quite probable that this explains Lord Roberts' departure, and that the commander-in-chief wishes either to be present at or supervise the long intended movement by General Gatacre to join forces with General Kelly-Kenney, and thence strongly reinforce General French, completing the latter's work at Colesberg and establishing without fear of serious opposition the advanced position for the main movement. This, however, does not indicate that the main advince has begun. The commanders will probably be back at Cape Town within a short time. It is pointed out that the term "going to the front" must not be interpreted into the idea that a great movement upon Pretoria. by way of Bloemfontein, has seriously commenced. It will be a month, or perhaps much longer, before this can be brought about. In the meanwhile, the preliminary steps are likely to enliven the campaign with sharp fighting, and news from Sterkstroom and Colesberg is eagerly awaited.

Excitement in London.

When the dispatch announcing the fighting on the Upper Tugela was published there was the usual scene of excit ment on the streets. The big placard attracted newspaper buyers, and the news was eagerly discussed in all quarters. There was notable excitement in the House of Commons, where, in addition to the War Office announcement that General Buller had crossed the Tugela Monday and was advancing upon Ladysmith, a news agency telegram was posted saying that one hundred additional ambulance stretchers had been sent to the front from Durban.

The War Office at present is only able to add, regarding General Buller's advance, "the operations are still in progress but we have no information regarding the result."

The available maps do not show the drifts mentioned in the Boer dispatches. The rush in the direction of the War Office when it was learned that confirmation had been received there of the report that General Buller was again advancing evidenced the anxiety of the public to obtain the

The War Office message, as given out, furnishes no clue as to where the Tugela was crossed, nor the numbers supporting General Buller's movement; but it is presumed this third at tempt will be a supreme effort on the part of the General to cut his way through, and that in it he will employ every available man. The expression in the official dispatch, "is now advancing upon Ladysmith" it is pointed out, must not be taken to mean that he has cut down all opposition, but merely that he is headed in the direction of the besieged town and the public therefore, is naturally on tenter hooks in regard to the next news.

Buller's Advance Movement.

SPEARMAN'S CAMP, Wednesday Feb. 6 P. M. - General Buller commenced the advance for the relief of Ladysmith Monday. The naval guns opened at 7 o'clock in the morning and a feint attack was made in front of our position. Three battalions advanced toward the Brakfontein with six bat teries. At 11 o'clock the Boers opened with artillery fire and sent several shells among the British infantry who re tired an hour later. Meanwhile a vigorous attack was made on the extreme right, where the engineers expeditious ly constructed positions. Several pieces of cannon, hidden among the trees on Zwarts' kop. bombarded heav ily. The British infantry advanced and the Boers were entirely surprised. At 4 o'clock a high hill, named the Klantz kloof, a continuation of the Brakfontein, had been taken. The operations were excellently planned. The bombardment of the Boer posi tion was resumed this (yesterday) morning. The Boers worked a disanpearing cannon from the high Doorm kloof range, on the right of the captured hill; but the British shells exploded its magazine, and the gun was put out of action until late in the day. Musketry fire was intermittent unti the afternoon when the Boers made a determined effort to retake the hill. Reinforcements rushed up cheering, the Boers were repulsed and the British advanced along the ridge. Two Days Fighting.

LONDON, February 8.-The Standard has the following from Spearman's Camp, dated February 7: "The force under General Buller is again advancing to the relief of Ladysmith, and after two days of severe fighting it may fairly be said to have made a good first step on the road to the besieged town. "The movement was begun at an brigade, forming a part of the Fifth division, under General Warren, made a feint attack upon the kopjes immediately on our front. The assault was delivered at the outset under cover of naval guns on Mount Alice and subsequently under that of field batteries.

"The infantry advanced steadily toward the Boer entrenched position at Brakfontein and kept the enemy busi ly employed. While this diversion was being made, the remainder of the infantry told off for the attack, who had bivouacked Sunday night under Mount Alice, moved along at the foot of Zwarts' kop, in the direction of our

"A pontoon bridge was thrown across the Tugela by the engineers under the fire of the enemy. The first battalion to move across in the forenoon was the Durban light infantry, 25c. per bottle. Insist on having Rob of Ge eral Lyttleton's brigade. They ERTS'. No other "as good." R. R. advanced against Vaalkrantz, which lies on the most direct road to Lady smith, and after two hours of splendid work they got within charging distance of the Boers.

At the Point of the Bayonet,

"The first of the kopjes was carried by them at the point of the bayonet with the utmost gallantry. Almost simultaneously the first battalion rifle brigade cleare: the second kopje and after moving along the long ridge they bivouacked on the spot. The feint attack at Potgieter's drift having served its purpose in preventing the concentration of the enemy at the critical point, the Eleventh brigade fell back to the river.

"In the course of the operation both the infantry and the artillery had been subjected to a severe shell fire.
"Yesterday (Tuesday) at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, encouraged doubtless by their success at Spion kop, the Boers endeavored to re-capture the position taken by us at Vaalkrantz. They were beaten back, however, with loss. British Losses Not Large.

"The work accomplished so far has been magnificently done. The shell and Maxim fire poured in by the Boers has been extremely severe, but our lesses are, comparatively speaking, small. The Durban light infantry took a few prisoners in the course of their charge.

"The enemy, as usual, fought with the utmost stubbornness. The British manœuvring and the accuracy on the part of the British artillery during the fighting Monday were beyond praise. There is not the slightest likelihood that the Boers will succeed in dislodg ing us from the positions we have gained, and the prospects of the relies of Ladysmith are decidedly hopeful.' Another special from Spearman's Camp, dated Wednesday, February

"Our further advance is at the mo ment prevented, as the Boers enfilade us from their positions on Spion Kop and Doorm kloof, Our casualties, although estimated at 250, are trifling, considering the great importance of the movement just concluded."
