STILL CONTINUES TO DEFY THE LAW

Taylor Refused to Recognize a Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued by Judge Brown.

GEOBEL'S DEATH ANNOUNCED.

Lieut. Gov. Beckham Sworn in as Governor-His Orders to the Military. Injunction to Restrain Taylor. Republicans Off to London.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. FRANKFORT, KY., February 3 .-Civil and military authority in Kentucky have come face to face at last and unless one or the other recedes from the positions occupied to night there can be but one outcome and that is civil war.

Governor Taylor must within fortyeight hours surrender to the Circuit Court of Franklin county the person of Alonzo Walker, now held in custody by him in the State executive building or Sheriff Suter, of; Franklin county, with a pow-erful posse at his back, will attempt his release by force, and it is hardly within the range of possibility that the attempt can be made without blood shed or loss of life. If once blood is shed in an armed conflict in the streets of Frankfort, it is beyond the wisdom of any man to tell how far the flames of strife may spreda.

Governor Taylor this afternoon re-fused to acknowledge the existence or permit the service of a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Moore of the county court. He thus tacitly suspends the writ of habeas corpus in the courts of Franklin county. Judge Moore announced that he would see that the sheriff has power sufficient to enforce the mandate of his court.

Proceedings in Habeas Corpus Case. FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 3.—Gover-nor Taylor and Adjutant General Collier late this afternoon flatly refused to recognize a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Moore, for the release of Alonzo Walker, a stenographer who was arrested and put into confinement yesterday after pinning a notice of a writ of injunction on the door of Governor Taylor's chambers in the executive building. Judge Moore said, af ter Sheriff Suter had reported his in ability to serve the writ of habeas corpus, that unless Governor Taylor recedes from his position the sheriff would be instructed to enforce the order of the court and would be given sufficient armed force to insure this re-

Shortly after 4 o'clock Mrs. Lizzie G. Walker, the wife of the imprisoned man, appeared before Judge Moore, of the County Court, and applied for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Alonzo Walker, making affidavit that he had been deprived of his lib-erty without due process of law. Judge Moore at once directed that a writ of habeas corpus be issued against Governor Taylor and Adjutant Collier, demanding the release of Walker, and the writ was placed in the hands of Sheriff B. F. Suter, with directions to serve immediately. In company with Judge Andrew Scott and former Congressman J. K. Hendricks, Sheriff Suter started down St. Clair street toward the Capitol grounds to serve the writ. Crossing the tracks of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad he was met by Captain Walcutt, provost marshal of the State troops guarding the State buildings, and together the two walked to the entrance of the Capitol grounds. Sheriff Suter explained the nature of his mission to Captain Walcutt, who at once went to the executive building to notify Governor Taylor and Adjutant General Collier of the matter and learn their wishes in regard to the matter. Sheriff Suter, in the meantime, stood without the gate close to two sentries whose crossed bayonets formed a bar to his access. In a moment or two Captain Walcutt returned. In the meantime an im mense crowd had gathered around the sheriff in the expectation of trouble. No one was allowed to enter the ground, however, except a mail car-rier with a sack full of letters, for whom the bayonets were uncrossed. When in a moment or two Captain Walcutt returned, he also was immediately surrounded by a number of the members of the State militia. Captain Walcutt stepped down the sidewalk in front of the sheriff and said: "I'm afraid you can't come in, Mr. Sheriff." The captain was smiling as he made this announcement. "Well," said Sheriff Suter, "I have writ of habeas corpus here for the body of Alonzo Walker and I demand to be allowed to serve it. Captain Walcutt hesitated a moment but the smile never left his face. "I'm sorry, but you can't come in, Suter,' he finally said. "Is there anything else I can do?" Sheriff Suter looked at the burly form of the captain, and then smiled slightly himself. "Well, no, I guess not," he replied, "but I demand ad-mittance here." Captain Walcutt, still smiling, shook his head. The representative of judicial authority and the representative of military authority regarded each other silently for a moment, then Sheriff Suter turned away and slowly walked back to the Capitol hotel, where he found Judge Moore and reported his inability to serve the writ.

The writ as returned to Judge Moore bore on its back the following written endorsement by Sheriff Suter: "The within writ is returned unexecuted, because I was prevented from executing same by military force. I went to the State House square and demanded admittance of the officer in charge at the gates, but was refused admittance. I demanded to see Col. Roger Williams, and sent Captain Walcutt to see him, but he refused to be seen, and I thereupon demanded the body of Alonzo Walker and he refused to deliver him. "B. F. SUTER. "Sheriff of Franklin Co." Taylor Enjoined.

Judge Cantrill of the Circuit Court, this morning granted a temporary injunction restraining Governor Taylor from interfering with the meetings of the Legislature and from removing Adjutant General of the State. of the Legislature to London, Ky. The temporary injunction is to remain binding until February 8th, when the hearing to make it permanent will be heard before Judge Cantrill at Georgetown, Ky.

Immediately after the issuance of the writ, Judge Cantrill instructed Sheriff Suter, of Franklin county, to make no effort to present the order of court. The judge directed that it be allowed to remain binding without service because of the degree threaten. service because of the danger threatening the man who should undertake the Net receipts at all task and the results that might ensue, owing to the state of the public mind.

Beckham Sworn In as Governor. Exactly one hour after the death of Mr. Goebel, J. C. W. Beckham was sworn in as Governor of the State, the oath being administered by S. J. Shackelford, clerk of the Court of Apwhen the clerk read the concluding words of the oath, "so help me God," Mr. Beckham's reply came, "I do," and then with greater emphasis, "and my God give me strength to do my duty."

The first official act of Mr. Beckham was the appointment of a new adju-tant general and his last act before taking the oath was an order remov-ing Adjutant General Collier and As-sistant Adjutant General Dickson.

The order was delivered to Captain

Bennett at the gate of the Capitol grounds twenty five minutes before the death of Mr. Goebel. Mr. Beckham was made acting Governor last night by medical certificate of Dr. Mc-Cormack that Mr. Goebel was unable to assume the functions of the office.

Mr. Beckham seemed deeply affected by the position in which circumstances had placed him, and he did not reveal much joy over the congratulations which those in the room showered upon him, although he accepted them

There is one thing that I would have been greatly pleased to have had done by Mr. Goebel before his death," he said, "and that is to have signed the certificate of Senator Blackburn. Of course I am greatly pleased to have the privilege myself, but I know that it was a matter close to the heart of Mr. Goebel, and I wish that he could have lived long enough to do it. I think I can promise," he said with a smile, "that it will be one of the first things I will do on Monday.' Republicans Going to London.

Chairman John Barrett, of the Republican joint caucus, has issued a call for a session of the caucus at the court house in London on Monday at P. M. This is taken to indicate that there will be an attempt to organize a Legislature and to elect new officers. To make a quorum it will be neces sary for the troops to arrest and take to London enough of the Democrats for that purpose. A leader of the par-ty said: "We will elect all legislative officers, and elect Governor Bradley to the United States Senate, thereby getting a contest in the Senate, which will bring a decision from competent

There was a general exodus of Republican Representatives and Senators to day in the direction of London. Many members have been leaving by twos and threes for the last two days, going to their homes and intending to go from there to London, but to day there was a concerted movement, and all of those who had been left behind, about fifteen, started on the morning

Arms and Ammunition.

Several cases of rifles and a large quantity of ammunition was forwarded to London last night by express, by Adjutant General Collier. He says he expects no trouble at London but wishes to have matters ready for any Governor Taylor has, for the first time being at least, given up the idea of going to London and will remain in the executive building in Frankfort. United States Senator-elect Blackburn arrived in Frankfort from Wash ington this morning to hold a confer ence with the Democratic leaders and to advise with them in regard to the probable effect of the attitude of the Democrats Consulting.

Senator Blackburn was met at the station by Col. Jack Chinn, Speaker South Trimble, of the House, and other prominent Democrats, and on arrival at the Capitol Hotel immediately held a consultation with ex Congressman Hendricks, Lieutenant Gov ernor Beckham, J. Andrew Scott, J A. Prior, Attorney General Mc Queewn, Representative Gantrill, G. W. Hickman, and Speaker Trimble. The determination of the administra tion not to interfere with the course of events at Frankfort until actually necessary, as shown by yesterday' cabinet meeting, and Senator Black burn's interview with the President. was evidently gratifying to the Demo cratic leaders.

Senator Blackburn strongly urged the necessity of preserving peace at all hazards and to allow no acts of violence to occur under any circumstances, but to allow matters to proceed to a conclusion in the courts.

The authorities at Louisville telephoned county Judge Moore to day asking if James Lester Sutter, who was arrested last night on the charge of having shot Governor Goebel and taken to Louisville, should be held. Judge Moore replied to hold Sutter for the present.

Advice to Taylor. Washington, February 3.—Senator

Deboe, of Kentucky, to day sent a brief telegram to Governor Taylor at Frankfort, advising him to allow the State Legislature to meet at that point. At least one other dispatch has been sent to Governor Taylor of the same tenor, but a copy of it is not obtain Goebel's Death Announced.

Both speakers of the Legislature signed and issued the following address to the people of Kentucky: "It is with the most profound sor row that we announce the death of Governor William Goebel. In his last moments he counselled his friends to keep cool and bow to the law in all things. We, his friends, beg of the people of Kentucky, in this hour of affliction, to carefully abstain from any act of violence or any resort to mob law. It would be his wish if he were alive that there should be abso lutely no stain on his memory by any imprudent act of any who were his friends. The law is supreme and must in time be re-established, and all the wrongs he and his party have suffered will find their proper redress."

Gov. Beckham's Proclamation. Late to night Mr. Beckham issued a proclamation announcing, "with the profoundest sorrow," the death of Mr. Goebel, and his own qualification as Governor. In the death of Mr. Goebel he said "Kentucky has lost one of her greatest and noblest sons." The proclamation commands the and public buildings to disband and return home. "Feeling most deeply the responsibilities and difficulties of the situation," the proclamation concludes, "] invoke the aid and support of all the law-abiding and law-respecting Christian people of this commonwealth; I promise, in a legal way, if within the power of man, to restore peace, quiet and protection to all individuals, regardless of party or station. under the constitution which I have sworn so solemnly to obey." WAR SITUATION

IN SOUTH AFRICA. Every Reason to Believe That Buller is Advancing for Relief of Ladysmith.

Estimates of the Boers' Strength-Lord Roberts' Movements in Cape Colony. Denial of Report That Mafeking Had Been Relieved.

By Cable to the Morning Star. LONDON, February 4.-Spencer Wilkinson writes the following review of the situation in South Africa for the Associated Press at midnight:

"It is morally impossible for Buller's army, so long as there is any fight left in it, to sit still while Sir George White is invested at Ladysmith. Better than that would be to lose 10,000 men in an attempt at relief. Accordingly, it is probable that General Buller will try gain, and indeed, that he is now on the move or fighting.
"As he has kept General Lyttleton's brigade north of the river the probability is that his next move will be an advance on Lyttleton's right. He would hardly go to Lyttleton's left, because that would only lead to a fresh attack of Spion Kop and the range of which of which it is a part. He would not go to the east of Colenso except with his whole force, less Barton's brigade. The retention of Lyttleton's brigade at Potgieter's Drift may, therefore, be taken as proof that the new move will not be to the east of Colenso "East of Potgieters there are several drifts, one or two of which Gen. Buller's guns command, and he can there fore cross the river, but the Boers have had ample time to prepare positions beyond the river. "A frontal attack would, as usual, be costly, but unless the General is prepared for a heavy loss he has little chance of breaking through the Boer

The Right Plaa of Attack.

"The right plan would be that adopted by General Sherman when he pushed back Johnston from Chat tanooga to Atlanta. Sherman entrenched along Johnston's front and then extended his line to one of the flanks. By the time Sherman vas ready to move a force around behind his entrenched line to attack Johnston in flank and threaten his retreat, the Confederate general usu ally withdrew. Such tactics are pos sible only when a force is numerically superior. We do not know the strength of the Boers in Natal. Winston Churchill estimates them at only 19,000, of whom seven thousand are observing Ladysmth. This would give Buller 25,000 against 12,000 and should render possible something like Sherman's manœuvres. But there is reason to believe that Buller's own estimate of the Boer force is much

Lora Roberts' Movements.

"Lord Roberts will certainly not hurry his move from the Cape. He will first complete the assembling of his forces, which will not all have ar rived for another three weeks. Then he will have transport property organized and in working order before he will start. After that he will probably make a rapid move; but no outcry will induce him to start until he considers all is ready.

"Last week's report that Mafeking had been relieved seems to have arisen from Colonel Plumer's skirmish near Crocodile Pools. The report came from Boer sources and this origin of it seems to show that the Boers are now sanguine of success in the northwest They have probably reduced their forces in that region in order to strengthen themselves against Me thuen and General Buller.

Gen, Euller's Movement. LONDON, February 3, 2 P. M.—The War Office is silent as regards General Buller, but there is every reason to believe that he is continuing his move ment upon Ladysmith. Those who are in a position to know, confirm his reported re crossing of the Tugela river and believe he was engaged yesterday. The message from Ladysmith Thursday saying the Boer forces were leaving again and that the beseiged force was considerably diminished, tends to confirm this.

Field Marshal Roberts has notified the War Office that forty Highlanders who were previously reported killed at Magersfontein are prisoners at Pre

Major Bathurst, who was wounded at the battle of Colenso, arrived at Southampton to-day on board the Servia. He says there are twenty thousand Boers at the Tugela river, but that General Buller can ge through if he is prepared to sacrifice five or six thousand men. Dr. Leyds at Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 3.-Dr. Leyds, diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, continues to be the sensation here. The officers of the British embassy are amazec at the warmth of his reception and the interest taken in the war, which is most intense. Dr. Leyds, the correspondent is reliably informed, had another long conference with Count von Buelow, the minister of foreign affairs, yesterday, at the for eign office. Dr. Leyds refused to make any statement on the subject. A letter from the Orange Free State artillery chief, dated Kronstaad. December 17th, says: "The artillery hitherto has proved of little avail on both sides, in spite of the fact that the Boers' guns are better than those of the English and the Boers' aim is better than the English. The battles of Magersfontein and Colenso were decided by the rifles and not the guns. General Albrecht ridicules the Lydlite bombs, which, he says, caused no damage. He concludes with saying that, judging from the present war, the losses through the most modern weapons are no greater than before but rather smaller.

They had previously requested Dr. Hume to leave them alone with their unconscious brother. The doc tor withdrew shortly, and soon after, while kneeling by the bedside of their brother, he gave a gasp and was gone. Stricken with sorrow and anguish the brother and sister did not move from their positions. They remained in the room with the door closed upon every body until 720 o'clock, when their brother, Justus Goebel, who has been hurrying from Arizona, arrived. He entered the room and the door was closed a few minutes. Soon after Dr. Hume was summoned, and to him Arthur Goebel announced that Mr. Goe bel had died at 6 44 o'clock. REMARKABLE DOCUMENT

Emanating from the Secretary of State of the Boer Republic-Written for the American Public.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, February 3.-The papers here publish extracts from a remarkable document emanating from the office of the Secretary of State at Pretoria, dated December 16th. The document comprises 10,000 words, and is countersigned by Secretary of State Reitz It seems specially written for the American public. It says:

"We, to a great extent, depend on America and Europe for our food stuffs. It will be criminal on the part of great powers to suffer this little nation to perish by famine since the sword has failed. Since, in 1870, the President of the United States acknowledged our Republic as a sovereign State, Americans have flocked here in numbers. In every instance the hand of fellowship has been extended to them. Not a case of disagreement is on record but with the first war note of the oppressor we are informed that America is acting in league with the enemy. If our sister Republic has no sympathy with us, if the boasted condescension of the British is to be preferred to sincerity and truth, we will no longer believe in the justice and integrity of the American nation, and her profession of christianity we will consider empty sound."

Secretary Reitz further says the and that the British murdered women children and American and German subjects at Derdepeport.

Governor Russell Still Struggling With the Matter-State Experiment Parms. Teachers' Assembly.

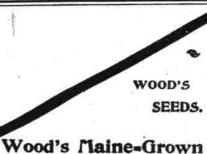

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., February 3.-Governor Russell is still studying the case of the negro Reuben Ross, who is under sentence to hang next Friday at Lumberton. During the past week Senator McIntyre was here on behalf of some citizens of Robeson county who believe Ross is guilty and should be executed. Next Monday a large delegation from Robeson, especially from the Red Springs section, will be in Raleigh to present their views as to the negro's innocence. They desire a commutation of sentence.

The sites were this week selected for the two State experiment farms. One is a mile and a half from Red Springs, on land of H. C. Brown. It comprises ten acres. The other is three miles from Tarboro, on land of Battle Bryan. This comprises twenty acres. Two men will be put on each farm. The land for both farms is leased. State Superintendent Mebane today sent out letters urging all county superintendents of schools in the State to attend the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead next June.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections decided to recommend that no further proceedings be taken in the case of the protest against Senator Scott, of West Virginia, continuing to hold his seat in the Senate.
