STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS

In the Goebel Assassination Investigation.
Another Important Arrest—The Trial of Powers

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—There were some startling developments in the Goebel assassination case today. This afternoon W. H. Cullton, who waived examination and was held over to the Circuit Court, was in conference with the attorneys for the prosecution for over two hours. He was accompanied by his brother in law, E. E. Hoeg, who also has his attorney. Cullton was reported to have made a confession, but late to night it developed that the information gained was not as sweeping as thought. His friends admit that he gave no testimony such information as he had and which had heretofore not come out.

Henry E. Youtsey, Republican Auditor Sweeney's clerk, was arrested at noon and locked up on charges with being an accessory to the assassination. He is a half-brother of Hon. L. J. Crawford, a prominent Republican. Cullton and Youtsey were taken to the jail, and a preliminary hearing was held at 4 o'clock. An important utterance was made later in the day on the bill by Senator Davis, Minnesota. He advocated free trade between the United States and Porto Rico and urged that the necessary money to pay the tariff bill Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. ## GENERAL ROBERTS ABOUT TO MOVE.

Believed That the British Advance on the Boers Will Begin Monday.

BOER FORCE AT KROONSTADT

One Hundred and Thirty-five Miles Away.

Reconstruction of Railway May Delay the Movement Until May.

Affairs in the Free State

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, March 29, A. M.—Gen. French, who has arrived at Bloemfontein from Thaba N'chu, says that Com mandant Olivier has 6,000 men and is north of Ladybrand.

Immense quantities of stores have now been accumulated at Bloemfontein, and Lord Roberts' infantry is seemingly about to move. An impression, which can be traced to the War Office, is abroad that the advance will begin next Monday. Boer observation parties are hovering near Bloemfontein, but Lord Roberts' one hundred and thirty-five miles to cover before reaching the great position which the Boers are preparing at Kroonstadt. It is thought some of the younger commanders thought the old soldier would not delay at the reconstruction of the Transvaal railway. Therefore, he can hardly engage the Boers in force for two weeks. The reconstruction of the railway behind him may even delay an invasion of the Transvaal until May.

Meanwhile all the important towns in the Free State, within Lord Roberts' reach, are being garrisoned. The British are also preparing for a report to Mr. Chamberlain, concerning a plan of civil government.

All the morning papers print singularly kind editorials concerning Gen. French, who has praised his military skill, upheld his chivalrous conduct and regret that so strong and moderate a mind should be absent from the final settlement of the dispute.

Although some of the younger commanders thought the old soldier would not delay at the reconstruction of the Transvaal railway. Therefore, he can hardly engage the Boers in force for two weeks. The reconstruction of the railway behind him may even delay an invasion of the Transvaal until May.

DEATH OF GEN. JOUBERT.

The Boer Leader Succumbed to a Physical Ailment—Pretoria Plunged into Mourning.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PRETORIA, March 28.—General Joubert died last night at 11:30 o'clock. He had been suffering from a stomach complaint.

The town plunged into mourning, for the true patriot, soldier and upright and honorable gentleman.

LONDON, March 28.—The afternoon newspapers to day publish long biographies of General Joubert. Generally they are complimentary. He was the antipodes in the Transvaal world of Leyds, and personally was honest, straight and clean headed.

Boers Reteok Ladybrand.

KROONSTADT, ORANGE FREE STATE, March 27.—Commandant Crowther who commands the Transvaal fighting line in the South, reports that his regiment, Ladybrand, after the British had been there an hour. He adds that Landrust Vangorkum and Field Cornet Smith fell into the hands of the British, of whom there were three. Rhodesia is a prisoner of the Boer loss, he declares, was nil. The British fled in the direction of Maseru.

A skirmish near Brandfont four Lancers were killed and six were wounded.

Free State Pacification.

LONDON, March 28.—The British High Commissioner, Sir Alfred Milner, writes to the Home Office last night and was met by Lord Roberts and his staff.

According to a dispatch from Bloemfontein, published in the second edition of the Times, the high commissioner's visit is of a private nature. It is thought this can be nothing but an official subterfuge, the question of the pacification of the Free State and the treatment of the insurgents, doubtless being discussed between Lord Roberts and Sir Alfred Milner.

Reports from Rouxville and other towns say the surrender of the British continues satisfactorily.

General Clement's column entered Fauresmith Tuesday, March 27th, having previously occupied Jagersfontein. Magistrates were appointed, and proclamation was read, bands of music met the troops and flags were flown. The scenes resembled the American occupation of Porto Rico at night, but in the eyes of the spectators at Fauresmith was President Steyn's daughter. Heavy rains made General Clement's march hard and are causing sickness among the troops.

Fight or Surrender.

A dispatch from Mareru, Basutoland, dated Tuesday, March 27th, says the apparently reliable reports that the Boers are entering Ladybrand, cause the presumption that the British troops have crossed the line of the Boer retreat towards Kroonstadt and that a fight or surrender near Ladybrand is imminent. Maseru's dispatches are not distinguished for their accuracy, and as the British force near Ladybrand under Colonel Plicher is quite small, it is hardly very unlikely to result from the operations.

Further advice from Mafeking dated March 16th, reiterates that all was unchanged. Closed at 2 1/2c, so tightly drawn, the Boers allowing natives to pass through their lines, which they had previously forbidden.

The native refugees are reported to be too stupid and lazy to work or take cover from the shells. They gather in crowds around the soup kitchens, and have to be driven away when the warning bell rings.

The bombardment, just previous to the dispatch sent, had been unusually vigorous, and it was added that the pacification of the Free State and the operations would be still further reduced.

Preparing to Move.

A special dispatch from Bloemfontein says: "The period of inaction is coming to an end. Troops are being pushed to the front and transports

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Maxton Herald: McKay Sellers, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, died at the home of his nephew, Mr. J. B. Sellers, about three miles East of Maxton on Friday last, March 16, aged 75 years. He had been in bad health about 12 months, but had not been confined to the house but two weeks prior to his death.

—Stanley Enterprise: A crowd of our young citizens waited on the two Mormon elders who struck our county some two weeks ago and let them understand that we do not need Mormonism in this county and that the best thing they could do was to get away at once. The Mormons perceived that the boys meant all they said, and made a promise last Friday if they would be allowed to get away then and there, they would go never to return.

Raleigh News and Observer: About 4:30 o'clock Saturday evening the stampery at Spring Hope caught on fire. This building is two stories, 50 by 150 feet, and was owned by a company of business people of the town. It cost about $3,000 and was insured for $2,000. It was occupied by the Woodard Tobacco Company, F. H. Chamberlain manager, and contained about $14,000 worth of tobacco. There was about $12,000 insurance on the stock; nothing on the fixtures.

—Goldboro Argus: While adjusting a belt at the Wayne Cotton Mill Monday afternoon, Mr. Wm. F. Wade, foreman of the carding department, was caught in the shafting and almost instantly killed, being terribly broken up. A fire, the origin of which is thought to be incendiary, destroyed the fine new brick machine of Major H. L. Grant and other machinery at his brick making plant near this city, about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars, with only $1,500 insurance.

—Fayetteville Observer: News comes from the western part of the county that Robert H. Taylor, who is a member of Company A, Second N. C. Volunteers, during the war with Spain, was killed by a boiler explosion at a saw mill last week. Fire destroyed the distillery building of the Australis Manufacturing Company, whose plant is situated on the old Electric Light Co's site on Church street. The powder house containing the electric plant, and the other buildings, containing supplies, etc., were saved by the hard work of the fire department.

The President said he would be glad to attend the meeting, but could give no positive answer at this time.

LENOIR COUNTY CONVENTION.

Held Saturday at Kinston and Several Candidates Endorsed.

Special Star Correspondence.

KINSTON, N. C., March 24th, 1900.—Lenoir county Democratic convention held to-day was enthusiastic and harmonious. Aycock was unanimously endorsed for Governor, and the delegates to the Second Congressional District convention were instructed to present the name of J. W. Grainger of Kinston, for Congress, and do all in their power for his nomination. George E. Farrar, one of the leading farmers, was endorsed for Commissioner of Agriculture. Resolutions were passed unanimously commending the wise and progressive administration of President James A. Bryan, of the A. & N. C. R. R.

The outlook for Democratic success was never brighter, and Lenoir may be counted on for a good majority for the proposed amendment.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing that it has cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Dr. BELL's drug store, and get a 10 cent trial bottle. Regular size 50 cents and $1; every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

STANDARD SQUARE BALE.

Rule Adopted by the Savannah Cotton Exchange for Next Season's Crop.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, GA., March 28.—The Savannah Cotton Exchange is settling a dispute by the adoption of cotton baling, giving a new rule with respect to bales, which is to go into effect with the beginning of the next cotton year. The circular says that on and after September 1, 1900, all sales of cotton in square bales shall be based on packages of standard size (twenty-four by fifty four inches), and when bales of other dimensions are tendered for sale, the price shall be twenty-five cents per bale shall be made by the buyer by the seller on such cotton.

Copies of the above rule are being sent to all agents for the sale of cotton in the United States, requesting their cooperation, and to farmers, ginners, merchants, newspapers and others interested in the general adoption of a uniform square cotton bale. The Savannah Cotton Exchange has practically adopted the rule.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

To Be Enforced in Savannah, Ga., Under Penalty of Fine or Imprisonment.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, GA., March 28.—Mayor Myers has issued his proclamation establishing compulsory vaccination within the city. Ten days time is allowed, after which all persons found that are not vaccinated will be proceeded against to the extent of the law, which imposes a fine of $5.00 or one month imprisonment. There is not a case of smallpox in the city, but this stringent order has been made in order to render the whole city immune because there is smallpox elsewhere in the State and in neighboring States.
