There was once a man who smiled Because the day was bright, Because he slept at night, Because God gave him sight To gaze upon his child, Because his little one Could leap and laugh and run,

Smiled on the earth, he smiled. He smiled because the sky Was high above his head, Because the rose was red, Because the past was dead He never wondered why The Lord had blundered so That all things have to go

Because the distant sun

The wrong way here below The overreaching sky. He toiled and still was glad Because the air was free, Because he loved and she That claimed his love and he Shared all the joys they had Because the grasses grew, Because the sweet winds blew, Because that he could hew And hammer, he was glad.

Because he lived he smilled And did not look ahead With bitterness or a read, But nightly sought his bed As calmly as a child; And people called him mad For being always glad With such things as he had, And shook their heads and smiled.

CURRENT COMMENT.

- Mr. Depew's motion that the Democrats in opposing tariff disorimination against Porto Rico, are seeking campaign material, is wrong: the Republicans, in proposing it, are furnishing campaign material, as Senator Proctor has said. - Brooklyn Citizen, Dem.

-- A western editor wants to known if this country acquired Porto Rico and the Philippines outside the constitution, and if the treaty was ratified outside the constitution. These questions are calculated to cast a gloom over the Republican brethen.—Atlanta Constitution, Dem.

 The legislative muddle over Puerto Rico into which the Republican brethren have fallen will not be resolved by an evasive compromise enactment, designed manifestly to carry the party over the November election period. It is a serious matter to trample on the Federal Constitution with the heavy heel of Federal legislative authority. The American people will not stand it.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

-Senator Beveridge sent out his speech on the Porto Rican tariff prior to the date upon which it was to be delivered, and when the time came did not make the speech. He subsequently made another, in which there were important changes from the original speech sent out. The Democrats in Indiana have the original speech, however, and propose to use it in the campaign to show what were the senator's real sentiments and how he was obliged to abridge them at the dictation of the administration. - Augusta Chronicle,

- I am not aware that new "isms" have increased of late. As to overcoming error, I have no new method. I can only recommend the old one of "speaking the truth in love," making sure it is love equally of the truth you speak and the man you speak it to.—

TERRIBLE FLOOD

A Dam in Colorado River Gave Way and the Water Swept

Plant Destroyed-Over a Hundred Houses Carried Away-Railroads Suffered Severely.

Austin, Texas, April 7 .- This city s to-night in pitch darkness, with a raging river, one mile wide and swollen far beyond its natural banks, roaring and surging through all the lower portions of the town, having spread destruction and death in its wake. In addition to the vast loss to property interests it is calculated that between thirty and forty lives have been sacrificed, and the reports com ing in from the tributary country tonight do not tend to improve matters. The flood is not unlike the disastrous Johnstown flood some years ago, in that a raging river, already swollen far beyond its capacity, bore too heavily upon an immense dam spanning the river here, breaking it and letting loose a reservoir of water thirty miles long, half a mile wide and sixty

The great dam in the Colorado river gave way at noon to day from the enormous pressure of water and debris and with a roar and crash swept the valleys below the city, wrecking the drowning eight workmen.

After daylight this morning, it became evident that the situation was serious. The river began to rise so rapidly that it was evident that the immense dam and all the power houses and contents, costing one and one half million dollars, were in imminent danger. To add to the terror of the situation, small frame houses, trees and debris of every description, in varying quantities, began descending the river and piling up against the upper face of the dam. This weight was augmented every moment until by 10 o'clock there was a mass of debris fodged against the dam which threatened the safety of the structure. The crisis came shortly after 11 o'clock when suddenly with a report like the roar of the ocean a great wedge, 25 feet high, five hundred feet wide and about eight feet thick, rolled out of the center section of the dam, down the face of sixty-foot depth into the river below. This left a yawning gap in the very middle of the dam through which the debris and water fiercely poured while the flood already raging was threatening everything in its path, this sudden breaking of the dam but serving to add to the horror of the catastrophe.

nower house, catching eight employes at work there, drowning all of them instantly. The breaking of the dam caused wild excitement in the city. The telegraph companies at once wired to places below here to look out for the great wave, and runners were dispatched on horses to notify those living in the valleys below the city. The telegraphic messages served as a timely warning to many, but the rush ing waters outstripped the horsemen, and many houses were picked up and

Within a short time all the valleys to the south and west of Austin were filled to overflowing with water and the southern part of the city tributary to the river was inundated. Large crowds collected on the river banks and several persons were swept into

were saved by boatmen. ing about thirty, living just below the dam in tents, were seen at their habi tations just before the dam broke and have not been accounted for since. It is generally believed that all of them were swept away. One man attempting to cross the roadway leading to the bridge across the river just as the big wave rolled down, was caught and he and his horse and buggy went down with the torrent and were heard of no more. A family of six negroes living in the valley south of the city are known to have been drowned. It is estimated destroyed and the loss of property will be great, in point of the light and power plant, costing one and a half million dollars. The breaking of the dam engulfed the old water company's plant below the city and it is to night lying fifteen feet under water, while the city is in darkness and without of dollars worth of loss to property the day has been dotted by small houses or fragments of houses and houses or fragments of houses and drowned animals, along with trees and debris, all of which bear testimony to the ravages of the flood in the mounrailroad and the Austin and Northwestern railroad, both entering this city, have suffered severely, the first named having a serious wreck by reason of the floods this morning.

from St. Louis, on the International and Great Northern due at 4 A. M., was wrecked at McNeil, nine miles above here, as a result of a washout. The engine and cars plunged into a culvert, demolishing the engine, the mail, baggage car, two day coaches and one sleeper. The cars left the track and rolled over on their sides in four feet of water, but fortunately no lives were lost nor were any of the passengers badly hurt. This is attributable to the fact that there were not many on the train and it was running slowly at the time owing to the bad track. The mail clerk, Oral Davis, of San Antonio, was seriously bruised and engineer P. F. Maynham, of San Antonio and fireman C. M. Stanley were slightly injured. The Austin and Northwestern road operated no trains to-day, due to the fact that five of their tridges were washed away during the night.

WACO, April 7.—Reports of loss of life and damage caused by flood continue to pour in from all directions and indications point to a repetition of the disasters of last year. The loss of life to a great extent has already surpassed that of previous years. All streams, including the Brazos and Colorado rivers, are overflowing the lowlands and rising very rapidly. The crops of cotton and corn are nearly completely submerged and will have to be replanted.

BOERS THREATEN TO ATTACK BRABANT'S FORCE

AT AUSTIN, TEX. No Advices Received in London from Lord Roberts-The Situation Regarded as Unsatisfactory.

By Cable to the Morning Star. LONDON, April 7, Midnight -No news was issued by the War Office tonight None was received from the front, except a dispatch from Bloemfontein, dated April 4th, relating to Great Damage to Property--Electric Light | the engagement of General Gatacre at Reddersburg, which seems to have been held back by the censor.

It will be remembered that Lord Roberts, in reporting the "unfortunate occurrence" at Reddersburg, said Gen. Gatacre had arrived there on the morning of April 4th. Hence he may have succeeded in engaging the Boers later in the day. It is strange, however, that General Gatacre's subsequent movements have not been mentioned in Lord Roberts' other dispatches, the ast of which was dated the evening of April 6th. It is reported from Ladysmith that the Boers are beginning to construe General Bullers' inactivity as a sign of fear or inability to resume active oper ations. Hence they are showing much activity, particularly around Biggars terg, and are said to be planning to outflank General Buller by an advance in force by way of Helpmakaar. As the plan is known, it is not likely that the Boers will find Buller un prepared.

The Boers state that the Colesberg and Stormberg commandos, number ing six thousand men and ten guns, have reached Kroonstad. Boers Threaten Brabant.

LONDON, April 7, 2.35 P. M .- The Boers are in force at Wepener, north of Smithfield, Orange Free State, and are threatening General Brabant's colonial division, the main body of which, with the artillery, is at We-

A telegram which left Maseru, Basutoland, north of Wepener, at midnight describes the Boers as being 'In great force" and as afraid to make frontal attack, but, it is added, they were endeavoring to turn the British position by crossing the Basuto from tier by a road skirting Caledon.

CHINA AND THE POWERS.

Joint Note Demanding Suppression the "Boxe's" With Threat fo Land Troops.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, April 7 .- A special dis patch from Shanghai announces that the American, British, German and French Ministers have sent a joint note to the Chinese, foreign office, denanding the total suppression of the society of "Boxers," within two months, and announcing that otherwise the powers named will land troops and march into the interior of the northern provinces, Shan Tung and Chi Li, in order to secure safety of foreigners.

According to the same dispatch the American, Italian and French legations are now provided with naval guards from the large gatherings of Warships at Taku.

Liu Kun Yih, Viceroy of Liang Kiang, had three laudiences with the Dowager Empress relative to the Emperor, and it is believed that he has mpressed her with the advisability of restoring his E ajesty to power. TIEN TSIN, April 7.—The United States gunboat Wheeling and the Rus sian gunboat Korietz arrived at Taku to day. WASHINGTON, April 7.-It is said at the State Department that nothing has been heard from United States Minister Conger within the last few days to indicate any substantial change in the situation in Shan Tung. The minister has not informed the department of the reported concerted action of the repre sentatives of the foreign powers at Pekin. Mr. Congers' instructions enable him to make as strong a presentation as he may deem necessary, and even to intimate the intention of the United States government to undertake through its own agencies to supply the needed protection to our citizens, should the Chinese government fail in its duty in that matter. The United States minister was spe cifically instructed that he must act on his own responsibility, and while his course might lie parallel to that followed by the other ministers resident in Pekin, he must under no circumstances join with them in a concert. The minister appears to have anticipated the necessity for something of the kind, for a month ago he suggested to the State Department the expediency of having a warship from Admira Watson's fleet sent to a point as near Pekin as possible. The Wheeling was accordingly dispatched from Manila to Taku, which lies at the mouth tof the Pieho river. The Wheel from her light draft may easily ascend the river as far as Tien Tsin, one of the storm centers at this moment, and a point giving easy access by rail to Pekin.

General Manager Gannon of the Souther Says There is No Likelihood of a Strike on That System.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, April 7 .- Third Vice President and General Manager Frank S Gannon, of the Southern Railway, to day denied that there was any likelihood of a strike of the telegraphers on that system and also that the en gineers, conductors and railway train-men are dissatisfied. Mr. Gannon ascribed the agitation to officers of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, whose headquarters are in Ilunois. men," said Mr. Gannon, "have been steadily at work trying to create dissatisfaction for five years, resorting to misrepresentation and every means that seems to suggest themselves, whether fair or unfair, to stir up

He said that the newspaper reports published some months ago that the employes of his system were dissatisfied were instigated by the organizers who seem to think they might be able to force

Mr. Gannon further stated that he met President Powell, of the Railway Telegraphers, last February, and had a clear and distinct understanding with him.

"There are no strained relations anywhere in our service," said Mr. Cannon in conclusion. "Our men realize that we are doing and always have done everything we could do for their interests. SENATOR VEST'S ELOQUENT SPEECH

Eulogized the Jesuits for Work Among the Indians and Denounced the A. P. A.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tributes Paid to the Memory of "Silver Dick" Bland-Resolution of Sympathy With the Boers Objected to by the Republican Leader.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, April 7.- The notable feature of the Senate to day was an eloquent speech by Senator Vest. of Missouri, supporting an amend ment to the Indian bill, for the education of Indian children in contract or sectarian schools. Prefacing his remarks by the statement that he had always been a Protestant and had no sympathy with many of the dogmas of the Roman Catholic Church, he pronounced a brilliant eulogy upon the Jesuits for their work among the Indians.

In the course of his remarks Sen-ator Vest paid a tribute to Booker Washington for his great work among the colored people of the South. He took off his hat, metaphorically, he said, to Mr. Washing ton. Prof. Washington had struck the key-note of the great negro prob lem by teaching the colored youth how to labor. This, he added, was the true secret of the success of the Catholics in their work among the Indians. They taught them how to

The great undertaking had gone forward until, said Senator Vest, "the A. P. A. and the cowards who are afraid of it," had struck down the appropriation for the continuance of the work. He declared that he was ashamed that any American should uphold such work of a secret political society. He would denonnee it if it were the last act of his life. He ridiculed the A. P. A. for adopting a resolution demanding his impeach

"I do not believe," said Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, addressing the Senate in a brief reply to Senator Vest, "that it is right to tax one man to support another man's religion. Upon that propostion, Senator Lodge maintained it was not right to appro priate the government money to support any branch of the church. The vote was ayes 14, noes 21, no quorum, and the Senate adjourned at 4.50 P. M. with the amendment still

House of Representatives. The House to-day paid tribute to memory of the late Richard Parks Bland, of Missouri, popularly known as "Silver Dick Bland," who was a member of the House for twenty six years. Splendid eulogies of the life and career of the great champion of ilver were offered by members of both sides of the political aisle. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the House as a further mark of respect adjourned. A resolution was adopted calling upon the secretary of war for information as to whether Charles E. Magoon the legal adviser of the insular bureau had ever rendered an opinion that by the treaty with Spain, the constitution was extended over Porto Rico and the Philippines. Mr. Richardson, the Democratic floor leader, asked unanimous consent for the consideration of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this House views with deep interest the heroic struggle of the Republics of South Africa to maintain their independence, and hereby tenders them our most profound sympathy in their unequal but gallant struggle. "That resolution should go to the Committee on Foreign Affairs" observed Mr. Payne, New York, the floor leader of the majority. "Did I understand the gentleman to obj-ct?" asked Mr. Richardson.

"I did," replied Mr. Payne. At 1 o'clock public business was suspended and the remainder of the day was occupied in eulogies on the life, character and public services of the late Representative Bland. Feel ing tributes were paid to the sturdy old champion of silver. Mr. Clark, Missou ri, said in part: "Mr. Speaker, Richard Parks Bland was a unique figure in American politics. The nistory of the republic cannot be adequately or intelligently written without assigning a high place and large space to this unpretentious Missouri farmer. Wherever money circulates or civilization abounds, his name is familiar to the ears of men, and is spoken reverently to day by millions who never looked upon his rugged face and to whose language he was an utter stranger. He belonged to that very small group of American statesmen who achieved imperishable renown without reaching the Presidency. You can count them on the fingers of your two hands without counting twice; but whoever else may be excluded from that goodly company by the inexorable test of time Bland will stand there immortal."

The Agricultural Appropriation bill reported to the House to day carries $4,116,400, being $380,788 more than the law for the current year. An additional allowance of $40,000 for seed distribution is granted upon the petition of 225 members of the House, and $60,000 is appropriated for iron warning towers for the Weather Bureau, in place of the present wooden structures.

DEWEY'S VISIT TO CHICAGO.

A Great Naval, Military and Civic Demonstration in His Honor. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the General Executive Committee on entertainment of Admiral Dewey was held tc-day with Mayor Harrison in the chair. It was the unanimous sense of the meeting that the demonstration would be the greatest naval military and civic represtation ever made in the West. A committee consisting of Chair man W. B. Conkey, of the trans-portation committee and J. M. Glenn, secretary of the general executive committee, left Chicago this afternoon for Washington and was in structed by the meeting to present to Admiral Dewey at a meeting Monday morning the compliments of the city and lay before the Admiral the details of the programme arranged during his visit to Chicago. All plans pending and outlined for the celebration will be followed according to the original plans. It was the sentiment of the meeting to make the celebration of the victory at Manila bay an annual event in Chicago and to help spread the custom everowhere througout the entire country.

Near bulf, N. C .- Several Passengers Injured-Two Very Severely. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, '-N. C., April 6 .- A special to the Observer from Greens boro, N. C., says:

A trestle on the Durham and Charlotte road, near Gulf, fell in this afternoon, wrecking an accommodation freight and passenger train. Several passengers were injured. Miss Knight, of Sanford, was seriously injured and may die. Howard B. Ster rett, who travels for a Lynchburg shoe house, one of the injured passengers, was brought to Greensboro this evening. He is delirious and in a precarious condition.

Is It Satisfactory?

That's the question that goes with every purchase here. It it's not satis'sctory, bring it back today--to-morrow—next week—and get your money. It is this absolute assurance of fair dealing that retairs our trade. Our customers know that 'money back' is not a cry set up to deceive the unwary into buying, followed by all sorts of undue excuses and quibblings to avoid returning money on displeasing purchases. One of our maxims reads: "For you to remain dissatisfied is to make us more dissatisfied." It isn't to-day's trade we're depending on—it's to-morrow's—next week's—next month's—next year's! We want you to be so well pleased with your treatment here and with what you buy here, that you'll come again and again. And we will remark right now that our efforts to please have been so uniformly successful that calls for 'money back' are rarely made. But it's here just the same, for any and all demands that may be made for purchases returned as undestrable.
