London, May 31, 3 A. M.-Yesterday at noon the British were only about two hours' march from Pretoria, and the Boer military forces had abandoned the city. This intelligence comes from the Reuter agent at the Transvaal capital and from the Earl of Rosslyn, in a press dispatch. The two messages

Although the Boer forces are dissolving, Lord Roberts, apparently, has not yet taken any, considerable quantity of artillery, arms or stores. Large bodies of Boers must still be somewhere in the field.

Waterval Boven, or Waterfall Boven, is a small mountain place, one hundred and thirty miles due east of Pretoria, on the Delagoa Bay railway. The seat of the Boer governmentwhat is left of it-will probably be Lyddenburg, to the north A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques, dated Wednesday says: "Commandant Kraus has surren dered Johannesburg to Lord Roberts. By to-night's train from Pretoria arrived a few Greeks, who say they were told to leave Pretoria Tuesday. They affirm that the train in which they left was shelled by the British and that half of the train was cut off. the remainder steaming away. This incident probably occurred at Elandsfontein junction.

'Passengers from Pretoria assert that the town is utterly demoralized. There is a mad rush for the coast. Five train loads of fugitives are expected here to-night."

The Lorenzo Marques correspondeats think the border troubles between the Transvaal and Portugal may come to a head at any moment. Komatti bridge is strongly defended. Yesterday the Portuguese authorities were preparing to resist a possible engagement. A mule battery was sent to the frontier. The Lorenzo Marques' correspond-

It is reported that a special train from Pretoria, with fugitives, was derailed on the Transvaal side of Komatti Poort, a number of passengers being killed or injured. The British authorities at Buluwayo think the Boers will retire into South-

By the release of the British prisoners at Waterval a full brigade will be added to the army of Lord Roberts, as there were one hundred and seventyseven officers and four thousand one and eighty-two privates among them. #### British Driven Back, PRETOBIA, May 29.—An official war bulletin, just issued, is as follows: "On Sunday a fight occurred close to Van Wyck's rust, in Gatsrand. The Federals fought well and the British troops seemed tired out. At dark the Federals were forced to retire in the direction of Van Wyck's rust, on account of the overwhelming force of the British.

"The British attacked Witwaters Rand yesterday and were in contact with the Federals at Gatsrand, but they were beaten back with good results by the Federals under Commandant Louis Botha. The Federals were heavily bombarded all day long but kept their positions. The British loss is reported to be considerable. "The British are near Utrecht and

No Resistance at Pretoria.

LONDON, May 31, 2 A. M.—The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from the Earl of Rosslin, who was a prisoner at Pretoria, but who, as a civilian, appears to have been released: "Pretoria, May 30th, 11:40 A. M .-Pretoria will be occupied in about two hours, without resistance. The President has gone to Watervalboven. Burgomaster de Sousea is authorized to receive the British. He, with an in-fluential committee of citizens, including Chief Justice Gregowski, has been appointed to preserve life and property during the interregnum.

"Everything is quiet, but crowds are waiting expectantly in Church Square for the arrival of the British. 'Fearing a possible disturbance and bloodshed among the prisoners of war at Waterval, United States Consul Hay and Leigh Wood insisted upon twenty officers being liberated on parole to go to the men. Their action cannot be too highly praised.
"I was permitted to accompany the officers. Everything was quiet."

London, May 30.—Any prolonged defence of Pretoria is considered highly improbable and many military men anticipate that General French will capture the Transvaal capital within a day or two by a sudden and unexpected move.

FEDERAL DECORATION DAY.

Observances in Washington City-At the Cemeterles-Memorial Services and Orations-Strewing Plowers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, May 30.-Business was suspended in the National capital to day while the thousands of citizens, veterans of three wars and their descendants paid tribute to the nation's heroic dead. Washington is encircled by cemeteries, each the resting place of departed soldiers—Glenwood, Oak Hill, Holy Rood, St. Elizabeths, Brightwood, Soldiers Home, the Congressional Cemetery with its acres of soldiers' graves and Arlington where diers' graves, and Arlington, where thousands upon thousands have their resting places marked with mperishable granite and where still other thousands are grouped about the single imposing monument with its sad inption: "To the unknown dead." In each of these cemeteries to day memorial services were held and orations delivered by some of the most able orators whose duties call them each session to the national capital. As usual, the chief ceremonies were at Arlington. The veterans of the Civil War and the rapidly decreasing contingent of the Mexican War were joined this year by the veterans of the war with Spain. The veterans and members of the district militia participated in the procession, which marched through the heart of Washington, led by the Marine Band.

The Elks' Novel Idea.

Washington Lodge of Elks inaugurated a novel idea in decorating the graves of its deceased members. There are sixty-five of these "absent brothers" who have passed away since the or-ganization of the local lodge and as a number of them found resting places in various parts of the country, large wreaths of ivy and amaranth, suitably inscribed, were sent from this city to be placed upon their graves. Every local cemetery also was visited and each Elk's grave appropriately decorated.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—Decoration day was observed in this city with the customary ceremonies by the various Grand Army posts and by the strewing of flowers on the graves of the soldier dead. In every cemetery in the city survivors of the civil war held memorial services, assisted in many instances by public school children. Not alone were the Union dead of the civil war remembered but the graves of a large number of Confederate dead in the national cemetery at Germantown, a suburb, were covered with flowers. The dead of the Revolutionary war, the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and those who died in battle during the Spanish war or in the camps, were also remembered.

Formal Proclamation and Imposing Ceremonies at Bloemfontein by the Brit-

BLOEMFONTEIN, May 29.-Amid salutes and cheers and the singing of "God Save the Queen" the military governor, Major General George Prettyman, at noon formally proclaimed the annexation of the Free State under the designation of the Orange River colony. The ceremony was somewhat imposing and the scene in the market square inspiring. An immense con-course had gathered and the town was gay with bunting. The balconies and windows surrounding the square were crowded with ladies. The troops were drawn up under command of General Knox and entertained the spectators. The Governor, accompanied by General Kelly-Kenny and their staffs, escorted by the Welsh yeomanry, was greeted with a general's salute, after which, amid an impressive silence and in a clear voice heard in every part of the square, General Prettyman read Lord Roberts' proclamation annexing the Orange Free State as conquered by her Majesty's forces to the Queen's dominions, and proclaiming that the State shall henceorth be known as the Orange River Colony. Lusty cheers greeted the concluding words of the proclamation and these were renewed with ever increasing volume as Lord Acheson unfurled the oyal standard and the bands struck up 'God Save the Queen;" all present oining in singing the national hymn. The ceremony concluded with cheers for the Queen, Lord Roberts and the at half a million taels. The neighboring villagers seem to have joined in the attack, showing that the movement is not confined to the Boxers." Eight rioters who were captured will be decapitated.

Riding through the South gate of Pekin the correspondent found the road inside the walls lined with troops who greeted the traveller and his party with a fusilade of stones. The whole public is much excited.

RICHMOND, VA., May 30 .- In the trial to-day at Lawrenceville of Rev. J. E. R. Riddick, for the murder of Dr. William Temple, there was some sensational testimony. The Common-wealth brought out that after a conversation Riddick had with his wife he expressed doubt whether he was justified in killing Temple. The defence put the aged father of the prisoner, a Methodist minister himself, on the stand, and drew from him that inthe family, running back to witness grandfather. ### THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS INTERCOLLEGIATE CONTESTS.

Reunion at Louisville-North Carolina Pennsylvania the Winner-Two of the Division Selected to Lead the Grand Parade on Friday.

By Telegraph to the Merning Star. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 30.-Surrounded by waving banners bearing the flery cross of the Confederacy, listening to the cheers from the throats of three thousand men who wore the gray, and confronted by the waving handkerchiefs of hundreds of ladies, General John B. Gordon, commander of the United Confederate Veterans, to-day formally opened the tenth an-nual reunion of the order, which in point of attendance is already the largest ever held. All things conspired to make the occasion a success, with the exception of the weather, which was almost as disagreeable as it well could be. All through the early hours of the morning the rain came down in sheets. For an hour previous to the time set for the opening of the meeting the veterans and their friends made their way in a steady stream to the hall and by 11:30 it was well filled. The band struck up "Dixie," and then came the old rebel yell with a fire and vigor never surpassed during the days of the war.

On the platform besides General Poyntz, were General B. Buckner, Rev. William J. Jones, Hon. J. H. Reagan, the only surviving member of the cabinet of Jefferson Davis, General W. T Cabell, General J. H. West, Colonel Thomas W. Bullitt, Colonel B. H. Young, Rev. Carter H. Jones, Dr. B. M. Palmer and others. The Mayor, whose speech was received with much applause, was fol lowed by Colonel Thomas F. Bullitt, who welcomed the visitors to Louisville in behalf of the Board of Trade of that city. Rev. Carter Jones extended the welcome in behalf of the Commercial Club of the city.

While he was in the midst of his address the A. P. Hill camp of Petersburg, Va., came into the hall, headed by a fife and drum corps which created such a noise that it was impossible for Mr. Jones to continue.

Other speeches were made by Col. A. Cox, Chief Justice Hazelrigg, Gen. Buckner, and Col. Bennett H. Young. At the conclusion of his address, Col. Young turned to Gen. Gordon and handed him the keys of the building which had been erected for the re

The United Sons of Confederate Veterans, which annually holds its reunion in connection with the Confederate Veterans, expects to have the largest attendance in the history of the order. Biscoe Hindman, of Louisville, and Robert E. Lee, of Virginia, a grandson of General Lee, are candidates for commander in-chief. The Sons of Veterans will hold their first meeting at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning at the court house, transact ing only preliminary business.

The North Carolina troops will head the big parade, having been selected for this honor by General John B. Castleman, on the recommendation of Lieutenant General Stephen D. Lee. A detachment of Cherokee Indian scouts that belonged to the command of the late General Vance during the war will be seen with the North Carolina division in the parade.
