OPTIMISM.

You may reap your harvest of wheat You may gather your cockle and You may husband a harvest of joys and cares Laboring late and early; The grain of gold And the poppy bold

And the corn flower blue for adorning;
But the fullest ears of the seven fat

Will be gleaned by the gleaner next You may draw your nets, you may draw your line, Find silvery fish in plenty;

You may angle for honor, hook titles And of places and posts fill twenty: The fish of weight

Swallow up your bait, Your lures and your wiles not scorn-But the lustiest trout, there's no manner of doubt.

Will be caught by the fisher next You may think out thoughts that are witty and wise,

You may think some deep, some You may store your brain with truth or with lies, You may let your brain lie fallow, Thought is good,

Be it understood: But this fact on your mind must be borne in, That the latest thought that mankind can be taught Will be thought by some thinker next morning. You may cling to this world of time You may think of another rarely; You may sigh, ah, wither? And ask, ah, whence?

And find life puzzling, fairly, Yet life is sweet, We still repeat, On this dear old earth we were born in.

Good, bettered to best, best changed into blest, When we wake to God's cloudless next morning

BRITISH CROSSED THE VAAL RIVER.

The First News Received from Lord Roberts After His Long Silence.

PUSHING ON TO PRETORIA

Expected That He Will Reach the Boers' Position South of Johannesburg by the Middle of This Week-A Great Battle Expected.

By Cable to the Morning Star. LONDON, May 26.-As anticipated, the first news from Lord Roberts after his long silence was the announcement that the British had crossed the Vaal river. This is probably General Hunter's column, which crossed at Parys, and may be expected to make a dash at the railroad in the neighbor-Lood of Pochefestroom, whence there is direct communication with Johan-

General Hamilton's column is at Boschbank, which is close to the river, about eight miles northwest of Wolve Hoek, Lord Roberts' headquarters, and may be expected to also cross the Vaal river and create a diversion on the flank of any Federal force in the neighborhood of Vereening. As he has only about fifteen miles to traverse a speedy announcement may be expected that the British Commander-in-chief himself has gained a foothold in the Transvaal and that he will reach the Federal position south of Johan-nesburg in the middle of the coming

The same secrecy which shrouded the movements of the main army envelops Lord Metheun's and General Rundle's columns; so, probably, the next official dispatches will show de-cisive movements of these wings. Rundle ought to be close to Bethlehem by now, and the experts expect to hear of some decisive movement on the Harrismith railroad, in which part of General Buller's force will co-operate in the direction of Van Reenan's pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announcing the re-occupation of Heilbron by the Federals turn out to be true, it will be a totally unexpected development, as General Ian Hamilton occupied Heilbron Tuesday, and nothing has been heard from there since.

Wolve Hoek."

"Lord Roberts is keeping a tight hand on all telegrams in order not to disclose his moves. After occupying Rhenoster he pushed his left wing at once toward Parys, where the Vaal river was crossed on Thursday. The whole army seems to have changed its direction to the left, General Hamilton's original right wing was to day at Boschbank, half way from Parys to the railway bridge at Viljoen's drift, which is being watched by Roberts' scouts; may compel General Roberts to pause on the Vaal and repair the railway, thus giving time to General Buller and General Hunter to invade the Transvaal. I fancy, however, that Lord Roberts will prefer the bolder course, and try and end this war right now.

At Mafeking. MAFEKING, May 18.—The entire garrison paraded this morning in a thanksgiving service. Colonel Baden-Powell addressed the men, saying: "We have been unable to fire a volley over the graves of our killed, being fearful of drawing the fire of the enemy's guns. To-day the garrison paid the last honors to the dead, as-sembling in the graveyard and bidding good-bye to their fallen comrades. After sounding the last post, the garrison attempted to sing the national anthem, but could hardly be heard, as the men choked with emotion. Col. Baden-Powell was deeply affected and addressed each unit separately. He told the town guard that those who wished would be permitted to return to civilian avocations. To the Rhodesian column, in a characteristic manner, he said:

E. Graham, Greenville. Many unimportant matters were considered by the assembly up to 10.30 A. M., when State Clerk Alexander announced that his docket was cleared and the business before the body was finished. A vote of thanks was extended to all those who have contributed to the success of the session and the hearty appreciation of the as-sembly was expressed in many ways to the workers on the committees and elsewhere. During the morning Mod-erator Martin appointed two important committees. One was to form a new Sunday school lesson series. It is composed of Rev. E. C. Murray, chair-men, Newbern, N. C.; Rev. O. L. Programme for the State Convention Agreed Upon by the Leaders,

REFUSE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

Delegates to the National Convention Will Not Be Instructed—A Possible Running Mate for Mr. Bryan. James J. Coogan.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, May 26 .- The Evening

Post says: Ex-Senator David B. Hill and ex-Senator Edward Murphy had a talk with Elliott Danforth, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Convention to day. Mr. Hill is satisfied with the results of his trip to New York. He has conferred with the leaders of Tammany Hall and of the King's County Democracy, and it was announced authoritatively before noon that the programme for the State convention had been agreed upon by all parties concerned. The features of the programme are First—The convention will endorse the candidacy of William J. Bryan and recognize him as "our national leader;" second, the Chicago platform will not be affirmed; third, the delegates to the National Convention will not be instructed.

One of Mr. Hill's lieutenants, who spoke for him, gave this explanation to a reporter: "We are all agreed that Mr. Bryan's re-nomination is a certainty, and that all we can do is to fall into line; but we cannot swallow the whole Chicago platform, and it is not necessary to do so. The Kansas City convention may modify that platform; so we can en-dorse Bryan and declare that we will support the platform of our party. As to the instructions of delegates. that is neither necessary nor in accord ance with precedent. It is customary to instruct delegates to a national convention only when New York has a candidate. It has no candidate this year; so an endorsement of Bryan is all that can be reasonably expected. We will go to Kansas City as Bryan men; but we do not care to be so com mitted that we cannot ask for a modi cation of the Chicago platform." Running Mate For Bryan.

James J. Coogan, president of the Borough of Manhattan and a leader n Tammany Hall, to-day contributed 100,000 to the Democratic National Committee, with the stipulation that the gift be rescinded if William J. Bryan is not renominated.

The committee will be allowed to make such use of this fund as it may see fit. The contribution gave rise to the story in political circles to-day that Mr. Coogan would be Colonel Bryan's running mate on the National ticket A delegation, composed of two na tional committeemen and three of the personal advisers of Colonel Bryan called on Mr. Coogan at the city hal this noon by appointment. The con-sultation lasted an hour, after which Mr. Coogan admitted he had made the contribution, but declined to say

PLAGUE AT MANILA.

Suspected Cases Among the Government Teamsters-Murders by Natives. By Cable to the Morning Star

Manila, May 26.—The government corral at Manila has been quarantined. There are four suspected cases of bubonic plague among the teamsters, who are living in filthy dwellings which will be burned. Since the murders on board the steamer El Cano by the native crew, coastwise captains have been fearful of repetitions of the tragedy and have requested the authorities to furnish soldier guards for their steamers, which has been declined. Three commercial steamers are now in the bay, their Spanish captains refusing to sail unprotected, and others intend imitating them. The authorities have returned to the captains their revolvers, of which they were recently deprived. Colonel Padilla, the rebel governor at Neuva Ecicaja, was captured during the recent fighting at Neuva Ecicaja and is now in jail here.

GEORGIA COTTON GROWERS

Plans of the Protective Association to Secure Organization of the Entire Cotton Belt.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. MACON, GA., May 26 - A large number of delegates composing the executive and business committees appoint. ed at the State Convention of the Georgia Cotton Growers Protective Association, held at Macon, May 12th, met to-day in conference at the Chamber of Commere rooms in this city The plan of organization and methed of carrying on the work, together with constitution and by-laws for the government of the association submitted by President C. Harvie Jordan were adopted. The president was authorized to proceed, by correspondence with officials in other States, to secure the organization of the entire cotton belt by the middle of August. Other States will be asked to unite with Georgia in the movement and establish a central bureau in this State, which will exercise a general superintendence over all the different State hureaus. A committee of five members of the executive committee, with President Jordan as chairman, was appointed to confer with the State Bankers' Association, which meets at Lithia Springs, June 13th, to secure the formulation of a plan of the State banks for meeting the demands of the producers next season in regard to loans on cotton in storage.

The movement of the cotton growers to perfect a plan by which the cotton crop of the South can be marketed during a longer period of time, thereby forcing a better price for the raw material before the staple leaves the farmers' hands, is creating great enthusiasm throughout the cotton belt. The plans adopted to day are considered feasible, practical and capable of accomplishment by the bankers and business men generally. Other States in the cotton belt have been already heard from, giving assurances of hearty co operation in the movement and preparations are now being made for calling conventions and perfecting a system of organization similar to the one in Georgia.
