Gen Roberts Says the Line of Railroad is Again in British Possession.

BOER FORCES WITHDRAWN.

There Was Hard Fighting Boers Held Position and Successfully Resisted the Attack of the British Under General Methuen.

By Cable to the Morning Star. LONDON, June 13, 6.05 P.-M .- The linwing dispatch has been received at the War Office from Lord Roberts: "Katsbosch, June 12:- In yester day's engagement Methuen had one killed and eighteen wounded. Among the latter is Lieutenant Cearle, of the Twelfth battalion of yeomanry. "On June 7th the Derbyshire militia lost 36 killed and 104 wounded, all of whom were in the Yeomanry hospital; which was captured by the Boers and retaken by Methuen."

Roberts Attacked Botha. LONDON, June 13 .- After a week's silence Lord Roberts has been heard from, his line of communications having been practically restored by means of a complete victory gained by Generals Methuen and Kitchener over General Dewet at the Rhenoster river vesterday, June 12th. The Boer camp was captured and the burghers, it is added, were scattered in all directions. Lord Roberts, on being notified of the cutting of his line of communications, sent General Kitchener in all haste to join General Methuen. June 11th Lord Roberts attacked General Botha, who was in strong force, fifteen miles southeast of Pretoria.

After strenuous opposition the British forces gained considerable ground. but General Botha, when Lord Roberts left the field, was still undefeated. All Quiet at Pretoria.

All is quiet at Pretoria and Johannesburg; and Lord Roberts savs the government need have no apprehension about the security of the army in South Africa, as it will not take long to remedy the reverses and repair-the A lengthy dispatch forwarded to the War Office by Major General Knox, from Kroonstad, presumably sent there by messenger, reads as follows: "Kroonstad, June 12.-We have been requested to forward you from L rd Roberts the following dispatch from the Pretoria residency at 8.08

Pretoria and Johannesburg are perfectly quiet and several of the inhabitants have expressed gratitude for the peace and order which prevail. 'After surrendering the city Botha retired to a place about fifteen miles east on the Middleburg road. He had a small force at first, but during the last few days his numbers increased and his being so near the town kept up the excitement in the country, prevented the burghers from laying down their arms and interfered with the collection of supplies. It. therefore became necessary to attack him. This I did yesterday. He held awery strong position, practically un-assailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable

" 'I sent French with Portor's and Dixon's cavalry brigades and Hutton's mounted infantry, round by our left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and Gordon's cavalry brigade, Ridley's mounted infantry and Bruce Hamilton's infantry brigade, round by our right Both columns met with great opposition. At about three in the afternoon I saw two of Hamilton's infantry battalions advancing upon what appeared to be the key of the enemy's defence on their flank. This was almost gained before dark and I ordered the force to bivouac on the ground they had won

" 'Pole-Carew with his division occupied our centre. As I have explained he could not attack, but he gradually advanced so as to support Ian Hamil ton and when I left the field he was on the line held by the 'enemy's outposts in the morning.

"I hurried back to get news of Methuen's movements. On hearing that the Free Staters had taken advantage of our crossing the Vaal to intercept our line of communication. I sent Kitchener with troops as I could then spare to Vredefort, with orders to push south and communicate with Methuen, who I knew had a very compact force in the vicinity of Heilbron. I also dispatched a special messenger to Methuen, instructing him to push on at all speed to the main line of railway. These two officers met at Vredefort road station in the evening of June 10th. They marched yesterday to Rhenoster river, where Methuen gained a com-plete victory over DeWet and took possession of his camp and scattered his troops in all directions. He and Kitchener marched to day towards Kroonstad

"'Her Majesty's government need have no apprehension as to the security of the army in South Africa. The enemy gained a slight success, which was unfortunate, but which will be remedied very shortly, and it will not take long to repair the damage done to the railway. Methuen will arrange to guard it onward as he advances. "Hunter should be at Potchefstoom to day. He will then move on Johannesburg.

"'We have communicated with Bulfer, who will, no doubt, soon make the presence of his force felt. Our losses yesterday were not, I trust, serious, but I deplore the death of that venerable soldier, the Earl of Airl. " 'The only other casualties are: Seventeenth Lancers, major, the

A dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated Tuesday, June 12, says: "I learned that the Chinese have guns trained on the American mission and the British legation. Two thous and Russian cavalry and infantry, Shanghai for Che Foo. The United States consul at Che Foo informed the State Department yesterday of Boxer disturbances at that place, but no particulars were furnished. Che Foo is on the northern coast of the Shan Tung peninsula. It appears that the movement of the Yorktown from Shanghai to Che Foo was not directed from Washington, and it is assumed that the order was issued by Admiral Kempff, the senior officer of the United States squadron in Chinese waters. At Che Foo the Yorktown would be within a day's sail of the admiral's flagship at Taku. She should arrive at Che Foo Friday or Saturday of this week.

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

Consultation With Party Leaders-The Platform and the Vice Presidency the Chief Topics.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CHICAGO, June 13.-William Jennings Bryan was in Chicago to day and the center of much political discussion, all of it bearing on what may be done at the Democratic National Convention next month. Mr. Bryan saw scores of reople during the day. He talked "business" with Senator Jones, chairman of the national committee; J. G. Johnson, head of the executive committee; Charles A. Walsh, secretary of the national committee; D. J. Campan, national com-mitteeman of Michigan.

The platform to be adopted at Kan sas City and the vice presidential question, especially the Towne Populist nomination angle of it, were considered at some length.
On the question of platform the trend of discussion forecasted to some extent the differences of opinion which may arise at Kansas City, even among loyal Bryan men. The question is whether the money plank and other troublesome legacies from 1896 shall be handled by re-ffirmation of the Chicago p a lump, or whether some planks of the 1896 platform, and especially the money plank, should be re-written. Mr. Bryan favors re-writing much of the 1896 platform this year.

Senator Jones, according to credita ble advices, advocates reaffirmation of the Chicago platform as a whole, and then a quick transition to the newer issues of imperialism and trusts. Three Big Ouestions.

"I say, as I have said so many times," Mr. Bryan said when asked what he thought the platform and ssues this year would or should be, 'that I think the three big questions sefore us are money, trusts and imperialism. The money question, of course, includes the question of silver and of paper money; the question of imperialism includes militarism and the policy of which our national administration's work in the Philip pines and attitude on the Boer ques tion are samples. "I believe the principles adopted in the platform of 1896 were adopted as a part of the party creed, never to be departed from. I do not think they should be or can be departed from this

That platform must, however, be dded, to as new issues arise. As I do not expect to be a delegate to the national convention I cannot presume to discuss the form in which these principles shall be stated in the platform to be adopted there.

"I cannot undertake to say what will be the paramount issue. No man can. One thinks one question is the big gest and another man thinks another is. 'What do I think should be done in the Philippines? I think this country should tell those people that we are there only for the purpose of establishing a stable government, and that when we have done so we should turn the islands over to the people there and protect them against foreign aggression, as we have protected the South American republics. "The conditions ahead and the plan of campaign? Why conditions are much more favorable than they were at this time in 1896. The Republican party is on the defensive. It will talk prosperity, of course, but we'll be will-ing to take the votes of all the people who have not had their share of prosperity, and leave them the votes of the people who have had their share. "I should say our plan of campaign will be to carry every State in the Union. Cannot carry all of them? would not speak so harshly of the people of any State as to say that I thought the people there intended to support the Republican party."

dispatches received in diplomatic quarters in Washington, show that the rioting at Pekin has reached an acute stage, with rioters directing a number of assaults against members of the different foreign legations there. One of these dispatches states that the secretary of the Belgian legation was attacked two successive times on Monday, and escaped after being maltreat-ed by the mob. On the same day two officials of the British legation, serving as student interpreters, were attacked by a large crowd of roughs. that has thus far occurred.

The Dowager Empress Withdraws Objection to the Presence of Poreign Troops in China.

FV Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- Definite official information was received here this afternoon from the foreign office of one of the most important continental powers, stating that the Tsung Li Yamen had notified the minister of that power at Pekin that the Dowager Empress would not object to the presence of foreign troops in China's territory. This change of front came as a distinct surprise to officials and diplomats, as all the reports up to this time had pictured the Dowager Empress as intensely hostile to the foreigners and as the real spirit the Boxers' anti-foreign behind uprising. The supposed attitude of the Empress gave much concern to the authorities here and at other capitals, as it was feared would eventuate in an open declaration by the government of China against the presence of the foreign troops. This would have raised a new complication, placing the foreign forces now advancing in the attitude of resisting the sovereign authority of China over her own territory, instead of assisting China in a suppression of disorder. The Empress Dowager's acquies cence in the plans of the Powers is felt to remove a threatened complication, and at the same time to give evidence that the Empress Dowager s no longer yielding to the antiforeign clamor. In official Russian quarters the rumors that the Empress Dowager has sought refuge at the Russian legation in Pekin are discredited and resented as a bit of inspired intrigue designed to create the impression that Russian sympathizers are with the anti-foreign element.
