FOR THE GLORY OF THE PARTY When war was declared against Spain and a call was made for troops and was so patriotically responded to by men of all parties and all sections, it was loudly proclaimed that it was not a party war, although directed by a Republican administration, but a war of the American people, but no sooner had our troops begun to win victories than the Republican politicians began to claim the glory for the Republican party. When peace was declared with Spain they gave all the glory to the Re publican administration, and this one of the strong claims they now make why Mr. McKinley should be re-elected. When it came to calling for men to shoulder rifles and fight battles it was a non-partisan war, but when it came to making disposition of the troops and appointing commanders it didn't take long for the politics to crop out. One of the fullest, tersest, and at the same time most truthful arraignments on this line that we have yet seen was made by a writer-who signs himself "a Republican" (who will vote for Bryan,) in a communication to the Brooklyn, N. Y., Citizen. There are in the indictment fifteen counts as follows:

1. Two Colonial satraps sent by President McKinley to govern Cuba have been caught at the crime of robbing the Cuban postoffices of $500,000. One of them was Mr. McKinley's good

2. That the war now waged against the Filipinos is not a war waged by the American people, or the American government, or even the Republican party, but a personal conflict between Mr. McKinley on one hand and the Filipinos on the other. He is waging it very much as he might carry on a tiger hunt for his personal pleasure and incidentally for profit, in a politi-

3. That the men who are howling most loudly about "following the flag" are following it 10,000 miles away from the scene of armed conflict They manage to keep 10,000 miles away from its folds when there is fir ing going on at the front. 4. That not one man who favors war on, or the subjugation of the Filipinos 5. That the wars against Spanish despotism and Filipino independence have been conducted in the interest of the Republican party so far as the management of them was concerned. For example, General Shafter, a Michigan Republican, was placed in command of the Cuban expedition. He was jumped over the head of his commander, Gen. N. A. Miles, a Major General. 6. Captain Sampson, a Republican and a protege of T. C. Platt, was placed in command of the American fleet over the head of Commodore Schley, a Democrat, who outranked him, and other ranking naval officers.

publican colonels were allowed to go to Cuba for the purpose of making a cheap military reputation without un dergoing any risk. Take, for example, the Seventy-first Regiment, commanded by Colonel F. V. Greene, one of the engineers of the local Republican machine in Manhattan; the Rough Riders, commanded by Colonel Tedd Roosevelt, the song and dance war artist, and the Fourth Ohio Regiment. commanded by one of Mr. McKinley's personal friends. That regiments composed mainly of Democrats (or com-Democrats) like the Fourteenth of Brooklyn, the Forty-seventh of Brooklyn, the Sixty-ninth of New York and of the Democratic Southern regiments were kept at home or in camps, so that none of the glory of victory might reflect on them.

s. That Frederick D. Grant, Colonel Francis V. Greene, General Merritt, Colonel Wood, "Colonel" Roosevelt, General Otis and every other military commander advanced to commands of prominence were Republicans, General Joe Wheeler, a McKinley Democrat, was the only exception, and when he went to the Philippines he was pushed aside so that he might not share in the limelight thrown by Mr. McKinley on General Otis.

9. That the Fourth Ohio Regiment was brought home from Porto Rico on the Saturday before Election day of 1898, paraded through the White House, where each member had the privilege of shaking hands with the American Emperor's hand; that that regiment was shipped home at once to Ohio to assist the Administration in defeating a Democratic Congressional nominee, the Hon. John Lentz. 10. That every Philippine commis sion appointed thus far has been made up of Republican politicians and Dem-ocrats known only for their treachery to the Democracy.

11. That official documents bearing on Mr. McKinley's war with the Filipinos have been withheld for "no reason of State" for months, and then sprung on the public toward the close of a political campaign for political ef-

12. That army commissions and places of military responsibility were given to the incompetent sons of Republican politicians, and that not only the health but the lives of thousands of American soldiers were thereby jeopardized.

13. That the treatment of many sol diers who took part in the Spanish war was such as to call forth the conlemnation of General Miles and nearly every regular army officer in the They, it will be remembered joined in the denunciation of the empalmed beef scandal.

14. That the man (General Eagan), who at the behest of the Republican Administration, bought the notorious food supply from a firm noted for its friendship to Mr. McKinley, was rewarded by a six years' leave of absence.

15. That the President's brother was the recognized account for the centres. the recognized agent for the contrac-tors who supplied the Government with embalmed beef, rotten transport

Personally McKinley is a very estimable and amiable gentleman, about as free from sectional prejudice as the average man, but as a politician, and when it comes to making appointments or showing favors, is sectional enough to give his section the preference. This preference and partiality were most marked in the conduct of the Spanish war, and have continued to be so marked ever since. The only two military men of prominence from the South who received any noticeable recognition from the administration were Generals Wheeler and Lee, and both of these were in time practically buried,

It was generally thought that when Cuba was invaded the command of the troops would be assigned to Gen. Lee who had been in Cuba and who so bravely upheld the dignity of this country and having been in Cuba while the war was progressing between the Spanish troops and the Cubans, was naturally supposed to be familiar with the conditions and to that extent better fitted for the command than one who had never been there and knew of the situation only by reading the daily news. But Alger wanted a chum in command and he called his Michigan friend Shafter, who was a dead weight from the beginning and about as fit for the position as drum major would be to take command of the allied armies in China. The victories that were won were won in spite of and not under the direction of Shafter. But Shafter

Gen. Wheeler achieved some distinction, not because he was put where it would come to him, but because he with his impetuous dash stepped over the regulation red tape, ignored the routine and took the shortest cut to the enemy and to victory. Wheeler simply forced them to recognize him, and showed himself so agreeable to Mr. McKinley afterwards that he could not well throw him off without making some recognition of his services. He couldn't resist Wheeler's importunities and sent him to the Philippines, assigned to Otis, who did his level best to bury him, which final ly disgusted him and provoked his resignation.

was Alger's friend and a Republi-

General Lee is still practically sequestered in that governorship, a subordinate position with little responsibility and less glory in it After all the grand flourish about these wars being non-sectional and non-partisan, these two representative men of the South were the only two who received any special recognition, and that didn't amount

Speaking of the result of the recent parliamentary elections in England, Lord Strathcona, High Commissioner of Canada, says "there is wave of imperialism sweeping irresistibly over Europe." In other words, a land-grab wave. He calls it 'imperialism" because he isn't afraid of the word. But the imperialists in this country are trying to fool people by calling it expansion. That wave which is sweeping over Europe has also struck them

Speaking of that lie about Bryan being paid to keep the silver plank in the Kansas City platform, Mark Hanna says he doesn't believe it, that while "Bryan is a demagogue, he is not dishonest." Perhaps Hanna thinks a demagogue can be honest. Bryan doesn't and neither does any other honest man.

Mark Twain says "England is the best friend we have in Europe, and we are the only friend that England as in the world," which will go long way to accounting for British friendship for us. She feels the need of our friendship and can therefore swap.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces,

BRYAN IN ILLINOIS.

The State of Illinois is one of the battle grounds in this campaign. The Democrats hope to carry it, the Republicans fear they may lose it. If there be any thing in popular demonstrations, in the crowds that greet and in the eagerness they show to hear Wm. J. Bryan the Democrats have good grounds for their hopes and the Republicans much cause to feel alarmed. Their main dependence is the money that Mark Hanna will have to put "where it will do the most good."

Proof that they are becoming desperate is given in the lies they are circulating about Bryan, some of which he stopped to notice in some of the speeches he delivered in Illinois Tuesday. One of these is the circulation of an editorial criticising pension methods, which appeared in an Omaha paper several years ago. Mr. Bryan was at one time principal editorial writer for that paper, and although that editorial appeared before he became connected with it, they are circulating it as if written by him. They know better for the men who are playing that fraud on the pensioners know when that article appeared and know that Mr. Bryan was not then connected with that paper.

Another lie is that about his receiving a big sum of money for having the silver plank inserted in the national platform, a lie started by a man who gave as his authority a young woman who makes a sworn statement that she never said what this man attributed to her nor anything like it.

Another is that Bryan gets pay for the speeches he delivers in this campaign, which is so utterly absurd that the surprising thing is that anyone pretending to ordinary common sense would be fool enough to start it. These are a sample of the lies sent out and the campaign has nearly a month to run yet.

A REMINDER TO MR. LAWTON.

Mr. A. R. Lawton, of Savannah, Ga., is one of the so-called "Mc-Kinley Democrats" who wants to vote for McKinley, and is seeking for a pretext or an excuse for so doing. He says in a letter written some time ago to the New York Sun been so solidly Democratic is on account of the negro problem, that if this were out of the way there would be lots of white Republicans in the South. In another letter of

Sept. 29th he said: "My first letter was written for the purpose of showing you, as an ardent Republican, what reasons restrain most Southerners from voting with you. They believe Mr. McKinley to be the representative of negro domination, and for them the alternative presented in this campaign is, indeed, an awful one. I think otherwise, and believe that by voting for McKinley in this election I am helping to speed the day when the negro question will be eliminated from Southern politics."

And he is simple enough to think, f he expresses his honest sentiments, that by voting for McKinley he will be helping to solve the negro question as far as appointing negroes to office goes. The News, of Savannah, of which city Mr. Lawton is a resident, reminds him how much mistaken he may be by quoting the following from a speech by Gen. Grosvenor, a close friend and a generally accepted mouthpiece of President McKinley, delivered at Evanston, some time ago, when he said.

"There lives not one man who so atterly condemns or despises discrimination against individuals by reason of color or race, as does William Mc Kinley. His life has been one strug de in favor of the promotion of equal rights of all."

Is there anything in this or has there been any intimation from any source that in the event of McKinley's election, he will not pursue the same course that he has pursued in appointing negroes to office in the South, even against the universal sentiment and protest of the white people in the communities in which these appointments were made? Voting for McKinley to get rid of negro officeholders is about the silliest and thinest of all the thin pretences yet made.

When Teddy Roosevelt said to his friend, Jordan Starr, "I wish to God we were off the Philippines and had them off our hands, and many other Republicans feel the same," he was not talking for publication, but he doubtless meant it. He didn't wish half as strongly as Hanna did when he said he wished the Philippines were "at the bottom of the sea." It wouldn't be surprising if he still continued to wish them so much wetness.

The Washington Post would like to know what the administration is doing about Mr. Neely, the Indiana hustler, who sequestrated so much of that Cuba postoffice money. It is doing nothing until after the election and will then do as little as possible. Mr. Neely is an orthodox, regulation Republican.

The "advisory committee" of the Republican party, which was chosen to help Hanna with advice, etc., principally etc., have "full dinner pails." There are thirty-three of them, whose aggregate wealth is over $100,000,000.

ABOUT ELECTION REGISTRATION.

Books Will Open Monday Week-No Entirely New Registration.

In answer to numerous inquiries which have come to State Democratic headquarters, it is stated for the benefit of election officers throughout the State that registration for the November election will commence on Monday, the 22d day of October, and that registration will close at sunset on Saturday night, the 27th day of October. On Saturday of closing the registration the registrar must attend at the polling place with his registration books so that persons may register there if they desire to do so. On other days he may register persons qualified to register at any place in his precinct.

The same pollholders and registrars who held the August election are required to hold the November election, and any vacancies are to be filled exactly as they were filled in that elec-

In all respects as to time and place of holding the election in November the same law prevails, the polls being opened at sunrise and closing at sun set, and the voting being done at the present voting precincts unless they are altered by the county board of

There is no new registration for the election this year only for those who have become qualified since or who failed to register during the period of registration for the State election.

MORE ABOUT KINSAULS.

Testimony of Neighbors Tend to Corroborate Theory That He Is Alive.

The Fayetteville Observer of Mon day has additional testimony relative to the supposed mysterious escape of Archie Kinsauls from death upon the gallows at Clinton two weeks ago. After publishing what the STAR had to say of his possible escape Sunday morning it adds:

"A man named Carter, who lives on the east side of the river and who knew nothing of the above report, returned from Clinton early last week, where he had been to attend the funeral of his mother, and stated to his neighbors that there was some mystery about the burial of Kinsauls. He states that, Kinsauls having been warm friend of his, he went to his home after the hanging and offered to sit up with the corpse. His offer was politely declined, and, when he asked to see the dead friend, this was also re-fused, though he says he saw several physicians and others going and coming from the room in which the body lay. He asked about the funeral but home fully convinced that there was a mystery somewhere in the case.

Judge Augustus M. Moore.

Judge Augustus M. Moore, of the Eastern District Criminal Court, returned Friday from Baltimore to his home at Greenville, N. C., and yesterday morning opened Craven County Criminal Court at Newbern. Judge Moore has been very unwell for nearly two months and his friends are glad to known that he is again able to resume his duties on the bench. He was ac compainied to Baltimore by his wife and is said to have 'returned from his trip much improved in health.

Officer Suspended. Officer W. B. Brown was suspended from the police force by Mayor Waddell yesterday morning for assault and battery on Mr. C. W. Williams at the corner of Front and Orange streets Tuesday. Mr. Brown thought Mr. Williams had done him an injury, but it turned out that there was a misunderstanding. Officer Brown was not on duty at the time, but having his uniform on made him guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer, as well as of disorderly conduct.

SENATORIAL RACE.

Reported in Raleigh That Ex-Gov. Jarvis Will Withdraw from the Contest.

COL. WADDELL'S CANDIDACY

State Convention of Daughters of the Confederacy--Address of Capt. Denson - Over $900 Raised for the Jeff Davis Monument.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, October 10 .- It is learned here to night, on good authority, that ex Governor Thos. J. Jarvis will, within a few days, publish a card withdrawing from the race for United States Senator. Governor Jarvis is now here attending the Supreme Court, and it is expected that the withdrawal will be published Sunday. It is learned from the same source that a strong effort will also be made to induce Col. Waddell to withdraw. If these two gentlemen withdraw from the race their action will insure a decision of the Senatorial question in the first primary.

The State Convention of Daughters of the Confederacy met here to day. The morning session was devoted to business matters and the reading of reports. At the afternoon session $952 was raised for the Jefferson Davis monument, and an address on the life and character of the President of the Confederacy was delivered by Captain C. B. Denson. To night a reception was given to the visitors by Johnstone Pettigrew Chapter, of Raleigh. At this reception an oil portrait of the late Major Thomas Sparrow, of Washington, was presented to this Chapter, by the Washington Grays Chapter. The speech of presentation was made by Miss Bridgman, of Washington, and responded to by Mr. R. N. Simms, of this city. To-morrow afternoon a reception will be given to the visitors at the Soldiers' Home, and to-morrow night the Capital Club will give them a reception. Since the meeting a year ago. the membership has increased 380, and the organization is in a prosperous con-

The unprecedented heavy receipts for the period mentioned and the sudden drop to a little more than 2,000 bales elicited some comment and buyers are speculating as to whether the crop is practically all gathered and sold or whether it manifests a determination on the growers' part to hold for higher prices.

Cotton commission merchants did nothing on the market vesterday and perations were confined to the export ers. The actual receipts were 2,249 bales, against 1,367 on the same day last year. The New York spot market yesterday showed a decided decline and a quiet tone.

MRS. EMMA McEACHERN

Departed This Life Early Yesterday Moruing After an Illness of Several Days. The Puneral To-day.

The STAR chronicles with the deepest regret the death of Mrs. Emma Mc-Eachern, relict of the late John S, Mc-Eachern, which occurred yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Mc-Eachern had been slowly sinking since last Friday afternoon when she sustained a severe stroke of paralysis. and while her death was not wholly unexpected, it came nevertheless as a great shock to her devoted family and wide circle of friends. She was a consistent and valued member of the First Baptist Church, and her many charitable and loveable traits of character had endeared her to every one whom she met. She was 65 years of age at the time of her death and her maiden name was Miss Emma Garrell. Her husband, the late Jno. S. McEachern, one the best known business men of Wilmington in his day, preceded her to the grave about eleven years ago. The surviving immediate relatives are six sons, all of whom are grown and prominent in business circles of this-city and October 10.-Tug William S. Mc. Florida. They are Messrs. J. D. Mc-Eachern, of Jacksonville, Fla.; D. McEachern, N. M. McEachern, A. O. McEachern, W. H. McEachern, of Wilmington, and Ed. C. McEachern, the last named of whom is finishing a course in medicine at Baltimore, but who was at the bedside of his mother during her illness and death.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist Church and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

- Monroe Journal: Mr. H. M Furr, of Goose Creek township, had the days of his youth recalled in a rather unusual manner a few days ago. He and his little son were working in the field together, when they discov developed juvenile curiosity, proceeded to investigate. He carefully examined that part of the "tarpin" turned toward the light, and then proceeded to reverse him to continue the opera tion on the remainder of the geography. There, neatly carved on the under shell, he found the letters H. M. F., his father's initials. Mr. Furr remembers that twenty two years ago, when he himself was a boy, that he cut the letters in the shell of tortoise. He never did it but one time and it was near this place and he believes that this is the self same "tarpin." He looked as fresh and young

Wilmington, N. C. CONDITION OF COTTON CROP

Sufficient Improvement in Northern Texas to Make the General Average in That State One Point Higher.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.-Following is the monthly report of the condition of the cotton crop, issued by the De partment of Agriculture: The monthly report of the statisti cian of the Department of Agricul ture shows the average condition of cotton on October 1st to have been 67 as compared with 68.2 last month: 62.4 on October 1, 1899; 75.4 at the corresponding date in 1898, and 716 the mean average of October for the last ten years. With the exception of North Caro ina and Tennessee, where there is no appreciable change in the condition of the crop, there has been a decline dur ing September throughout the whole of the cotton States east of the Missis, ippi river. This decline amounts to two points in Virginia, Georgia and Alabama; three points in South Caro-lina, four in Mississippi and eight in Florida. Louisiana also shows a decline of four points. On the lother hand there has been sufficient improvement in Northern Texas to make the general average of that State one point higher than last month, and there is also an improvement of one point in Oklahoma, five points in Indian Territory and four points in Missouri. The crop in Arkausas is about holding its own.

The average for the different States olina 64 South Carolina 57, Georgia 67, Florida 63, Alabama 62, Mississippi Louisiana 66, Texas 78, Arkansas 65. Tennessee 64. Missouri 68, Oklahoma 79, Indian Territory 77.

DEMOCRATIC FIELD DAY.

Call to Be Issued for a Grand Fally of Democratic Clubs Throughout the Country on October 27th. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, October 10 .- A call will be issued to-day by the Democratic National Committee for a grand rally, on October 27th, of all the Democratic clubs throughout the country. The day will be set apart as a Democratic field day. Chairman Jones, of the National Committee, said to day: "I intend to address a letter to the Democratic clubs all over the country, requesting them to give that come within their knowledge, of employers undertaking to coerce or intimidate employes. I have now ascertaining the conditions there. They are intelligent men, who are close observers, and I have instructed them to report carefully the facts they discover. Our people are thoroughly aroused to the danger in this direction and are determined to have an honest

ROUGH ON ROOSEVELT.

Stoned by Hoodlums at Fort Wayne, Ind. The Governor Not Hurt. By Telegraph to the Merning Star.

FGRT WAYNE, IND., October 10 .-Hoodlums of Fort Wayne to-night endeavored to rival those who made an attack upon Governor Roosevelt in Victor, Colo., and in a measure succeeded. On Calhoun street, shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink, where the Governor was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of stones at Colonel Roosevelt's carriage. One stone struck Governor Roosevelt on the shoulder and another, aimed at the Governor, missed him and struck Colonel Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, in the face. The Governor was not hurt, and laughed the matter off. The horses attached to the Governor's car riage were whipped up and got away from the roughs, who offered no further violence and used no bad or insulting language.

- Favetteville Observer: News has just reached this city of what is likely to prove a homicide in 71st.
