WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY. - - MARCH 1, 1901

INDEPENDENCE WITH A STRING

TO IT.

The reason assigned why an extra session of Congress would be neces sary was on account of Cuoa, whose new constitution would soon be ready for submission. The Sena tors were anxious to avoid the extra session, and therefore they contrived a way to obviate its necessity Senator Platt, of Connecticut, chair man of the committee on relations with Cuba, fixed up an amendment to the army appropriation bill which is said to have been acceptable to the Senators who insist upon carrying out the Teller resolution in good faith. The Platt amendment recites the Teller resolution, which promises independence to Cuba, and authorizes the President "to leave the government and control of Cuba to the people" as soon as a government shall have been established under the constitution, which shall define the relations of the United States with Cuba, as follows: "1. That the Government of Cuba shall never enter into any treaty or other compact with any foreign Power or Powers which will impair or tend to impair the independence of Cuba nor in any manner authorize or per mit any foreign Power or Powers to obtain by colonization or for military or naval purposes or otherwise lodgment in or control over any portion of

.2. The said Government shall not assume or contract any public debt, to pay the interest upon which and to make a reasonable sinking fund provision for the ultimate discharge of which the ordinary revenues of the islands, after defraying the chrrent expenses of government, shall be in-

3. That the Government of Cuba consents that the United States may exercise the right to intervene for the preservation of Cuban independence the maintenance of government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty and for discharging the obligations with res pect to Cuba imposed by the treate of Paris on the United States, now to be assumed and undertaken by the Gov.

"4 That all acts of the United cupancy thereof are ratified and val idated, and all lawful rights acquired thereunder shall be maintained and

5. That the Government of Cuba will execute, and as far as necessary extend, the plans already devised or orther plans, to be mutually agreed up on, for the sanitation of the cities of the island, to the end that a recurrence of epidemic and infectious disease may be prevented, thereby assuring protection to the p ople and commerce of Cuba, as well as to the commerce o the Southern ports of the United States and the people residing therein.

6. That the Isle of Pines shall be tional boundaries of Cuba, the title thereto being left to the future adjust-"7. Toat to enable the United States to maintain the independence of Cuna and to prove: the people thereo'. as well as for its own defence, the Gov ernm-ns of Quba will sell or lease to the United States lands necessary for coaling or naval stations at certain specified points to be agreed upon with the President of the United States. That by way of further assurance the Government of Cuba will embody the foregoing provi-ions in a perma nent treaty with the United States." Some of these conditions are reasonable, assuming that the United States have any right to impose conditions that must be recognized by or incorporated in the constitution of Cuba.

As a precautionary measure it may be well for this Government to pledge and obligate Cuba not to put herself in the power of any foreign trouble to post themselves realize government either by treaty or by how great she is. The following getting into debt to them beyond her ability to pay, for that might cause entanglements and bring about conditions which might make it necessary for this country to go to war again to protect Cuba. There is nothing unreasonable nor is there anything selfish in that demand, and there is no reason why the Cubans should object to it unless they might construe it as a reflection on their patriotism and good sense.

The third clause is skilfully constucted and so phrased as at any time to authorize interference by the United States, if there should be any internal trouble or dissension, under the plea of "preserving Cuban independence." adoption of this will be a better thing for the Cubans than for us because it would be a guarantee of peace in the island when factions might arise, as they do in nearly all the Latin American Republics, and they were reminded that if they got to mixing up with each other the United States might walk in and call them both to taw, in which event the United States would probably conclude to stay in. Under this cunningly phrased clause any sort of a racket which threatened trouble | Union. In its area Texas is even more or disorder would be a justification for interference by the United States, while it would give lation of fi'ty millions Texas would the United States Government more not be as thickly peopled as Germany was in 1880. Reasonably well cultipower in Cuba than it has in any vated Texas could produce enough State in this Union.

The fourth clause looks out for the United States and could raise the world's supply of cotton, besides leaving a pes ure field as large as the State the friends of ex-Secretary Alger and others who took time by the of New York. If it were divided into forelock and rushed over to Cubs five equal States each State would be nearly as large as New England or as before the echo of the guns fired at large as the States of New York and Santiago had died out and went for Connecticut combined. From these figures it is apparent that Texas is onconcessions, franchises and various titled to the distinction of being called other things in which they saw an Empire S.ate." money, getting claims on mineral and other properties that are now or there will be a tide of immigration may be immensely valuable. It into that State for years to come, will be remembered that while the and then when those great unpeoconcession business was in full tide pled regions are divided into farms Secretary Alger issued an order that and cultivated what will she be then? no concesions would be permitted or | She produces a third of the cotton

There are others, of course, in it, to whom Senator Hale alluded in his speech when he said, nearly twelve monts ago, that there were certain

Senate passed a bill to incorporate the State's prison and provide a government, with amendments; by Brown, that all suits sgainst the prison be construed as against the State; by Lindsay, that the five directors shall not be eligible to any other office, and, by Gudger, that no real estate can be sold by the board except by unanimous vote and consent of the Governor.

Other bills passed final reading Relative to the stock law in Chatham to allow Edenton to issue bonds Bills introduced: By Morton, to mend Laws of 1893 regarding Big Bridge ferry, New Hanover county : to appoint justices of the peace for Brunswick county. By Woodard, to amend the charter of Wilmington. By Gudger, to protect pupils of public and private schools from contagious and infectious diseases. By Brav. to make the west side of Currituck sound a lawful fence. By Foushee, to fix the pay of members of the court of impeachment at $4 00 per day. This last bill is in view of the fact that the trial will be after the regular session. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Com mittee. A large number of members express themselves as opposed to vot ing pay for the the time consumed in the trial.

There was a long discussion in the House over the bill to provide for and appropriate $1,500 fustead of $1000, for clerk hire, in the office of the commissioner of insurance. It resulted in the adoption of an amendment making an appropriation of $1 250, and the bill passed its final reading. Bill to allow the Seaboard Air Line to consolidate with other companies except the Southern or Atlantic Coast Line was discussed at length and re-referred to the Judiciary Committee, Bills introduced: By Zuchary, discharge drunken solicitors. By Simms, to incorporate the Raleigh and Cape Fear railroad. By Bannerman, to allow divorced persons to re-marry. Fayetteville Dispensary.

The joint committee on Propositions and Grievances is in session to night to bear discussion of opposing delegations from Fayetteville on the Cumberland county dispensary. The ball is crowded. Senator McNeill, at eleven o'clock, is making a speech against the pensary and in favor of submitting the question to a vote of the perple. The fight is the hardest yet had before any committee. Judging from the enthusiasm aroused by McNeill Antidispensary will be victorious. The contention is apparently sustained that there is fifty per cent. more crime now than before the dispensary was inaugurated.

The joint committee at 11:30 o clock to- ight decided-vote ten to elevento report the Fayetteville Anti-dis pensary bill unfavorably. The oppo sition is led by Broughton and Judge Graham. A fight will be made to pass the bill despite the unfavorable report It is reasonably certain that it will pass the Senate.

The joint Committee on Elucation completed preparation of the bill for general school law to night. It will be printed to morrow. It is a little different from the old law. The powers of county superintendents are enlarged, and changes are principally along lines suggested by the Teachers' Assembly.

> RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 26. The General Road Bill.

The general road bill, as drafted by the joint Committee on Roads, Alexander chairman, passed the Senate with amendment by Morton not to apply to New Hanover county, and later by Travis, not to apply to any county unless adopted by the commissioners. The bill provides for county road commis sions and other necessary regulations.

The Divorce bill was the special order at noon. It passed as it came from the House, except an amendment by Webb was adopted to allow divorce on the ground of three years' abandonment. Also, by Woodard, in case the husband is guilty of or attempts a specified heinous crime. The vote was 30 ayes, 15 noes.

Other bills passed: To establish water works and sewerage in Elizabeth City; to authorize Kinston to issue school bonds; to incorporate schools of Southport township; to amend Laws of '99 regarding Lumberton; to amend charter of Kinston; to repeal chapter 523, Laws '99, in reference to oyster waters of New Hanover county.

A prominent member of the Wilmington delegation, here to insist upon a modication of the Revenue act, said that after a careful canvass of members of the Assembly he is convinced the obnoxious clauses relating to corporation tax, income tax, inheritance tax, and other objectionable features will be eliminated. The general sentiment is to greatly modify or defeat the bill Democratic Caucus.

The joint Democratic caucus was in session to night from 8 to 12 o'clock to consider the ten Democratic con gressional districts, as prepared by committee, but failed to arrive at any satisfactory agreement. On the reso lution not to re district at all but elect the vote was very close. The districts proposed by the committee are as appeared in the STAR yesterday. A vote on adoption of the committee's report failed for lack of a quorum owing to the lateness of the hour. It is believed the report will be adopted to-morrow night, to which time the caucus adjourned.

Lively Police Court.

James Hawkins, Mamie Stanley and Burt Green, all colored, were sent to the county roads by the Mayor yesterday, the first two for a period of 20 days and the latter for a month. They were guilty of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bertha Gause, also colored, charged with assault with a knife upon Fannie Williams, also colored, was bound over to Criminal Court and in default of a $100 bond she was committed to jail. Fannie Williams was fined $10. William Samuel and John Williams, both colored, were fined $5 for an affray.

- Monroe Journal: Mrs. A. D. Howell, of Peachland, died sunday, 17th inst., aged 52 years. She had been an invalid for a long time and death was not unexpected. - A little colored girl 10 years old living on Sutton's place five miles north of town, was burned to death last evening. The child was standing before the fire when her clothes caught. She was out of the house and kept running and the wind fanned the flames, making them burn the flercer. She lived only a few minutes, in fact was dead before anyone could reach her.

Will Be Erected on the Site as Parly as Pessible-The Purchase Consummated Yesterday With Capt. Donald MacRae.

The sale of a valuable tract of Front treet real estate was consummated resterday, which means that the ap rance of this popular business thoroughfare will soon be much en banced by the erection of a handsome bank and office building thereon that will be second to none in the city.

The sale was of the valuable D ckinson property, corner of Front and Chesnut streets, to the Murchison National Bank, of Wilmington, and the final details of the same were arranged yesterday. The amount of the purchase is $17,000 and the STAR has it authoritatively from Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the institution, that a handsome bank building will be erected on the lot at as an early a date as seems to the purchasers practicable. As yet the size of the build ing or the nature of its architecture, of course, has not been decided but it may be depended upon that the building will be fully in keeping with the custom of the Murchisou Bank people to have nothing but the best and to have it early when a start is made. The building will likely be on the street corner of the lot just opposite the postoffice, and it is said that the purchasers will most likely build it three stories in height.

The property was bid in at commis sioners' sale on January 15th by Capt. Donald MacRae for $16 000 and there was much conjecture at the time as to the disposition he would likely makeof it. The lot has a frontage of 141 feet on Front street and runs back about the same width along Chesnut street about 182 feet to Dickinson's alley. Upon it is situated a handsome and very large three story residence of Philadelphia pressed brick. This will be easily available for the construction of the new building.

MARRIED AT POINT CASHELL.

Beautiful Wedding Celebrated In Caswell Presbyterian Church Yesterday. | Special Star Correspondence. |

POINT CASWELL, N. C. Feb. 27 -At high noon to day at the Caswell Presbyterian church, the Rev. D. P. McGeachy officiating, Miss Effic Larkins and Mr. Isaac Decker were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. On yesterday the young people met and decorated the church in a beautiful and artistic manner becoming the occasion. Upon the opening of the grand wedding march by Miss Pearson, the following order was observed, Mr. Lee Simpson with Miss Annie Charles; Mr. Sam Wood, of Wilming ion, with Miss Jennie Larkins; Mr. Leon Larkins and Miss Ellen Hol lingsworth, Mr. W. Milton Decker, of Wilmington, with Miss Pearl Largins. The bride on the arm of her brother and the groom with best man marched to the front of the altar, where they were met by Mr. McGeachy, who performed the beautiful and impressive

The bride was dressed in a gray suit rimmed with white silk; the brides maids were beautifully attired in travelling costumes As this was the first marriage performed in the Caswell church, the entire wealth and fashion of this section was in attendance and crowded the church to its utmost capacity.

- Raleigh News and Observer: From Polk county comes the news a horrible killing which occurred late Monday afternoon. The facts as near as can be obtained to night is that a man by the name of Blackburry went to his home diunk, and commenced to quarrel with his wife because she had not enough supper to supply his whiskey appetite. He struck her several blows with his hand and three or four hard kicks with his foot, until she was almost unconscious. Their baby, which was laying on the bed, began crying, he grabbed it and threw it at his wife, its head striking the corner of the mantel. It died instantly. The baby and wife lay on the floor until midnight, when the wife managed to get to a neighbor's to tell the news. It is said if Blackburry, who escaped, is caught, he may be lynched.
