he would get a vote upon his resolution to discharge the committee on education and labor from consideration of the eight hour bill.

It was explained that the resolution would not be in order except by the unanimous consent or by vote of the Senate.

Senator Pettigrew asked unanimous consent, but Mr. Sewell objected. Mr. Pettigrew declared passionately that a tacit sgreement was made for a vote upon his resolution. He objected to Mr. Aldrich's bill.

At to night's session] { Senator Chandler called up his resolution declaring that Hon. W. A. Clark of Montana had not been duly elected to the Senate. Senator Allen suggested the absence of a quorum, which was secured after twenty minutes delay. Senator Chandler offered a substitute for the original resolution, reciting Mr. Clark's former retirement from the Senate. He claimed that Mr. Clark's vacation of his seat was a vir tual confession of the justice of the decision of the committee. "His flight fixed a stigma of criminality up on Mr. Clark which can never be blotted out," Senator Chandler said. Senator Chandler declared that Mr. Clark had spent $1,000,000 in his election, but said he had followed the plan of corrupting yoters before the November election rather than to wait for the meeting of the Legislature to spend his maney. Senator Jones, Arkansas, presented the credentials of Hon. W. A. Clark,
