

"I Advise"

All women who suffer from chronic diseases to write to Dr. Pierce.

That advice is based upon practical experience. After suffering for months, and finding no benefit result from the treatment of the local physician, Miss Belle Hedrick wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. She acted on the advice, regained her appetite, recovered her strength, and gained several pounds in weight.

Write to Doctor Pierce for every woman to follow. It costs nothing. Dr. Pierce invites all women to consult him, by letter, free. Address Dr. R. W. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels.

ONE BY ONE.

One by one the sands are flowing. One by one the moments fall. Some are coming, some are going. Do not strive to grab them all. One by one thy duties wait. Let thy whole strength go to each. Learn no future dreams relate. Learn thou first what these can teach.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

To solve the social problem we must do more of our religious work in person, and less by proxy. — Leoney. If I were a young man, I should go into the missionary field. It is the greatest work of the church. — Bishop Joyce. The laborer feels that the church caters too much to the man with the gold ring and costly apparel. — Turk. The gospel of Jesus Christ is the one infallible remedy for the evils of the world—the one by which the world must be saved.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Teddy Roosevelt has blossomed out as an octopus chaser. Teddy should stick to mountain lions, a sport in which he will be no question as to his intention to shoot straight. — Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, Dem. "Gen. Fitzhugh Lee," says the Savannah Press, "now makes the startling statement that the Spaniards had no hand in blowing up the Maine." It doesn't matter, however. The Maine had a hand in blowing up the Spaniards—and that, it appears, was the principal point in view. — Charleston News and Courier, Dem. According to Commander Schroeder, the Governor of the island of Guam, who has just arrived in this country to testify before the Schley Court of Inquiry, his balliwick in mid-Pacific presents a close approximation to an earthly paradise. The people are happy and prosperous, no one knows what actual poverty means, and all are content with no other means of recreation than the weekly cock-fight. — Philadelphia Telegraph, Rep. The Porto Ricans received the army of Gen. Miles with open arms and the little island was taken without the firing of a gun. Yet the "veterans" of that glorious walk-over have now invited renewed attention to themselves by coming together in solemn reunion at Buffalo. No doubt most of them expect a pension, and it must be acknowledged that they are as much, or more, right to the same as tens of thousands of the so-called "veterans" of the union army. — Macan Telegraph, Dem.

ATTEMPT TO KILL THE PRESIDENT.

Cowardly Attack by an Anarchist at a Public Reception in Buffalo.

ASSASSIN FIRED TWO SHOTS.

President McKinley Severely Hurt, But Wounds Not Likely to Prove Fatal. Man Arrested—Narrowly Escaped Lynching.

By Telegram to the Morning Star. BUFFALO, Sept. 6.—While President McKinley was receiving in the Temple of Music this afternoon he was approached by a man with a dark moustache and with one hand covered with a handkerchief. As the man extended his hand to the President, apparently with the intention of shaking hands with him, he fired a shot which entered the President's right breast, lodging against the breast bone. Another shot was fired at once, which entered the President's abdomen. The assailant was immediately arrested and was thrown to the ground and quick as a flash twenty men were upon him. When rescued by the police he was a bloodstained man with a ghastly face.

Cries of lynching were heard in every direction but the police managed to get the man out of the grounds and locked him up in a station house a short distance from the grounds. Later he was removed to the police headquarters. The assailant was immediately arrested and was thrown to the ground and quick as a flash twenty men were upon him. When rescued by the police he was a bloodstained man with a ghastly face.

Dr. Harrington, who arrived at 6:45 P. M., announced for Doctors Parke, Parmenter and Mynter, who performed the operation, that the first bullet struck the sternum and glanced off, causing a slight flesh wound. The second bullet perforated both walls and has not yet been found. The bullet probably is in the stomach. The wounds are not necessarily fatal.

A Cowardly Attack. It was a few moments after 4 P. M. while President McKinley was holding a public reception in the great Temple of Music in Buffalo, N. Y., that the cowardly attack was made, with what success time alone can tell.

Standing in the midst of crowds surrounded by eager admirers, and every evidence of good will, pressed by a motley throng of people, showing with expressions of love and loyalty, he was suddenly and unprovokedly assailed by a man who, according to the report of the assassin, fired a shot which entered the President's right breast, lodging against the breast bone. Another shot was fired at once, which entered the President's abdomen. The assailant was immediately arrested and was thrown to the ground and quick as a flash twenty men were upon him. When rescued by the police he was a bloodstained man with a ghastly face.

President Well Guarded. The President, though well guarded by United States Secret Service detectives, was fully exposed to such an attack as occurred here today. The edge of the raised dais upon which stands the great pipe organ at the east side of the magnificent structure, through of people crowded in, to gaze upon their executive, perchance to clasp his hand, and then fight their way out in the good natured mob that every minute welled and multiplied at the points of ingress and egress to the building. The President was in a cheerful mood and was enjoying to the full the hearty evidences of good will which everywhere met his gaze. Upon his right stood John G. Milburn, of Buffalo, President of the Pan-American Exposition, consulting with the President and introducing to him especially persons of note who approached. Upon the President's left stood Mr. Cortelyou.

There was an instant of almost complete silence. The President stood still, a look of hesitancy, almost of bewilderment on his face. Then he retreated a step, while a pallor began to steal over his features. The multitude, only partially aware that something serious had happened, paused in surprise, while necks were craned and all eyes turned as one toward the room where a great tragedy was being enacted.

Then came a commotion. With the leap of a tiger the men threw themselves forward as with one impulse and sprang toward the would-be assassin. Two of them were United States Secret Service men, who were on the lookout and whose duty it was to guard against just such a calamity as had here befallen the President. The crisis was averted by a bystander, a negro, who had only an instant previously grasped the President's hand, and who, by pushing a button, these are practically automatic.

Natural Disadvantages. "Taking into consideration the things Sharp has had to contend against, I think his success as a lawyer has been remarkable." "Why, what did he ever have to contend against?" "Everything. He came of a wealthy family. He didn't have to work his way through college. He never studied by the light of a pine torch, or went to drive a dray, never walked six miles to school and wasn't compelled to borrow his books. He had every possible low price. Avoid the rush by coming early. Supply your household needs while you have such a chance from new and up-to-date goods. No goods taken back or exchanged. Our shoe business will be on the same 'square' as before."

Use Externally. Customers—'I want 20 cents' worth of zinc for my sister. Drug Clerk—'What kind of zinc? There are about 40 kinds. What does your sister want to use it for?' Customer—'I don't know the kind. She said I must not tell what she wanted it for?' Drug Clerk—'Was it outside of zinc she wanted?' Customer—'Yes, that's it; outside of zinc to put on her face.—Brooklyn Life.

The revolver with which President McKinley was shot was turned over to Superintendent of Police Bull, of Buffalo, by Captain Weller, to whom it had been handed by the soldier who recovered it.

SOUTH AMERICAN REPUBLICS AT WAR

Venezuelan Fleet Bombarding the Colombian Town of Rio Hacha.

HELD BY GOVERNMENT FORCE

Colombian Claims Its Frontiers Are Well Guarded—New Invasions Announced From Venezuela, Ecuador and Nicaragua—BattleShip Iowa.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—An official announcement that the Venezuelan fleet is bombarding the Colombian town of Rio Hacha was received at the Colombian legation today. The dispatch came from Dr. Ricardo B. Berra, formerly the Colombian minister in Washington, and at present at Williamsport, near the scene of operations, looking after the interests of his government. The text of the cablegram is as follows: "Williamsport, Caracas, Sept. 7.—Venezuelan fleet is bombarding Rio Hacha. BOGOTTA."

The bombardment is regarded by the Colombian authorities as an unmistakable and open act of war. Rio Hacha is on the north coast of Colombia, a short distance from the Venezuelan border, and is so located as to command the entrance to the Gulf of Maracibo. Sovereignty over the peninsula has long been in question, but the queen regent of Spain awarded the town to a result of an arbitration three years ago, and this has been accepted by both countries. The information reaching the Colombian legation shows that the Venezuelan vessels expected to make a juncture at Rio Hacha with a considerable force of Colombian rebels. But this force was dispersed and the town was strongly garrisoned by government troops. When the Venezuelan ships arrived at the port they failed to make the expected juncture, and instead sought the Colombian troops in possession. This, it is asserted, has brought on the bombardment now reported.

Another cablegram received at the Colombian legation to-day from the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Bogota was as follows: "The guerrillas in Colombia are rapidly disappearing. Our frontiers are well guarded and all is quiet there, though new invasions are announced from Venezuela, Ecuador and Nicaragua."

Our attitude continues to be pacific and strictly neutral. The invasion of Venezuela by Rangel Garbin and his supporters was brought about through his evading the vigilance of the Colombian authorities, and is condemned by the government. The laws at Panama. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Navy Department has ordered the gunboat Machias, now at Colon, to Bocas del Toro, to look after American interests in that quarter should it appear that any such are in need of protection. The battleship Iowa has arrived at Panama. The gunboat Tangier now at that place has been ordered back to San Francisco.

Telegram Sent From Memphis Signed Fred Nieman to a Man in Buffalo.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 7.—A Memphis telegraph operator of known veracity is responsible for the statement that a telegram was sent through a branch telegraph office in this city signed "Fred Nieman," to a man at the Temple of Music in Buffalo, N. Y., who was the assassin of President McKinley.

Neither reporters nor police could locate any such person as having been in Memphis lately, but a Memphis record, which was obtained, it is thought a valuable clue to the attempted assassination of President McKinley will be found in the handwriting of the man who signed the telegram. The man who signed the telegram was a man of known veracity, and his name was Fred Nieman. He is now in Buffalo, N. Y., and is working on the case.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS. If brooms are hung in the cellarway, they will keep soft and pliant. Lamp wicks should never be longer than will reach to the bottom of the oil well of the lamp. If a piece of calico is pasted over holes and cracks in plaster, they may be whitewashed or papered over and will hardly show. Add a little turpentine to the water with which the floor is scrubbed. It will take away the close smell and make the room delightfully fresh. Excellent lamp wicks may be made of men's soft felt hats by cutting them into strips the width required, letting them soak two hours in vinegar and drying them. A bed should never be made under two hours from the time it has been slept in. It should be aired thoroughly and beaten until it is light. Open all the bedroom windows and let the fresh air and sunlight into the room. If you have handsome vases on the mantelpiece or on top of the bookcase, etc., fill them with clean dry sand, which will weight them so they will not be overturned easily. In buying any ornament be careful to examine the bottom and see that it is perfectly flat and so will stand steady.

Passenger Elevators. So common are passenger elevators now and so absolutely necessary in the tall office buildings that the history of the first one has almost been forgotten, and yet it created a sensation in its day. This elevator was placed in the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York when it was built, and as the first passenger elevator in the world it was a drawing card as one of the sights of New York. A small plate suitably inscribed in regard to the Fifth Avenue hotel elevators today of that fact. It was a screw elevator, the carriage being raised or lowered by the revolutions of a big screw. Compared with the swift moving elevators of today, which shoot up and down rapidly and smoothly, this was a very crude affair. Many of New York's private houses are now heated by elevators so adjusted that the passenger operates them by pushing a button. These are practically automatic.

Natural Disadvantages. "Taking into consideration the things Sharp has had to contend against, I think his success as a lawyer has been remarkable." "Why, what did he ever have to contend against?" "Everything. He came of a wealthy family. He didn't have to work his way through college. He never studied by the light of a pine torch, or went to drive a dray, never walked six miles to school and wasn't compelled to borrow his books. He had every possible low price. Avoid the rush by coming early. Supply your household needs while you have such a chance from new and up-to-date goods. No goods taken back or exchanged. Our shoe business will be on the same 'square' as before."

Use Externally. Customers—'I want 20 cents' worth of zinc for my sister. Drug Clerk—'What kind of zinc? There are about 40 kinds. What does your sister want to use it for?' Customer—'I don't know the kind. She said I must not tell what she wanted it for?' Drug Clerk—'Was it outside of zinc she wanted?' Customer—'Yes, that's it; outside of zinc to put on her face.—Brooklyn Life.

The revolver with which President McKinley was shot was turned over to Superintendent of Police Bull, of Buffalo, by Captain Weller, to whom it had been handed by the soldier who recovered it.

HAS MADE A CONFESSION.

Would-be Assassin Says He is an Anarchist—Denies Having Any Confederate Shows No Sign of Insanity.

By Telegram to the Morning Star. BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Leon Czolgoz, the would-be assassin, has signed a confession covering six pages of foolscap, which states that he is an anarchist and that he became an enthusiastic member of that body through the influence of Emma Goldman, whose writings he had read and whose lectures he had listened to. He denies having any confederates, and said he decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pending the results of the President's injuries. Czolgoz does not appear in the least uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his sister, Oakland avenue, who had listened to his lectures, to become an anarchist, and he said he had decided on the act three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He said he had seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Oakland street, in that city, which he said he had visited. Some of them are butchers and others in different