ROBERTS' CHILL TONIC.

When we turn away from some duty, or some fold-creature, saying that our hearts are too sick and sore, we may often sever the line on which a divine message was coming to us. We shut out the man and we shut out the angel who had sent him on to the open door.—Edward Garrett.

WARM WIRELETS.

The Chilean Senate has unanimously approved the treaties between Argentina and Chile, providing for general arbitration and a restriction of armaments. Andrew Carnegie, in donating 5,000 pounds for a library at Merthyr-Tydfil, Wales, said he tendered the gift because of his indebtedness to the Welsh element in America, many of whom had rendered him service.

TRAVELING IN SIBERIA.

The Kind of People One Meets in Third Class Railway Cars. All the third class cars on the Siberian railway are grimy; there are sections reserved for women and children. The woodwork is painted of drab inside, but there is not a vestige of cushion. I spent hours among these emigrants. I find them interesting. They are horribly dirty, and as they like to have the window closed, despite the temperature, the cars reek with odor.

Besides bread eating and scattering half of it on the floor and munching melons and making a mess with the rind and splashing the water about when teamaking there is the constant smoking of cigarettes. They are tiny, unsatisfying things, half cardboard tube, provide three modest puffs and are then to be thrown away. You could smoke a hundred a day and deserve no lecture on being a slave to tobacco.—Cor. London News.

FIGHTING OWLS.

Owls have a habit of dealing with game they have killed that leads some observers to think that, like dogs, they prefer foods that have not been too recently slain. One of the birds will often leave a chicken or rabbit for a day or two before eating it. An old trapper says he has often had muskrat traps robbed by owls, only a part of the rat being eaten.

THE EARLIEST YACHT RACE.

What is said to be the earliest of recorded yacht races took place on Oct. 1, 1641.—John Evelyn in his diary of that date mentions that he sailed with his majesty Charles II. in one of his pleasure boats or yachts, "vessels not known among us until the Dutch East India company presented that curious piece of the king, being very excellent sailing vessels. It was on a match between Evelyn and his other new boat," continued Evelyn, "built frigate-like, and one of the Duke of York's, the wager of £100, and the race from Greenwich to Gravesend and back, the king lost it going down, the wind being contrary, but saved stakes in returning."
