The New York Tribune Wednesday says:

At the 135 annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce held last night t Deimonico's Leslie M. Snaw, Secre tary of the Treasury, made a strong app-al for a merchant marine, criticising the "supine indifference" which had resulted in the lack of colliers and transports in case of war, and sufficient freight vessels in peace times. far nation was suffering from lack of thios to widen its commercial relations with South American countries, he deciared, and he indicated fully his approval of the stand the United States He is "not contending for ship subsi way taking in regard to the Panama dies" and does not care how it is done, Canal. STATE HISTORICAL COMMISSION.

Aceting for Organization at Warsaw Friday Night-Cash Prizes.

Prof. B. D. W. Connor returned yesterday morning from Warsaw, where on Friday night he attended the organization meeting of the State Historical Commission, created by act of the last Legislature. The meeting was held at the home of Rev. J. D. Hufham, of Warsaw, a valued member of the commission. An organization was perfected by the election of Mr. W. J. Peele, of Raleigh, chairman, and Prof. Connor, of Wilmington, secretary. The other members are Dr. Hufham, of Warsaw; Dr. Richard Dillard, of Edenton, and

Mr. Soudley, of Asheville. The most important business of the deceased meeting was the decision to offer three cash prizes of $100 each: (1) For the best county history in the State; (2) for the best biographical sketch of a North Carolinian, and (8)

MAXTON, N. C., Nov. 19 .- About eight o'clock this A. M., Dr. David McBryde, an elderly and prominent physician of Robeson county, died suddenly, the immediate cause of his death being heart failure. He had been ill but a day or two and his condtion was not considered at all serious. Dr. McBryde was in his seventy-eighth year and his career as a medical practitioner had been a long and useful one.

The deceased, who was much beloved by all who knew him, leaves a a large family connection to bemoan his death and hosts of friends who will long remember him as a benefactor and

The members of the delegation united in a recommendation that the President present the subject to Congress, with a suggestion that an appropriation be made to pay the expenses of a commission appointed to work out a plan for the exter-mination of the boll weevil. President Roosevelt expressed himself as deeply interested in the subject and promised to give it earnest consideration. He said that he would take up the matter with Secretary Wilson, who recently made a trip through the South to investigate the destruction wrought by the cotton pest. Secretary Wilson has said that the only remedy which suggests itself to him is that the planters put in their crops early, thus escaping the ravages o the weevil. Planters of cotton hold, however, that early planting will not meet the emergency. Some plan, they contend, for the absolute extermination of the pest must be devised. It
