

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1905. BRYAN'S APPROVAL OF ROOSEVELT.

The Hon. William J. Bryan in the last issue of his paper says: "The Commoner has had occasion to commend Mr. Roosevelt in several particulars, and now that he has been inaugurated to serve during the term for which he was elected, it expresses the sincere hope that it may have many opportunities for giving its approval of his efforts. Men of all political parties are striving for the same end—good government. The rank and file of parties may differ as to the methods to be employed in obtaining that end. Some of them may for time be deceived and kept in ignorance concerning the real purpose of their leaders, but sooner or later men moving with a common purpose will mass themselves against a common enemy, and sooner or later popular government, in the best sense of the word, will be restored. Then men who have thriven and grown fat through special interests will be required to remove the shackles they have placed upon the limbs of the people."

Referring to the above the Washington Post says: "In an editorial in the latest issue of the Commoner, the title of which is 'Theodore Roosevelt,' Mr. Bryan continues his musing up to the President with a graceful air that Tom Watson cannot excel, gifted as he is in that particular variety of rhetorical eloquence which is best adapted to anguishing-up purposes."

"In the main that is about correct—namely, patriotic thought expressed in good English. But a person who is to be critical might remind Mr. Bryan that the Constitution of the United States does not provide for 'popular government in the best'—or in other 'sense of the term.' On the contrary, the Constitution makes unalterable provision against 'popular government,' a provision that cannot be abrogated without dissolving the Union and taking a new start. The House of Representatives is the only branch of our government whose members are elected by the people. We never have had 'popular government'; therefore it is a mistake to say that, under any possible conditions, it 'will be restored.'"

"Another expression in that extract is open to criticism. 'The men who have grown fat through special interests,' assuming that Mr. Bryan alludes to the beneficiaries of certain tariff schedules that facilitate operation of the masses for the enrichment of a few, are not responsible for any 'shackles upon the limbs of the people.' They are not the agents chosen by the people to frame laws, but the beneficiaries of laws framed by Congressmen for whose official acts or failures to act the Republican party is responsible, forged and adjusted those 'shackles.'"

"But many men in this happy and prosperous country have 'thrived and grown fat' by honest and lawful means since by reason of the defeat of Mr. Bryan and currency debasement in 1896. The Post expresses the general sentiment of the people in congratulating Mr. Bryan on the great prosperity that has come to him as the result of defeat. The Post and the people note with sincere pleasure that property has not spoiled Mr. Bryan."

Without reference to any political tennet held by Col. Bryan, we can't see why a man of his ability and virility could not be prosperous whether the Republican or Democratic party were in power. The men who think politics bring profit except to those who profit from the emoluments of office, government contracts, or graft, had better study the law of supply and demand or learn to recognize the knock which Mr. Dooley says opportunity gives at least "want" at every man's door.

However we may disagree with Colonel Bryan in his political ideals, he is broad enough and big enough not to be grouchy. Looks that way to a man up a tree.

Says the Durham Herald: "If the man who edited the volume devoted to men of mark in North Carolina puts his name on the title page he may expect to hear from somebody." Somebody going to be mud at 'im because they were not men of cheque enough to be able to figure in the pages of "Men of Mark."

It is announced that surgery has now reached such a state that a man's backbone can be doubled in strength. Most politicians whose backbones are so weak that they invariably take to the fence will surely be compelled to have an operation if they hope to stand before the people in the next campaign.

Many a man thinks he has a great head on him till he marries and finds out that his wife can make his head swim without half trying.

The situation in Russia now seems to be that if she can frenzy the finance she will send out some more soldiers to be sent to grass.

ALL WHO USE ATOMIUMS in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 66 Warren St., N. Y. New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900. Messrs. Ely Bros.: I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer in Lexington, Va. Delachate St., New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results. Geo. W. McDevitt, Pharmacist.

ADDITIONARY has been sent to us for review but we refuse to pronounce it a modern lexicographical production because it does not contain the words automobile, change club, graft and other words in the every day lexicon of the people.

After the Senate adjourns and goes home without doing what President Roosevelt wants them to do, the President will go right along and carry out his plans by constraining that the Senate doesn't know much or do much any way.

The Beef Trust by reporting that it makes only 99 cents a head on each steer slaughtered was setting itself right with the ladies so Commissioner Garfield might think it would be a shame to discredit a genuine bargain.

If the United States Senate wants to get back into the good graces of the Congress of Mothers and the people they had better expel every one of each other who is Smootified, graft-a-oo, or boos-a-oo.

It is said that a couple at Newport finds it impossible to live on $300,000 a year. We have also found out that we are not able to live on that amount. Where will these high prices end?

"In spite of his divorce suit men do not avoid Buffalo Bill," says an exchange. The same class of men, however, will be after dodging Easter Bill, all right.

"The United States Senate appears to be against President Roosevelt," says an exchange. We would like to know when the President was ever still.

Odd as it seems, there is one State in the United States of which only a woman has been governor. Huh? The married state.
