SECOND EDITION. THREE O'CLOCK P. M.

THE LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. Owing to the breakage of the wires we received no report this morning. BY MAIL. STATE ELECTIONS. The Ordinance of the State Convention Providing for the Election of State Officers.

The following is the ordinance as passed by the state convention, providing for an election in November next for state officers: An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of a General Assembly to be convened on the 1st Monday of November, 1865, and for electing representatives in congress, and governors of the state. It is ordained by the delegates of the people of the state of North Carolina, in convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That a general assembly of the state shall be convened on the third Monday in November, 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday of August, 1866.

FROM MEXICO. Important Successes of Juarez-Barbana of the French Generals. New York, October 3. The steamer Star of the Union brings New Orleans advices of September 28th. The Times city of Mexico correspondence says the arrests of liberals and those suspected of liberalism are so numerous that it will soon take one half the nation to guard the prisoners. The most barbarous ones are issued by the French commanders. One of the every man wears leather clothing (and the lower classes have no other material) shall be hanged. Persecutions, banishment and imprisonment show the state of the "sick man."

FROM WASHINGTON. EX-MAYOR LENOX RELEASED FROM FORT McHENRY. WASHINGTON, Oct. 6. Walter Lennox, formerly Mayor of Washington, has, after a confinement of twenty-one months been released from Fort McHenry. He left this city at the outbreak of the civil war, but was subsequently arrested in Baltimore and imprisoned as above on the charge or suspicion of being a rebel emissary.

INTERESTING FROM NASHVILLE. Annual Message of Governor Brownlow. NASHVILLE, Oct. 2. Governor Brownlow delivered his annual message to the General Assembly this evening. He congratulates them on witnessing the termination of the rebellion, the signal triumph of our country and its independence. New subjects for legislation will be presented, and the wishes of constituents should be consulted, for the honest people are always right. "Additions to the franchise law are recommended, but he says, 'I am by no means desirous of its repeal, nor do I lay the people of the state join in such sweeping changes. The restoration of civil law has worked well, and prosperity is promised in every section. Guilty rebels should be treated with severity in proportion to their offenses; the mass with neither mercy nor forbearance. Emigration should be fostered and encouraged, and a colonization station be founded at the east to receive a numerous foreign immigration of skilled labor. Governor Brownlow is convinced that white and black people cannot live together politically or socially as equals, and he advocates the setting apart some portion of the national territory best adapted for a nation of freedmen. The testimony of negroes is recommended to be taken in the courts on the same basis as that of whites. President Johnson's reconstruction policy is strongly recommended as the sole hope of the country. A woman named Maria Sevier was shot and instantly killed by a man with whom she had been living named Garrett. Six shots were fired by Garrett, all of which took effect. Jealousy was the cause. Garrett is in jail. The Grand Masonic Lodge of Tennessee meets to-day for the first time in four years. Large delegations are present from all parts of the state. The Methodist Conference meets on Wednesday in Edgefield, and many preachers are in attendance. It is thought that this will be the largest assembly of that sect since the war.
