THE Subscriber offers at private sale, about Nine Hundred Acres of Land, lying on the TAIN) TO OLD BACHELORS.—A correspondent of the New York Express gives the The State Normal School closed its summer session to-day. There was an immense audience present, in the great room of the School Buildings; two-thirds present were ladies, and many of these, teachers prepared at the School. Ex Governor Briggs of Mass. delivered an address full terest annually or semi-annually. Address letter to A. B., and leave at this of-of humor, anecdote, happy illustrations, and sound argument in favor of free education. Such a scoring "Old Bachelors" never before received in the presence of one, or a thousand ladies, but it was addressed to that class of them, who grumble at being taxed for educating other people's children. "Am I to be taxed to support children not my own?" grumbles the Old Bachelor. "Certainly.

"But I have no children of my own." "So much the worse, you ought to have hem.

"But I have no wife."

"Bad again, you ought to have a wife, and children into the bargain!" (Great Laughter.")

And not having a wife, which no good nan ought to be without, and no children, which are also necessary, you deserved to be doubly taxed. "Go, said the Governor, and present your case to some good lady, as one fit for her sympathy, and if you are deserving of it, you will certainly

This system is rapidly growing into favor, al over the civilized world. It is one by which a family, for a small sum annually, may be provided for, after the death of its head, on whose exertions they may have been dependent for a support. It is a good investment of money, even if one should live long after taking out a Life Policy. Explanatory pamphlets, and the necessary Blanks, furnished on application E. J. HALE.
