

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1852.

The sickness of two of the hands in this office... prevents our giving the usual attention to the editing of the Observer.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—At the election on Monday last, Josiah E. Bryan, Esq. was elected Magistrate of Police, and the following gentlemen Commissioners for the coming year:

- 1. James Sundry.
2. P. Taylor.
3. Joseph Arey.
4. T. S. Lutterloh.
5. A. A. McKethan.
6. Wm. McLaurin.
7. Wm. Warden.

With State Conventions.—The Raleigh Register again calls attention to the necessity of fixing on some time and place for the holding of our State Convention.

The Register says that its proposed time of meeting would give three months to our candidate for Governor, to canvass the State, and by that time the opinions of our friends in different sections of the Union, in regard to a candidate for the Presidency, will have assumed a reliable shape, upon which we may act with confidence.

For the want of a Central Committee, and in consequence of the difficulty of securing concert of action among the members of the Executive Committee appointed by the last State Convention, (consisting of three gentlemen in each of the nine congressional Districts,) it is important that the Whig papers should speak as to the above points of time and place. And overall, as the papers will probably be divided in opinion, it may become necessary for the Executive Committee to act. We therefore append a list of that Committee, and suggest that Col. ANDREW JOYNER, (whose name stands next to that of the late Col. Hayes in the Central District,) be requested to correspond with the other members of the Committee, and announce the result. The object would be facilitated if members of the Committee would at once write to Col. Joyner, at Halifax, expressing their views as to time and place.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, appointed at the Whig State Convention of 1850. First District.—N. W. Woodfin of Brunswick, Col. B. S. Galtier of Burke, Gen. S. P. Patterson of Caldwell. Second.—Col. H. L. Roberts of Rowan, W. L. Williams of Surry, C. A. Parks of Wilkes. Third.—H. W. Guion of Lincoln, Absalom Myers of Anson, Alexander Kelly of York.

Fourth.—No appointments were made, we believe. Fifth.—W. A. Graham of Orange, R. B. Gilliam of Granville, Isaac Clegg of Chatham. Sixth.—Richard Hines of Wake, Andrew Jones of Halifax, Nathan Williams of Johnston. Seventh.—George Davis of New Hanover, Dr. H. A. Bizzell of Sampson, John A. Rowland of Robeson.

Eighth.—Chas. Edwards of Greene, W. H. Washington, of Craven, Josiah Halsey of Tyrrell. Ninth.—D. A. Barnes of Northampton, Lewis Thompson of Bertie, W. B. Shepard of Pasquotank.

Who Meetings.—A meeting of the Whigs of Forsyth was held at Winston on the 24th ult., and resolutions were adopted, recommending Fillmore for President, Graham for Vice President, Gilmer for Governor, and Greenborough as the place for holding the Whig State Convention; to which twenty-five delegates were appointed. The Whigs of Stokes held a meeting on the 25th ult. They nominated Fillmore and Graham for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and John Kerr of Caswell, for Governor. Twenty delegates were appointed to the State Convention, which is recommended to be held at Greensborough.

A meeting in Dinwiddie on the 30th ult. adopted similar resolutions and appointed delegates to the Convention. A writer in the Register nominates the Hon. Kenneth Rayner as the Whig candidate for Governor.

The subscription Dinner of Members of Congress and others to Kossuth, was to take place on yesterday. Circumstances alter Cases.—When Mr. Badger delivered his speech in the Senate against the Kossuth resolution, the Raleigh Standard attacked him furiously for it, denouncing his positions, and the arguments by which they were supported. Subsequently, Messrs. Ashe, Daniel, and Venable, voted precisely in accordance with Mr. Badger's views, and Mr. Venable spoke to the same purpose. This has furnished new light to the Standard, and whilst it has not magnanimity to retract its abuse of Mr. Badger, it advertly falls in with the present current. It went off at half-cock, but has an eye readily to perceive how the popular wind sits, and to trim its sails accordingly.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The Democratic National Committee have fixed upon the first day of June next as the time, and Baltimore as the place, for holding their National Convention.

We have received from the Publishers, Blackwell and the International Magazine for January.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.—The Atlantic brings accounts to the 24th ult. The election for President of France commenced on the 20th, and was to continue three days. It was progressing very tranquilly, with no doubt of Louis Napoleon's success by an immense majority. As far as heard from he had 2,900,000 votes, to 600,000 against him. And the new form of Government instituted by him was sustained by 1,766,000 to 207,000 votes.

Addresses of adhesion have been presented to the President from 115 places and 38 departments. The London Times states that the relations of Napoleon to the British government are unsatisfactory; that they are equally unsatisfactory to the despotic powers, as Austria and Russia, whilst pleased with the steps taken by Louis Napoleon, look upon his power as provisional, and it must give way to the restoration of legitimacy.

The republican clubs of Paris have decided that no republican government can be attempted now in France. Robert J. Walker has declined the honor offered to him at Southampton. His letter was posted and placarded about town, headed "Alliance with America."

The subject of an alliance between the United States and Great Britain for the preservation of freedom against the advancing tide of despotism was exciting a lively interest throughout the country. Intelligence from Rome states that the Pope is highly pleased with the events that have transpired in France.

Liverpool, December 23.—Sales of cotton during the last three days 20,000 bales, at an advance of 1d.

CONGRESS.—In the SENATE, on Monday last, a good deal of private business was introduced, but nothing of public importance occurred except the introduction of Kossuth, (of which an account is given below.) In the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, on the same day, Mr. Gaiter's resolution appointing a committee of five to introduce Louis Kossuth to the House, was adopted, under the previous question, 123 to 54.—(Of the N. C. members, Messrs. Ashe, Caldwell, Morehead, Outlaw, Stanly, and Venable voted against the resolution, Mr. Clingman for it; and Messrs. Daniel and Dockery were absent.)

Mr. Brown of Miss. endeavored to have the rules suspended to introduce a resolution declaring that the House declines to express an opinion as to the question of intervention in the affairs of other nations. But the House would not suspend the rules.

PRESENTATION OF GOVERNOR KOSSUTH TO THE SENATE OF THE U. STATES.—This imposing ceremony in honor of the great Hungarian, and in testimony of the approval by our government of the cause of liberty in Europe, which he represents, took place yesterday in the Senate Chamber at one o'clock. The proceeding, though august in its significance, was unostentatious in its character. As no similar presentation to either House of Congress has occurred, except in the case of General Lafayette, we deem it proper to note the details of the proceeding with exactness.

At the appointed hour, the Senate, on the suggestion of its President, suspended its usual business. Governor Kossuth, in his official costume, and with his sword at his side, appeared at the main entrance, preceded by two members of the committee of introduction, (General Shields and Mr. Seward,) and followed by the third member, (General Cass,) and advanced in this order till he stood in the centre of the Senate chamber.

Gen. Shields, the chairman of the committee, then said: "Mr. President: We have the honor to announce to you Louis Kossuth, and to introduce him to the Senate of the United States." The President of the Senate then rose and said: "Louis Kossuth, I welcome you to the Senate of the United States. The committee will conduct you to the seat which I have caused to be prepared for you."

Gov. Kossuth bowed in acknowledgment of this public reception, and, being conducted by Gen. Shields and Mr. Seward to a seat immediately in front of the Secretary's table, took his seat, with Gen. Shields on his right hand, and Mr. Seward and Gen. Cass on his left.

Mr. Mangum then rose and said: "For the purpose of affording to the members of this body an opportunity to pay their respects to our illustrious guest, I move that we do now adjourn." The motion was carried, and the Senate adjourned. The President of the Senate and other senators then left their seats, and, as they approached Governor Kossuth, were severally presented to him by the members of the committee.

The entire front and side galleries of the Chamber were completely filled by the ladies, who had assembled to witness the ceremony. Many ladies found places on the floor of the Senate, the rule having been suspended with a view to their admission there. The reporters' gallery was assigned to gentlemen, and was also crowded.

A PROCLAMATION,

By His Excellency DAVID S. REID, Governor of the State of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House of the General Assembly did at the last session pass the following Act:

AN ACT to amend the Constitution of North Carolina.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House concurring, that the second clause of third section of the first Article of the amended Constitution ratified by the people of North Carolina on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1835, be amended by striking out the words, "and possessed of a freehold within the same district of fifty acres of land for six months next before and at the day of election," so that the said clause of said section shall read as follows: All free white men of the age of twenty-one years (except as is hereinafter declared) who have been inhabitants of any one district within the State twelve months immediately preceding the day of any election and shall have paid public taxes, shall be entitled to vote for a member of the Senate.

SECTION 2. Be it further enacted, That the Governor of the State be, and he is hereby directed, to issue his Proclamation to the people of North Carolina, at least six months before the next election for members of the General Assembly, setting forth the purport of this Act and the amendment of the Constitution herein proposed, which Proclamation shall be accompanied by a true and perfect copy of the Act, authenticated by the certificate of the Secretary of State, and both the Proclamation and the copy of this Act, the Governor of the State shall cause to be published in all the newspapers of this State, and posted in the Court Houses of the respective Counties in this State, at least six months before the election of members to the next General Assembly.

Read three times and agreed to by three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House respectively, and ratified in General Assembly, this 24th day of January, 1851.

W. C. DOBBINS, S. H. C. J. N. S. EDWARDS, S. S.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Office of Secretary of State. I WILLIAM HILL, Secretary of State, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act of the General Assembly of this State, drawn off from the original on file in this office. Given under my hand, this 21st day of December, 1851.

AND WHEREAS, the said Act provides for amending the Constitution of the State of North Carolina so as to confer an equal qualification for the House of Commons the right to vote also for the Senate. Now, therefore, to the end that it may be made known that if the aforesaid amendment to the Constitution shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the whole representation in each house of the next General Assembly, it will then be submitted to the people for ratification, I have caused this my Proclamation in conformity with the provisions of the aforesaid Act.

In testimony whereof, DAVID S. REID, Governor of the State of North Carolina, hath hereunto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of the said State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, on the thirty-first day of December, in the 18th year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and in the 7th year of our Independence.

DAVID S. REID, By the Governor, THOMAS SETTLE, Jr., Private Sec'y. Persons into whose hands this Proclamation may fall, will please see that a copy of it is posted up in the Court House of their respective counties.

WHEELER'S HISTORICAL SKETCHES.—We continue the extracts from our exchange—in broken doses—the present being a pretty strong one.—WHEELER'S BOOK. Mr. Wheeler's "Historical Sketches of North Carolina," are published, and in course of delivery to subscribers. A copy was laid upon our table a few days since, by the agent in this place, but we have had no opportunity to examine it except in a very cursory manner.

We are pleased to see in it many rare colonial documents, official papers relating to revolutionary events, and important statistical matters which have been hitherto difficult of access to the common readers of the country. On the other hand, we perceive that the book has to undergo the ordeal of pretty severe criticism, not only on account of its style, but inaccuracies in many particulars. In his endeavors to make the work very acceptable to the representatives of the wealth and literature of the State, he has loaded it too much with first-familyism. In his sketches of the distinguished men of each county, he includes the living as well as the dead; and it is a very difficult matter to do justice to the living, in the eyes of contemporaries, by any attempt at personal history. Besides, whether Mr. W. be conscious of the fact or not, his party predilections are sometimes perceptible in this department of his work.

There are said to be several inaccurate statements—included, some were to be expected in a work of its extent and character. They may not, however, be of disadvantage; for while they will serve to awaken investigation, they will also in a full degree, open out of the public desire for a full and accurate history of North Carolina, such as shall do ample justice to the State.

The book is only sketchy, and lacks both in plan and execution, the dignity of a history. But as a repository of much, very much, that is valuable to the North Carolina, to be found nowhere else collected in similar space, we have no hesitation in commending it to public patronage. Greensborough Patriot.

FROM THE WILMINGTON HERALD. "WHEELER'S HISTORY OF N. CAROLINA." "Every time I WHEELER 'bout Linnup Jim Crow." A friend has suggested the above extract from a once popular song as an appropriate motto to adorn the title pages of future editions of the late History of North Carolina. We do not fancy it much, for altho' it must be conceded by every reader of this new and valuable work, that it is a most daring specimen of composition, written in general defiance of the rules of the English Grammar, yet it cannot also be denied that there is a mass of historical and biographical incident collected in its pages, of great interest and value. The industry and perseverance manifested by the compiler, for such he is and no historian, in gathering together from the rubbish of the past many his son the celebrated Joseph A. Hill, the orator of the Cape Fear, and undoubtedly the first man of his age in the State, who represented the town and county on several occasions in the Legislature, and who cut off in the vigor of his days, and the first fruits of his fame. Nor of Wm. B. Meares, who likewise represented the town and county in the Legislature, who was the candidate of the Whig party more than once for U. S. Senator, his election being warmly urged by Mr. Gaston, Nor of Col. Jno. D. Jones, formerly Speaker of the House of Commons, and the recipient of other offices of trust and importance. He omits all notice of Godfrey, the author of the first American Drama "Prince of Parthia," and the son of the discoverer of the quadrant, who now lies buried in St. James' Church Yard, a short distance off.

Also of Dr. John Hill, late President of the Bank of Cape Fear, a scholar, and a writer of fine ability, and the author of an admirable address delivered at Chapel Hill some years ago. Of Archibald M. Hooper, known throughout the State for his extensive research and varied acquirements. Of Wm. S. Hasell, the author of "Alfred," an historical poem, which was deemed worthy of publication in the Charleston Book, (1845) but of which a North Carolina Historian takes no notice.

Of Col. William McKee, U. S. E., a gentleman of distinguished military talent, whose admirable qualities of mind and heart procured him early distinction and lasting honor. Of whom Gen. Scott remarked, that "he combined more of genius and military science with high courage than any other officer who participated in the war of 1814." And Mr. Calhoun likewise declared, that "his talents and character were of the highest order, and that he only lacked opportunity to distinguish himself as a military chief."

Of Capt. Alex. Swift, an officer of great merit, who served his country with distinction during the Mexican war, and died a few years since. Of Wm. Henry Wright, Lieutenant of the U. S. Engineers, a man of splendid ability, who graduated at West Point with the highest honors of the Institution, and was the author of a "Practical Treatise on Mortars," now a standard and valuable work.

Of Capt. Samuel McKenzie, of Brunswick, greatly distinguished, who was an actor in the brilliant operations in Mexico during the last war, and died there after the capture of the city. Of Samuel R. Jocelyn, the first Equity lawyer of his day in the State, whose professional ability in this department of jurisprudence was such, that an earnest desire was entertained during his life to establish a special Court of Chancery, in order that he might be made the Chancellor; for thereof, and doubtless this Court would have been created but for his characteristic disinclination to assume this or any other office.

His notice of Hon. John Stanly, of Newbern, that unrivalled debater, is brief and poor indeed. In fact but eight lines and three quarters are devoted to his life and services, and the balance, something over a page, to an account of his "unfortunate affair with Gov. Speight." And by the bye, it seems to be a penchant of the Col's to record all the duels that have taken place in by gone years, forgetting apparently that their relation can serve no useful purpose whatever, but may have a tendency to re-open old wounds, and excite ancient and nearly extinguished animosities.

Capt. J. H. K. Burgwin, who was killed at Taos, in New Mexico, and of whom a brief notice is given under the head of Craven County, belonged to Wilmington. There are numberless other mistakes and short comings to which we have not the leisure to advert. Some of them have been pointed out by other papers. We dislike repetition. We will record two more only and leave the subject. Our friend Strong, of the N. C. Telegraph, is omitted in the list of Editors of the State, and Judge Potter, of Fayetteville, one of the oldest Judges of the country, known throughout the State by nine-tenths of the people as having been appointed by Jefferson, a Judge of the District Court, is omitted down by a lawyer and historian to succeeding generations as a Circuit Court Judge.

And this is history. The Lord look down. For ourself while we desire that Col. Wheeler may receive ample pecuniary recompense for his zeal and industry; while we heartily recommend the purchase of his book by every son of North Carolina, for it is a valuable work beyond dispute, we nevertheless must protest against its reception abroad as a specimen of North Carolina literature. We are not so intensely in love with North Carolina and everything pertaining thereto, as to gulp down a history with a smack, merely because it is written by one of her sons, while at the same time the aforesaid history is full of misstatements and errors, and blunders of composition enough (were he alive) to burst old Lindley Murray's sides with laughter in the perusal.

Wilson.—Mr. Wheeler is mistaken in his statement that the county-seat of the new county of Yadkin, (Wilson), was named in honor of Louis D. Wilson, of Edgecombe. It was named for the late Joseph Wilson, for many years Solicitor on the circuit in which Yadkin county is situated. We speak on the authority of "one who knows."—Greensborough Patriot.

Late from Mexico.—Popular Outbreak.—Flight of Caravajal confined, &c. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29. The steamer Mexico has arrived with advices from the City of Mexico, to the 19th ult. On the 16th, a popular outbreak occurred against all foreigners, in consequence of a reduction in the tariff on provisions. Many stores were destroyed and lives lost. The raising of the siege at Caravajal has been confirmed. Caravajal lost four killed and seventy wounded.

Bishop Oregenton, the Bishop elect of the New York Diocese, and successor of Bishop Onderdonk, has published a letter, in which he declines the acceptance of the office. The chief reason assigned is the differences existing between portions of the Church. The Release of the Cuban Prisoners.—The news from Spain is that the Queen has pardoned all the prisoners taken in the Cuban invasion. For this act of clemency they may thank the United States Government, which has perseveringly interceded in their behalf, notwithstanding that they had forfeited, by their acts, all right to any such intercession. The clemency of the Queen, in this instance, is exercised more as an act of friendship towards the United States than from any particular claim upon its mercy which the offenders could themselves present; and under all the circumstances, the good-will exhibited is a remarkable instance of generosity.—Ledger.
