March 30, 1852. JONES & BARBEE. LIFE INSURANCE. THE Undersigned has been appointed Agent of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insu-500 BAGS white Corn Meal, 100 lbs. in a rance Company. Every member for life participates in the profits of the Company; and the annual premium for life membership, where it annual premium for life membership, where it amounts to $30 or more, may be paid one-half in each, and the other half in a note at 12 months. Debtors' lives may be insured by creditors. A man may insure his own life for the exclusive benefit of his family. The lives of slaves may be insured. This system is rapidly growing into faver, all over the civilized world. It is one by which a family, for a small sum annually, may be provided for, after the death of its head, on whose exertions they may have been dependent for a support. It is a good investment of money, even if one should live long after taking out a Life Policy. Explanatory pamphlets, and the necessary Blanks, furnished on application.
