Pilot Mountain.
The Great National Guide is situated in Surry County, N. C. a mile west of the Sticks line, on the main road leading from Salem west—distance 25 miles. Summit 18 miles. Bethany 17 miles, and within 3 miles of the State line from the above places across the Blue Ridge by Mount Airy to the Sulphur Springs in Virginia. The height of the Pilot Mountain (says Prof. Caldwell) is 1750 feet above the level of Grassy Creek, which is the nearest stream. The view from the Pinnacle is said to be the grandest of any other point in the Southern States, embracing Kings Mountain in York Dist., S. C., Pickens, Spartanburg, and Fairforest, S. C., the Table Rock in Greenville Dist., S. C., all of which are 100 miles or more distant. A full view of the Blue Ridge from North Park to South, West, and the Allegheny as far as the eye can reach, the peaks of Oregan, the Buffalo Range, and many other points in Virginia. A view into four States can be had at the same time.

The Pilot for the last year has been much visited by strangers from all parts of the United States. The ascent to the Pinnacle is not safe by steps and ladders from the House kept by the Subscriber, one and a half miles south of the Mountain. A good carriage road within six hundred yards of the Pinnacle a good Guide will always be ready to wait on strangers. No pains will be spared to wait on visitors and make them comfortable with every thing the country affords. The cabins are well supplied with comfortable beds and bay. Near the House is a fine Mineral Spring, the properties of which are Sulphur, Iron and Magnesia. Inquire for the Subscriber's House, as he is the sole proprietor and owner of the Pilot Mountain.
