Prospectus for 1854. THE NATURBAY EVENING PUST.

UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. WIHE Proprietors of the Post, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the gen erous patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other Literary Weekly in America. And, as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged as contributors for the ensuing year the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth--Emerson Bennett--Mrs. Denison—Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern. In the first paper of January next, we design com-mencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for our olumns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS,

Col. James C. Davis, of Robeson, By Emerson Bennett, Author of "Viola," "Clara Moreland, "The Forged Will," etc. This Novelet, by the popular author of "Clara Moreland," we design following by another called

THE STEP-MOTHER. By Mrs. Mary A. Denison, Author of "Home Pictures," "Gertrude Russell," etc. We have also the promise of a number of

Sketches by Grace Greenwood, "Little Pilgrim."

Mrs. Southworth-whose fascinating works are now being rapidly republished in England-also will me tain her old and pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her gifted pen will be entitled. MIRIAM, THE AVENGER; or, The Fatal Vow.

of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Deserted Wife," etc. And last-not least-we are authorized to announce a series of articles from one who has rapidly risen very high in popular favor. They will be entitled a NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,

By FANNY FERN, Author of "Fern Leaves," etc. We expect to be able to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern-as well as the series by Grace Greenwood in the early numbers of the coming year. Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, The News, Congressional Reports, The Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.
