JAMES KYLE

Is now receiving his Fall supply of DRY GOODS,
Boots, Shoes, Hats, Umbrellas, &c.

Among which are—
French and English Merinos, very cheap;
Muslin DeLain and Alpaca;
Broad, Plaid and Plain Silks;
Muslin and Bobinet Sleeves and Collars;
Merino and other Shawls, long and square;
Calico and Ginghams; The science of Photography, and all the latest and most improved apparatus, &c., for the prosecution of that beautiful and exquisite branch of Photography, which he will now present to the inspection of his former enlightened and discriminating patrons. The science of Photography, or as more commonly known under the appellation of Daguerreotyping, has until very recently remained in its infancy, but from the persevering and energetic researches in Aetonic Chemistry, of many of its numerous and eminent votaries,—geniuses both of this country and Europe—it is now shining forth in all the fullness of the most sanguine imagination, and is destined to contribute much to the advancement of the arts and sciences generally, as well as in faithfully and truthfully delineating the Human face divine. Pictures by this process are considered far superior to Daguerreotypes.

Daguerreotypes, Crystalloges, Ambrotypes, Panotypes, Calotypes and all the other types taken at my Rooms in the Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens over the Jewelry Store of Messrs. Beasley & Houston and Dr. Hinesdale's Drug and Apothecary Store, Hay Street, Fayetteville.

N. B. Persons having Daguerreotype Likenesses of absent or deceased friends or relatives, can have them copied of the same or of larger dimensions by the new process, and as a picture, greatly improved. Pictures copied Photographically upon Paper, unexceptionable as a Likeness, from a small and indifferent Daguerreotype, furnishing them either in Light or Shade or in Colors, exceeding the finest Engraving in Water Colors. Prices varying according to size and finish.
