$25 REWARD.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 16th inst., his Negro man ISHAM, about 25 years old, rather slender, about 140 pounds. ISHAM is slightly deformed, the left shoulder being lower than the right, which causes him to appear to lean to the left when walking from you. It is possible he may have been enticed away by a white woman calling herself Ann Davis, who left the neighborhood on Monday last, as I understand, saying she was going to South Carolina, as they were often seen together before he ran away. ISHAM is well known in Chapel Hill and vicinity, as he was raised there. It is likely he has free papers, and under an assumed name will attempt to get to a free State. I will give the above reward for his apprehension and delivery to me at Fayetteville, or confinement in jail so that I get him again. And a further Reward of $100 for the apprehension and conviction in our Superior Court of Law, of any person or persons enticing him away.

Rogers's Store Post Office,
Waker Co., N. C., Oct. 17th 1855.

NOTICE.—Sometime in the Month of February or March, 1854, I, Benjamin Rogers, of the county of Wake, and State aforesaid, made a limited power of attorney to William A. Rogers, of the county of Robeson, and State aforesaid, for the care and protection of some several servants, then engaged in the Turpentine business, until they were released by certain trustees, or returned to me, or so directed I wrote, and for no other purpose whatever; to which a part was re-vised by said trustees, in March, 1854, and balance returned to me, at which time I considered the agency of William A. Rogers had ceased and was of no effect. But since then, (one or two months back), I was credibly informed that moneys due to me were paid over to him, and under color of the said power of attorney, and he had received it accordingly, and I delays the payment of the same to me, or my proper agent. Now, be it known, that I did not consider him agent for collecting or receiving any such moneys for me, or my servants after they were re-vised by trustees, and balance of moneys returned to me. As such, I do hereby revoke any and every power of attorney, and such agency heretofore and hereafter, and all acts of his in any way or manner touching the same premises in my name, shall be null and void, from that time, day and date above written.
