Reed's Patent Chronometer Engine. Is is an improved Steam Engine for which Letters Patent vore granted to JOHN A. REED, of New York, Jan. 9, 1855-nature of this improvement consists in the increase of power 150 per cent. and reducing the weight of the Engine one-half, saving of fuel is effected by letting the steam in on both sides explinitely doubling the size of the part, and balancing the ure, removing the friction and weight of the side valves, excites, cross heads, connecting rods, &c. The exceeding similar of this Engine, renders it much more durable and easily aged than any other, and when placed upon the boiler with the side of the part of the portable though effective.

Less Engines received the FIRST PRIZE MEDAL at the Great fulfillo in Paris. There are about Seventy-Five of them now tion in Paris. There are about Seventy-Five of them not allon, all giving great satisfaction.
