In our opinion, at this crisis of our political history, it behooves every Southern man to let his influence be felt as far as it can, in suppressing the onward proage from the South. The time has come when it is right and proper, that we should have "a local habitation and a name" here, in this great city. We have an influence and it shall be felt!

There are large houses in New York that do an enormous Southern Trade, who are notorious among us, as Abolitionists of the deepest dye. Can it be possible that our Southern merchants are aware of this? No! It cannot be! Our people of the South are too true to their principles and interest, to knowingly give aid and comfort to the enemy. They cannot be willing to build up those who daily hurl anathemas against them, and would at any time crush them to the earth if in their power to do so.

We stand here as a beacon light for the South, and nothing that may come to our knowledge, which may Exercises: "Five Hundred Mistakes Corrected"
