E. J. HALE & SON. Fire Insurance.

E refer our readers to the annual statement of the Ætna Insurance Company, of Hartford, which will be found in another column. Interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum will be cessful institution was incorporated by the Legislature Freight and Passenger Line between allowed on subscriptions to stock made after the 15th capital is $500,000, and its accumulations exceed $800,000 more, making its entire assets over $1,300,000, invested as detailed in the statement referred to. These results indicate that during the period of nearly forty years since its organization, (without a single change of its chief officer,) its business has been conducted with judgment and prudence. It has been thus far successful in an eminent degree, discharging, as we are informed, all its obligations by the payment of about ten million dollars for losses, without asking a day's delay in any instance. It has had but little litigation, notwithstanding the immense number of transigation, notwithstanding the immense number of transactions made. In order to attain as much certainty as possible in such a business as insurance, it has been the provention of the Cornel of the Co the practice of the Company, for several years, at great labor, carefully to classify and arrange their risks into about fifty distinct classes, so as to ascertain The undersigned, being desirous of changing his business, offers his Drug Store for sale. It occupies one of the most desirable situations in town for the business. Any person desirous of going into the business can get a bargain.

The undersigned, being desirous of changing his the amount insured on each class, the amount of all shippers that no efforts will be spared in future, and feel confident that our facilities for dispatch are losses upon each. This classification, extending over a long period, and covering property to a very large amount, furnishes reliable data, and presents a sound, substantial basis of actual experience, upon which to conduct its business. Insurance is not a matter of luck or chance, as many suppose; its hazards are ascertainable, and its principles are capable of being reduced to a system, the practical working and results of which are as certain as that of any other business. The Ætna Company, by adhering rigidly WOULD very respectfully suggest to my friends and customers, to call and examine my unpreceto an extent surpassed by no other Company in the U. States, and has increased its business and its income from year to year with a steady growth. One great source of its security is the wide distribution of its risks—a policy which it pursues with great strictness—limiting the amount to be covered in each locality. By this course it has passed, with comparative impuhity, through some of the most sweeping and destruc-tive fires, which have swallowed up other companies less cautious in their business. It is a system like this, based upon experience, which gives stability and soundness to a company, and to the assured confidence
