Stewart's Distributors vs. Thompson et al.
THIS is to give notice to the distributors of Thomas Stewart, deceased, who was a free man of color, if such there be, who have not assigned their interest in said decedent's estate, that the undersigned was appointed a Commissioner by a decree of the Circuit Court of Dinwiddie County, in the State of Virginia, to receive the above sum of money, which is for distribution, and to advertise in the Raleigh Standard and one other newspaper published in North Carolina, in each paper once a week for four weeks successively, giving notice to the absent distributors of Thomas Stewart to come forward and prove their rights as such. Now, therefore, if any such distributee will make proof before me that he is such distributee, at any time before the next term of the Circuit Court for said county, which will be holden on the 18th of September next, or before the Court at the said next term, he will thereby entitle himself to his distributive share of said sum. R. R. COLLIER, Commissioner.

COLOR-TYPES AND AMBROTYPES.
THE Subscriber has taken the Rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Kott, over Bessley & Houston's Jewelry Store, where he will be happy to wait on those who wish a good likeness of themselves or friends.
P. S. I would particularly call the attention of the public to the COLOR-TYPE, which is the point of beauty far surpassing any other in the shape of a Daguerreotype or Helio, and is but little inferior, if not fully equal to the finest miniature painting in ivory, which it very much resembles. Pictures taken in cloudy weather as well as fair.

$300 REWARD.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 15th of December, 1852, a negro boy named DENNIS. Said boy was about twenty-one years of age when he left, and weighed about 140 or 150 pounds. He is dark complexioned, round faced, full jawed, slightly bow-legged, round shouldered, leans forward when he walks, and is very intelligent. He has a scar on the inside of one thigh, caused by a wound received in a fall from a tree. I have reason to believe that he has been in the counties of Johnston, Harnett, Cumberland and Bladen, and in the towns of Averasboro and Fayetteville, where he passed for a free man, under the assumed name of Joseph Jacobs, John G. Williams and Willie. He has at times followed the occupation of a ditcher. I have also been informed that he left Raleigh in a buggy with an Irishman, probably under a promise of being taken to a free State.
I will pay a reward of $100 for his apprehension and delivery to me, or for his confinement in jail so that I get him if taken within this State; $200 if taken out of the State; and also $100 for proof sufficient to convict any white person with having harbored him, whether in or out of this State.

AT A MEETING
OF the Commissioners of the Cheraw Coal Fields Ball Road, held in Carthage, on the 27th April, 1857, it was unanimously

Resolved, That Books of subscription of Stock for the construction of a Ball Road from Cheraw, S. C., to the Coal Fields on Deep River, N. C., to some point more easterly on Deep River, be opened on the 1st day of June at Carthage on Deep River, under the direction of Dr. Chas. Chambers, Dr. Wm. Hays, D. G. Campbell and Wm. D. Harrington; at Carthage, under the direction of D. Turner, W. B. Richardson, Saml. Barrett, Col. John Morrison and S. C. Bruce; at Rockingham, (Richmond County,) under the direction of Col. H. W. Harrington, Wm. P. Leak, R. S. McDonald and Walter F. Look; at Troy, (Montgomery County,) under the direction of Samuel H. Christian, John S. Chambers, Robt. A. Chambers and D. S. Pemberton; at Cheraw, S. C., under the direction of D. Maloy, J. C. Wadsworth, Robt. Kendall, Alisa McFarlan and J. M. Throsgold; at Bennettsville, under the direction of J. S. Gillespie, R. F. Pequee, Chas. Irby and J. W. Harrington; at Chesterfield Court House, under the direction of Dr. T. E. Powe, W. L. T. Prince, E. J. Waddill and A. McQueen; at Darlington Court House, under the direction of J. D. Wilson, Dr. Thos. Smith, W. D. Bruce, T. A. Dargan and Edgar Charles; at Charleston, S. C., under the direction of Dr. S. H. Dickson, Rev. P. N. Lynch, E. L. Adams and Joshua Lazarus, and kept open until ordered to be closed by the Commissioners.

Ordered that this notice be published in the North Carolina Argus, until the 1st day of July, 1857, with request that the Fayetteville Observer, North Carolina Argus, Charleston Post and Herald, Charleston Mercury, and Charleston Courier, copy up to that date.

SELECT MALE SCHOOL
AT OXFORD, N. C.

THIS School, which hitherto has enjoyed a high degree of prosperity under the conduct of J. H. Barger, A. M., by whom it was originally established, will be re-opened on the 15th of July, and arranged to prepare boys for advanced classes in the University. For this purpose, Prof. A. G. Brown, whose reputation is well known as a Teacher of the Ancient Classics during the last thirteen years at Chapel Hill, will be associated with the present Principal, and Rev. T. J. Barger will continue to be an assistant instructor. The School, as thus organized, is designed to be permanent and of the highest grade. As it is divided into a few classes pursuing a regular course of studies, considerable time will be devoted to examination and lecture upon the subject of every lesson by each instructor in his own department.

Important advantages have been secured by the establishment of a Literary Society, with its library, and an efficient system of discipline, in which special attention is given to the habits and deportment of the young men, when not engaged in the immediate duties of the School.

Its location is very eligible; the climate of Oxford is excellent, and the commodious building erected, stands on an eminence in a beautiful grove, beyond the corporate limits of the town and near the residence of the Principal and other private families, who will accommodate the Students with board.

Two terms of twenty weeks each, coinciding with those of the University, compose the scholastic year, and the price of board and tuition is ninety dollars a term.

Applications should be made as early as practicable, accompanied in every instance with a statement of the age and proficiency of the applicant.

DOBBIN HOUSE!
POWERS & TROY, PROPRIETORS.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment announce to the public, that owing to the constantly increasing patronage extended to them, they have been induced to enlarge the accommodation by the addition of an extensive Dining Room on the lower floor, and suite of rooms on the second floor; thus enabling them to accommodate all who may favor them with a call. And they pledge themselves to an increased exertion to give satisfaction to their patrons.
Spacious Stables attached and careful Ostlers in attendance.

The eligible location of the Establishment, with the experience of the Proprietors in providing for the comfort of their patrons, they hope will secure to them a liberal share of the travel.

The Western and Southern Stages arrive at and depart from this House.
Carriages in attendance on arrival and departure of Steam Boats, for the accommodation of passengers. Horses and Carriages furnished at any notice for carrying travellers to any part of the adjacent country.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.

THE Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and represent her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterian Weeklies are taken in the bounds of our three Presbyteries. We have 12,000 Communicants and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania. Our sister States on the North and South, neither of which has a membership so large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people. The time has come when the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina should likewise do her duty to her children. It is a conceded and important fact, that hundreds of our members will take a State paper who will take no other. The Paper is needed to be the organ of our Synod and Presbyteries—to elevate and enlighten the people by our membership by diffusing evangelical knowledge—to promote the cause of Education—to develop the talents of our Ministry, and to strengthen the attachment of our people to the soil and sanctuaries of their own State.

Our Church in other States, and other Churches in this State, can supply their members with a Religious Journal which may not yet be. Are North Carolina Presbyterians inferior in talent, energy and patriotism to their neighbors on the North or South, or to Christians of other denominations at home? With the same or better opportunities of accomplishing this work, shall we leave it undone? In the language of one of our most able and useful Ministers, an adopted son of our State, "It ought to have been undertaken 20 years ago, but it is not too late to begin to do right."

In the last two or three months, a fund of about $5000 has been subscribed as a permanent capital. At a meeting of the contributors, held at Greensboro on the 14th of May last, Baker, Chairman, the Paper was unanimously located at Fayetteville, under the name and title of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN. Rev. Wm. N. Mebane and Rev. George McNeill were elected Editors; Rev. Messrs. George McNeill, Wm. N. Mebane, A. Baker, and C. H. Wiley, and Messrs. George McNeill, Sr., John H. Cook and David Murphy were appointed an Executive Committee, to establish the Paper and manage its business affairs.

It is our wish and design to make the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN a journal of the first class, equal to the best in the country in typographical appearance and in adaptation to the wants of our Churches. Its columns will afford the latest intelligence, both foreign and domestic, and special care will be taken to give a full and accurate summary of State news. The name of the Paper is designed to be an exponent of its character and contents. From conviction, it will advocate the conservative, orthodox, Old School doctrine of the Presbyterian Church.

Our first appeal is to our own people—to N. C. Presbyterians. Whilst we rely confidently upon their favor, we trust that the native sons of North Carolina who have found homes in other States, and the adopted citizens of our State who form so important an element in our Ministry and membership, will take a deep interest in this enterprise and give it their hearty support.

Terms: $2 per annum in advance, or on delivery of the first number; $2 50 in six months; $3 at the end of the year. To clubs of 25 or more, paying in advance and when the Paper is sent to an address, a discount of 10 per cent will be allowed. Our Ministers and Elders are earnestly desired to act as Agents, and all others friendly to the cause will please assist in procuring as many subscribers as possible, and forward the names, by August 1st, to this Office. As soon as 1500 subscribers are obtained, the first number will be issued. If a faithful and vigorous effort is made in the next two months by those who take a lively interest in this work, we will, without doubt, be able to begin the publication at the end of that time with a paying subscription list of at least 3000.

LIFE INSURANCE.
THE Undersigned has been appointed Agent of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. Every member for life participates in the profits of the Company; and the annual premium for life membership, where it amounts to $50 or more, may be paid one-half in cash, and the other half in a note at 12 months.

Debtors' lives may be insured by creditors. A man who insures his own life for the exclusive benefit of his family. The lives of slaves may be insured. This system is rapidly growing into favor, all over the civilized world. It is one by which a family, for a small sum annually, may be provided for, after the death of its head, on whose exertions they may have been dependent for a support. It is a good investment of money, even one should live long after taking out a Life Policy. Explanatory pamphlets, and the necessary Blanks, furnished on application.
