Fire Insurance.

WE refer our readers to the annual statement of the Etna Insurance Company, of Hartford, which will be found in another column. This successful institution, incorporated by the Legislature of Connecticut in 1819, with a pecuniary charter, its capital is $500,000, and its accumulations exceed $800,000, more, making its entire assets over $1,300,000, invested as detailed in the statement referred to. These results indicate that during the period of nearly forty years since its organization, (without a single change of its chief officer,) its business has been conducted with judgment and prudence. It has been thus far successful in an eminent degree, discharging, as we are informed, all its obligations by the payment of about one million dollars, for losses, without asking a day's delay in any instance. It has had but little litigation, notwithstanding the immense number of transactions made. In order to attain as much certainty as possible in such a business as insurance, it has been the practice of the Company, for several years, at great length, carefully to classify and arrange their risks into about fifty distinct classes, so as to ascertain the amount insured on each class, the amount of premiums received thereon, and the amount of losses upon each. This classification, extending over a long period, and covering property to a very large amount, furnishes reliable data, and presents a sound, substantial basis of actual experience, upon which to conduct its business. Insurance is not a matter of luck or chance, as many suppose; its hazards are ascertainable, and its principles capable of being reduced to a system, the practical working and results of which are as certain as that of any other business. The Etna Company, by adhering rigidly to its system, and placing its business upon a healthy basis, has obtained the confidence of the community to an extent surpassed by no other Company in the U. States, and has increased its business and its income from year to year with a steady growth. One great source of its security is the wide distribution of its risks—a policy which it pursues with great strictness—limiting the amount to be covered in each locality. By this course it has passed, with comparative impunity, through some of the most sweeping and destructive fires, which have so well-nigh ruined other companies less cautious in their business. It is a system like this, based upon experience, which gives stability and soundness to a company, and to the assured confidence and security.—Baltimore Patriot.

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE,
And the various affections consequent upon a disordered
STOMACH OR LIVER,
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Headaches, Loss of Appetite, Pendency, Constiveness, Bilind and Dropsical Swellings, Rheumatism, and Nervous Affections. It has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared from strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave, because of its great success in many of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our Fatherland scattered here and there over this sick, weak and wretched Island. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged by all who have tried it.
It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuing use of spiritous liquors, or other poisonous substances. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of the troubling and quenching every source arising from the disordered state, and inducing new health and vigor in the system.
SOTIC! Whoever expects to find this a mere water will prove a grateful aromatic condiment, possessed of singular remedial properties.
CAUTION!
The great popularity of this delightful Anion has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. He not persuaded to buy anything else, until you have given Boerhave's Bitters a trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.
BOTTLED at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00, by the
