ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, WE PROPOSE TO PUBLISH

THE GREAT BOOK OF THE YEAR!

The New Tale, by the Authoress of

THE LAMPLIGHTER!

MISS CUMMINS has chosen for the title of her new book the name of the principal heroine, the beautiful and accomplished

MABEL VAUGHN,

And has written a story which, for elegance of diction and interest, has rarely been equaled by any American. The question has been repeatedly asked—Can Miss Cummins write another book equal to "The Lamplighter"? We can answer this question now with perfect assurance, not only from our own personal knowledge, but from the unqualified testimony of literary gentlemen of Boston, who have read the work with great care, and with absorbing interest, both of whom pronounce it a superior book to her first, and assure us that the authoress of "The Lamplighter," instead of losing position, will add immensely to her previously well-earned and world-wide reputation.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.

LONG labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and represent her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterians Weekly are taken in the hands of our three Publications. We have 13,000 Communicants, and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands 6th in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania. Our sister States on the North and South, neither of which has a membership so large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people. The time has come when the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina should likewise do her duty to her children. It is a conceded and important fact, that hundreds of our members will take a State paper who will take no other. The Paper is needed to be the organ of our Synod and to be a medium for the dissemination of the piety of our membership by diffusing evangelical knowledge—to promote the cause of Education—to develop the talents of our Ministry, and to strengthen the attachment of our people to the soil and sanctuaries of our own State.

If our Church in other States, and other Churches in this State, can supply our members with a Religious journal, why may not we? Are North Carolina Presbyterians inferior in talent, energy and patriotism to their neighbors on the North or South, or to Christians of other denominations here? With the same or better opportunities of accomplishing this work, shall we leave it undone? In the language of one of our most able and useful Ministers, an adopted son of our State, "It ought to have been understood 20 years ago, that it is not too late to begin to do right."

In the last two or three months, a fund of about $5000 has been subscribed as a permanent capital. At a meeting of the contributors, held at Greensboro on the 14th of May, Rev. A. Baker, Chairman, the Paper was unanimously located at Fayetteville.

For the name and title of the North Carolina PRESBYTERIAN, Rev. Wm. N. Mcbane and Rev. George McNeill, Wm. N. Mcbane, A. Baker, and C. H. Wiley, Messrs. George McNeill, Sr., John H. Cook and David Murphy were appointed an Executive Committee, to establish the Paper and manage its business affairs.

It is our wish and design to make the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN a journal of the first class, equal to the best in the country in typographical appearance and in adaptation to the wants of our Churches. Its columns will afford the latest intelligence, both foreign and domestic, and special care will be taken to give a full and accurate summary of State news. The name of the Paper is designed to be an exponent of its character and contents. From consideration, it will advocate the conservative, orthodox, Old School doctrines and order of the Church.

Our first appeal is to our own people—to N. C. Presbyterians. Whilst we rely confidently upon their favor, we trust that the native sons of North Carolina who have found homes in other States, and the adopted citizens of our State who so important an element in our Ministry and membership, will take a deep interest in this enterprise and give it their hearty support.

Our terms for advance, or on delivery of the first number, $2 50 in six months; $3 at the end of the year. To clubs of 25 or more, paying in advance and when the Paper is sent to one address, a discount of 10 per cent will be allowed. Our Ministers and Elders are earnestly desired to act as Agents, and all others who have charges shall be preferred in procuring as many subscribers as possible, and forward the names, by August 1st, to this Office. As soon as 1500 subscribers are obtained, the first number will be issued. If a faithful and vigorous effort is made in the next two months by those who take a lively interest in this work, we will, without doubt, be able to begin the publication at the end of that time with a paying subscription list of at least 3000.

DOBBIN HOUSE!

POWERS & TROY, PROPRIETORS.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment announce to the public, that owing to the constantly increasing patronage extended to them, they have been induced to enlarge the accommodation by the addition of an extensive Dining Room on the lower floor, and suite of Rooms on the second floor, thus enabling them to accommodate who may favor them with a call. And they pledge themselves to an increased exertion to give satisfaction to their patrons.

Spacious Stables attached and careful Outlets in attendance.

The eligible location of the Establishment, with the experience of the Proprietors in providing for the comfort of their patrons, they hope will secure to them a liberal share of the travel.

The Western and Southern Stages arrive at and depart from this House.

Care is taken in attendance on arrival and departure of Steam Boats, for the accommodation of passengers. Horses and Carriages furnished at any notice for carrying travellers to any part of the adjacent country.
