PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.

THE Presbytery of North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and report her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterians are taken in the bounds of our three Presbyteries. We have 13,000 Communicants, and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania. Our sister States on the North and South, neither of which has a membership so large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people. This time has come when the Presbytery of North Carolina should likewise do her duty to her children. It is a conceded and important fact, that hundreds of our members will take a State paper who will take no other. The Paper is needed by the organs of our Synod and Presbyteries—to elevate and enlighten the people of our membership by diffusing evangelical knowledge—to promote the cause of Education—to develop the talents of our Ministry, and to strengthen the attachment of our people to the soil and sanctuaries of their own State.

If our Church in other States, and other Churches in this State, can supply their members with a Religious journal, why may not we? Are North Carolina Presbyterians inferior in talent, energy and patriotism to their neighbors on the North or South, or to Christians of other denominations at home? With the same or better opportunities of accomplishing this work, shall we leave it undone? In the language of one of our most able and useful Ministers, "I would not have undertaken 20 years ago, but it is not too late to begin to do right."

In the last two or three months, a fund of about $5000 has been subscribed as a permanent capital. At a meeting of the contributors, held at Greensboro on the 14th of May, Rev. A. Baker, Chairman, —the Paper was unanimously located at Fayetteville, under the name and title of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN. Rev. Wm. N. Mebane and Rev. George McNeill were elected Editors. Rev. Messrs. George McNeill, Wm. N. Mebane, A. Baker, and C. H. Wiley, and Messrs. George McNeill, Sr., John H. Cook and David Murphy were appointed an Executive Committee, to establish the Paper and manage its business affairs.

It is our wish and design to make the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN a journal of the first class, equal to the best in the country in typographical appearance and in adaptation to the wants of our Churches. Its columns will afford the latest intelligence, both foreign and domestic, and special care will be taken to give a full and accurate summary of State news. The name of the Paper is designed to be an exponent of its character and contents. From conviction, it will advocate the conservative, orthodox, Old School doctrine and order of the Church.

Our first appeal is to our own people—to N. C. Presbyterians. Whilst we rely confidently upon their favor, we trust that the native sons of North Carolina who have found homes in other States, and the adopted citizens of other States, who form so important an element in our Ministry and membership, will take a deep interest in this enterprise and give it their hearty support.

TERMS: $2 per annum in advance, or on delivery of the first number; $2.50 in six months; $3 at the end of the year. To clubs of 25 or more, paying in advance and when the Paper is sent to one address, a discount of 10 per cent. will be allowed. Our Ministers and Elders are earnestly desired to act as Agents, and all others friendly to the cause will please assist in procuring as many subscribers as possible, and forward the names, by August 1st, to this Office. As soon as 1500 subscribers are obtained, the first number will be issued. If a faithful and vigorous effort is made in the next two months by those who take a deep interest in this work, we have no doubt, but we are able to begin the publication at the end of that time with a paying subscription list of at least 3000.

Address, Editors of the North Carolina Presbyterian, Fayetteville, N. C.

NORTH CAROLINA REAPERS.
NUMBERS 1 AND 2.
PREPARED WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE WANTS AND INTERESTS OF North Carolina.

Rev. F. M. Hubbard,
PROFESSOR OF THE LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

NUMBER 3,
CONTAINING A FAMILIAR HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION OF NORTH CAROLINA.
Selections in Prose and Verse; many of them by eminent citizens of the State.
HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES, And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Statistics.
Edited by
C. H. WILEY.

Number 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the United States, and as complete.
The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number 1 deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools, in making efforts to have this work completed. These are—
1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Readers of merely a local interest.
2. To remedy the evil complained of in common schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and this great evil thus avoided.
3. Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to the profits of authors and publishers.
This series is to consist of fewer numbers than those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually.
4. To put in the hands of children learning to read common school compositions, containing, in lessons easy enough for all ages, correct specimens of style, interesting in matter and indicating proper morals and religious instruction.
The prices are, for No. 1, 25 cents; No. 2, 37 1/2 cents; and No. 3, 75 cents. A liberal deduction from these prices to Merchants and School Teachers.

STEDMAN'S SALEM MAGAZINE.
IS TO BE THE TITLE OF A LITERARY PERIODICAL, TO BE PUBLISHED MONTHLY, IN THE TOWN OF SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA, BY ANDREW J. STEDMAN, A MEMBER OF THE CAROLINA BAR.

In offering to the Public my Magazine, I claim for the Editorial Chair no superiority over that department of other like Periodicals; but I do claim for the talent of North Carolina, and the South generally, that will be brought to its support, Southern patronage. And I also, as a Southern man, and the Editor of a Southern Magazine, claim for the hands of the Southern country, and especially of North Carolina, that aid and support that will here, at home, establish, upon a firm basis, a fountain of Literature, and exclusively a Home Literature Magazine.

Many are the Magazines now published in the Northern States that are flooding the whole Southern country. There is not, (it is probable,) a county in any Southern State that is not visited by "Harper," "Graham," "Peterson," or "Goodey;" while here, in North Carolina, and the South, where genius untried and untried reigns, the literary talent that is brought into exercise is dedicated to the support of Northern Magazines, while Southern enterprise, taste and talent bow in humble submission to such suicidal policy of Southern contributors.

Why, I ask, cannot we—North Carolina, the South—send greeting to our Southern clime a Magazine, acceptable for the many qualities that adorn the pages of the most chaste, elegant and polite Periodicals? It is true that the South has her Magazines; but few in number are they, and unknown, compared to the publications of the North, which every mail brings to our homes, filled with the result of hired labor, and teeming with unparagoned sedition.

Then I appeal to North Carolina and other Southern States to aid me in my enterprise, and in promoting a literary taste amongst those upon whom, as a Southern man, I have claims.

My Magazine will be of the usual size; and nothing will be admitted to its pages but such articles as will meet the approval of the most fastidious. It shall be of the most elegant texture, equaling in beauty and style any executed at the North.

My price of subscription is THREE DOLLARS per year, which is required to be paid in advance, as the expense to be incurred in establishing such a publication will not admit of a credit system.

The First Number will be issued 1st January 1858. A. J. STEDMAN, Editor and Proprietor.

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE, And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Giddiness, Head and Bleeding Pains, in all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has, in numerous instances, proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was in fact, a matter of course, and it has since been found to be a success among them. I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by their excessive use of spirit, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it makes its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, inducing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Wherever you find this Bitters will be dispensed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a general and almost certain, possessor of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.
The great popularity of this delightful Aromatic has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have seen the BOTTLE HEREIN, where you will find the name of the SOLE PROPRIETORS.
