PROSPECTUS

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN. HE Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from he want of a journal to advocate her claims and represent her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterian Weeklies are taken in the bounds of our three Presbyteries. We have 13,000 Communicants, and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania. Our sister States on the North ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for sixty cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and thirty cents for each Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people. STEDMAN'S SALEM MAGAZINE. LITERARY PERIODICAL,

MONTHLY,

TOWN OF SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA, BY ANDREW J. STEDMAN,

A MEMBER OF THE NORTH-CAROLINA BAR. N offering to the Public my Magazine, I claim for the Editorial Chair no superiority over that department of other like Periodicals; but I do claim for the talent of North Carolina, and the South generally, that will be brought to its support, Southern patronage. And I also, as a Southern man, and the Editor of a Southern Magazine, claim at the hands of the Southern country, and especially of North Carolina, that aid and support that will here, at home, establish, upon a firm basis, a fountain of Literature, and exclusively a Home Literary Magazine.

Many are the Magazines now published in the hearty support.

Terms: $\frac{2}{2}$ per annum in advance, or on delivery of the first number: $\frac{2}{5}$ 0 in six months: $\frac{3}{2}$ at the end of the year. To clubs of 25 or more, paying in advance and when the Paper is sent to one address, a discount of 10 per cent, will be allowed. Our Minispassed and unequaled reigns, the literary talent that is brought into exercise is dedicated to the support of Northern Magazines, while Southern enterprise, taste market, and talent bow in humble submission to such suicidal Sept.

policy of Southern contributors.

Why, I ask, cannot we—North Carolina, the South—send greeting to our Southern clime a Magazine, acceptable for the many qualities that adorn the pages be able to begin the publication at the end of that time with a paying subscription list of at least 3000.

Address, Editors of the North Carolina Presbyterian, Fayetteville, N. C.

> Then I appeal to North Carolina and other Southern States to aid me in my enterprise, and in promoting a literary taste amongst those upon whom, as a Southern man, I have claims.
> My Magazine will be of the usual size; and nothing > will be admitted to its pages but such articles as will meet the approval of the most fastidious. It shall be Illustrated with Engravings and Plates, of the most elegant texture, equaling in beauty and style any executed at the North.

My price of subscription is THREE DOLLARS per year, which is required to be paid in advance, as the expense to be incurred in establishing such a publication will not admit of a credit system.

The First Number will be issued 1st January 1858. A. J. STEDMAN.
