SALE OF THE LOTS OF CAROLINA CITY.

At the Terminus of the Great Central Rail Road of North Carolina.

> ON BEAUFORT HARBOR, ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1857.

AROLINA CITY is situated on an elevated plain, about 15 feet above tide water, immediately on the waters of Beaufort Harbor. This location for a great commercial City was selected by men of com- public generally, that he is still prepared to accommercial experience, after a full examination of all the ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for sixty cents per lands on the Harbor of Beaufort, and in anticipation of the construction of the great Central Rail Road age heretofore received. Every exertion on his part square of 16 lines for the first, and thirty cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by spenessee coming cast from Memphis on the Mississippi, requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accord-ingly. and also in anticipation of the construction of a Kan Road from Carolina City through the counties of Ons-low, Duplin, Sampson, and the town of Fayetteville, to the Coal Fields on Deep River. The Atlantic and North Carolina Rail Road, from Carolina City, to and also in anticipation of the construction of a Rail Goldsborough, will be opened by the 1st January next; the North Carolina Rail Road is in operation to the own of Salisbury, from which point the construction of the great Western Rail Road, through the moun-tains to the Tennessee line, is steadily progressing The Rail Road through Fayetteville to the Coal Fields has for some time occupied the attention of the State, and doubtless will eventually be put in operation, — that part between Fayetteville and the Coal Fields being in rapid course of construction. The completion of these great Rail Roads will carry the agricultural and mineral products of the State to one of the finest form operations for a small compensation: a good price will be charged in all cases. And patients favoring day build up on its waters a flourishing City. br. only well known to every North Carolinian, but have attracted the attention of the country generally. The Carolina City Company believe that the advan-tages of the location which they have selected are many: their land is a high and level plain, lookin southward upon the ocean; its wells and springs afford the purest waters, and the salubrity of the climate is so well known, that Beaufort is believed to be the most healthy watering place on the Southern coast.

At this location, the channel for ships bends in near to the shore and runs parallel with it along the whole LADIES' GAITERS, SATIN and COLORED; LADIES' and GENTS' DANCING SHOES, of a new and beautiful pattern: YOUTH'S and CHILDREN'S BOOTS, SHOES and GAITERS' SHOES and CHILDREN'S BOOTS, SHOES and front of the Inlet, are unexposed to the violent storms and yet a ship may set sail from the Rail Road wharf

PROSPECTUS

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN. HE Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and rep-resent her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterian Weeklies are taken in the bounds of our three Presbyteries. We have 13,000 Communicants, and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyte rians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania. Our sister States on the North and South, neither of which has a me large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people. At a meeting of the contributors, held at Greensbo-rough on the 14th of May, Rev. A. Baker, Chairman, .--the Paper was unanimously located at Fayetteville, under the name and title of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESEVTERIAN. Rev. Wm. N. Mebane and Rev. George McNeill were elected Editors: Rev. Messrs. George McNeill, Wm. N. Mebane, A. Baker, and C. H. Wiler, and Massrs George McNeill. H. Wiley, and Messrs. George McNeill, Sr., John II. Cook and David Murphy were appointed an Executive Committee, to establish the Paper and manage its business affairs.

It is our wish and design to make the NORTH CARO-LINA PRESERTERIAN a journal of the first class, equal to the best in the country in typographical appear-LOST, AST Saturday, 31st ult, (during the hours of parade,) about the Court House, or between the Court House and the Fair Ground, a small yellow to give a full and accurate summary of State news.

Our first appeal is to our own people-to N. C. Preshyterians. Whilst we rely confidently upon the favor, we trust that the native sons of North Carolina who have found homes in other States, and the adopt-ed citizens of our State who form so important an element in our Ministry and membership, will take a deep interest in this enterprise and give it their hearty support.
