> And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Sta-C. H. WILEY. Number 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the

HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES,

United States, and as complete.

The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Num ber 1 decins it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed. These are,

1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of ries of home Renders, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and this great evil thus avoided.

3, Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to Bunting, Wm. McKay, Patrick Murphy, Wm. Faison, the profits of authors and publishers.
J. R. Beaman, Alfred Johnson.

This series is to consist of fewer numbers that those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dellars

> 4, To put in the kands of children learning to read compositions sufficiently familiar but not of the character called childish compositions, containing, in lessons easy enough for all ages, correct specimens of style, interesting in matter, and inculcating proper morals, and religious instruction.

The prices are, for No. 1, 25 cents; No. 2, 371 cents; and No. 3, 75 cents. A liberal deduction from these prices to Merchants and School Teachers. E. J. HALE & SON. Fayetteville, July 29.
